DRUGGISTS GO TO LAW

M. H. WITTICH SUES W. K. HICKS He Charges the Defendant With Slander—Denies Use of Unpatriotic Words. W. K. Hicks finds himself the defendant in a slander suit brought by a rival druggist. The plaintiff is M. H. Wittich, whose shop is about a half a block away from that of Mr. Hicks. He says that Mr. Hicks has been telling generally that he (Wittich) uttered such unpatriotic words as the following: "I am glad that McKinley has been shot. He ought to have been shot six years ago."

RECEIVERSHIP TO CLOSE

American Savings and Loan Affairs About Wound Up. W. D. Hale will be discharged as receiver of the American Savings and Loan association in a few days. He has wound up the affairs of the company and as soon as the formal order of discharge has been filed, his long connection with the defunct association will be at an end. There are some claims of $1,000 undistributed, but as the owners can not be found the receiver has been ordered to turn the money over to the clerk of the district court. The money is due in small sums to various creditors, who have failed to receive the checks sent out by Mr. Hale in payment of the dividends.

GEN. A. E. STEVENSON HERE

He Sees No Reason for Reorganizing the Democracy. General Adlai E. Stevenson is in the city for a few days the guest of his son-in-law, Rev. M. D. Hardin, 410 Eleventh avenue SE. At the home of Mr. Hardin to-day the former vice-president sat in answer to a question propounded by a Journal man. The principles of the democratic party still endure, I see no reason for reorganizing. When the next national campaign approaches I think the voters will find the party united and the democracy presenting a solid front. But I am out of politics, and I do not care to usurp the province of others in discussing political questions. General Stevenson was deeply affected by the death of President McKinley, with whom he served in congress twenty-five years ago. "He was a most lovable, kindly gentleman," said he, "and we were excellent friends. I participated in the memorial exercises held at my home in Bloomington, Ill., the day of the funeral."

THE TAX LEVY BOARD CONSIDERS THE COUNTY ESTIMATE.

INCLINED TO GRANT 2.93 MILLS With Income From Other Sources This Will Give the County $424,500.

The board of tax levy devoted all its time Friday afternoon to the demands and actual needs of the county, which have been found to be two widely different propositions. Although the county commissioners had declared that efficient service could not be performed by the county officials with the tax levy for county purposes below $424,500, the board found some places where the knife could be applied without reaching any vital spot, and it has tentatively fixed the county levy at 2.93 mills.

This, on an assessed valuation of $113,000,000, will yield $330,680. Added to this the sum of $92,380, which the county auditors estimate will come in from fees and other sources of revenue, and the county commissioners will thus have $424,500 to spend next year. Originally—that is last July—they figured that they could not get along with less than $454,000. Yesterday they reduced it to $422,000 after being spurred on to good deeds by the Commercial club, and now they will have to worry along on $424,500. For this year there was an appropriate for county purposes an aggregate of $439,912.

The following table summarizes the work of the board of tax levy yesterday, the first column being the revised estimate of the county commissioners; the second, the estimate of the Commercial club's committee on taxation, and the third column showing the amounts allowed by the board of tax levy:

Table with 4 columns: Item, County Comm. Estimate, Commercial Club Estimate, Board of Tax Levy Allowance. Items include Interest on bonds, Salaries (fixed by law), Board of prisoners and detectives, Sheriff's fees, etc.

To be raised by taxes, $330,680.

Y. M. C. A. EVENING SCHOOL

It Opens Monday With an Address by F. H. Peavey.

The Young Men's Christian Association is ready for the annual opening of its evening school Monday evening at 8 p. m. Frank H. Peavey will give a talk to young men on the Bible and the course will be given by the Apollo Mandolin club. Complete plans and courses have been outlined by this department in the hopes of making the educational feature, the coming fall and winter, more popular with the young men of Minneapolis than ever before.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN

Growing Attendance at the Annual Sunday School Institute.

At the meetings of the Primary and Intermediate Sunday school institute Saturday the study of intermediate work proved of great interest. Rev. Richard Brown gave the Bible lesson and Mrs. H. C. Morse spoke on "The Home Department and Cradle Roll." Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner told how intermediate supplemental work is conducted, and A. M. Lockyer pointed out several errors in the method of teaching. Miss Sarah Brooks, primary supervisor of the St. Paul public schools, spoke of the immense importance of Christian training and influences for children.

The Mayor Holds Up the Permanent Improvement Bonds.

PURCHASERS WILL GO TO COURT The Mayor Says the Act Authorizing the Bonds is Unconstitutional.

Mayor Ames Saturday refused to affix his signature to the $150,000 permanent improvement bonds voted by the council upon his own recommendation. The purchasers, Steward & Nye, a local firm, will begin proceedings at once to compel him to sign them. Dr. Ames has given only one reason for his refusal and that is that he doubts the constitutionality of the act under which the bonds were issued. He says he has others, but those he will state to the court.

MORE HEADS TO FALL

Ames Must Discharge Policemen to Avoid a Deficit.

PATROL BOXES FOR CITIZENS The Mayor Would Increase Facilities for Speedy Reports of Crime to Police.

The petition for an additional appropriation of $100,000 for the police department, which Mayor Ames presented to the board of tax levy earlier in the week, was to come up for final reading Saturday. The mayor says that unless this request is granted it will be necessary to dismiss fifteen or twenty men from the force at the first of the year, in order to keep the expenses of the department within the appropriation. The appointees of the mayor, who went on the force last January, will have their salaries increased $5 per month at the beginning of the year and this will necessitate the dismissals. The mayor does not say whether he will remove his mounted squad, an innovation of his own which has increased the expenses of the department way up, or whether he will take the footmen from the more thickly populated and business districts.
