

JOLTY FOR JONES

Position of the Arkansas Senator Is Precarious.

HIS RE-ELECTION IS IN DOUBT

Connection With the Cotton Bait Trust Strews His Path With Jagged Rocks.

New York Sun Special Service

Washington, Oct. 2.—Senator James K. Jones of Arkansas, according to all accounts that have reached Washington, is engaged in the fight for re-election.

Senator Jones is finding that his own position in the state has undergone a radical change. The fact that he has been compelled to absent himself from Arkansas so much during the last five years has weakened his cause.

Absenteeism, however, would not have hurt him very seriously if his opponents had not charged him with owning $300,000 worth of stock of the round bale cotton trust.

The senator found his case so desperate that not long ago he assailed some northern lawyers who were engaged in an attempt to collect a claim against a certain official.

COFFEE FOR MOTHERS.

The Kind that Nourishes and Supplies Food for Mother and Child.

"My husband has been unable to drink coffee for several years, so we were very glad to give Postum Food Coffee a trial and when we understood that by long boiling it would bring out the delicious flavor, we have been highly pleased with it.

It is one of the finest things for nursing mothers that I have ever seen. It keeps up the mother's strength and increases the supply of nourishment for the child if partaken of freely. I drank it between meals instead of water and found it most beneficial.

FREEMAN NOT FREE

He's Arrested for the Alleged Embezzlement of $20,000.

WAS IN BUSINESS AT MENOMINEE

Sensational Catch Made at the Briggs House, Chicago—Freeman Denies Guilt.

Special to The Journal.

Chicago, Oct. 2.—Archibald W. Freeman, a well-known lumberman of Menominee, Mich., and formerly in the employ of Baber & Watson, railroad contractors of Chicago, was arrested at the Briggs house charged with forgery and embezzlement while acting as district agent at the Baber & Watson cedar mills in Menominee. The amount involved is $20,000.

The specific charges against Freeman are that he forged a certificate of inspection on $20,000 worth of cedar poles, that checks for the amount were sent to Menominee by Baber and Watson, and that Freeman received the money and kept it, there being no lumber to account for the expenditure.

The name said to have been forged to the certificate of inspection was that of Thomas Worth Menominee. According to Sheriff Stiles, a member of a well-known lumber firm in Menominee acted as the go-between for Freeman, and is implicated in the alleged steal.

The defalcation which occurred last April was not discovered until July, when A. D. Watson learned that the stock of lumber at Menominee was alarmingly short. Freeman was at once discharged, and on further investigation the alleged forgery was discovered. In the meantime Freeman had left Menominee, and Chicago detectives were put on his trail.

It was only by the merest accident that Sheriff Stiles located Freeman in Chicago. Prosecuting Attorney W. M. Mills of Menominee came to Chicago on his way to Lansing, Mich., to procure the necessary papers to bring Freeman back from Oregon. Sheriff Stiles agreed to meet the attorney in Chicago, receive the papers, and proceed to Portland.

Before his departure for Menominee, in charge of Sheriff Stiles, Freeman absolutely denied any guilt. "If I am only given three days' time," he said, "I can clear myself of all blame. I was on my way back to Menominee from Oregon, and was due to arrive there on Oct. 5. I have nothing further to say."

HEMP IN THE PHILIPPINES

TESTIMONY IN HEISTAND INQUIRY Several High Officials of the Government Said to Have Belonged to the Company.

Washington, Oct. 2.—The senate committee on military affairs resumed its hearing of the charges against Lieutenant Colonel H. O. Heistand. Major Hawkes, continuing his testimony, asked that Colonel Heistand produce a memorandum made in May, 1899, by the colonel and himself in which $500,000 worth of promissory stock of the Manila rope company was apportioned.

Counsel for Heistand said his client had no knowledge of such a document, but would search for it. Hawkes said his recollection was that he and Heistand, by the terms of the memorandum, were to have $40,000 of the stock and that General Corbin, George D. Meiklejohn, Charles H. Allen, James E. Boyd, W. W. Dudley and L. P. Meener were to receive the remainder in portions. Only Heistand and Hawkes were present when the apportionment was made. Hawkes added that his testimony he should give would connect Heistand with the transaction.

Hawkes detailed a conversation with Heistand in October, 1899, in which Heistand told him that Corbin and Allen had withdrawn from the combination and that Meiklejohn had asked for the return of Hawkes' letter of introduction. Heistand suggested to him that he burn the rest of the correspondence, but he did not accede to that proposition.

During the day it was developed that the telegram from General Otis relating to sites for the hemp factory at Manila was addressed to the adjutant general. A letter from Acting Secretary Sanger said there was no record of a despatch to General Otis which called for the reply.

Major Hawkes told of a conversation with General Corbin relative to a settlement in connection with the case of the hemp company. He said General Corbin told him the bill ought to be paid and to make out his bill and he (Corbin) would forward it through military channels. General Corbin had informed him emphatically that he was not in the company and had nothing to do with it. Hawkes said he made out the bill, but Corbin never forwarded it.

He also said that in an interview with Assistant Secretary Allen, the latter emphatically denied that he had any connection with the company. Hawkes said he had numerous interviews with Assistant Secretary Meiklejohn, to whom he had presented his claim through the mails. Meiklejohn had said he ought to pay. Mr. Meiklejohn, he said, also appointed him in the customs service in the Philippines, and promised him promotion. Mr. Meiklejohn paid him for recommendation before making the appointment.

Major Hawkes gave the details of his trip to the Philippines and his return after his appointment was revoked. He saw Secretary Root, but the committee would not permit him to tell anything of what passed between them, holding that Secretary Root was not involved in the case. Hawkes said he had interviews with Mr. Meiklejohn in which the latter told him that it would be impossible for him to secure a position under the government so long as Mr. Root was secretary of war.

SPOONER'S MISSION

He Will Join in a Conference of Big Uns at Washington.

Special to The Journal. Milwaukee, Oct. 2.—A Madison dispatch says that Senator Spooner leaves for Washington to-night, probably on invitation of a conference of republican leaders called for the purpose of consultation on questions that will be treated in the president's message to congress, including the tariff and the Philippines.

The senator will not be quoted on the purpose of his visit to the capital, but says he has not been summoned to a conference. He will remain in Washington two or three days, probably returning to Wisconsin within a week.

RULES FOR FRESHMEN

Harvard First-Year Men Must Do Thus and So. New York Sun Special Service Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 2.—The freshmen rules were tacked on a tree in the Harvard college yard yesterday. They were printed on a card of poster size and bore evidence of being the work of a sophomore ward. Every year the newcomers are subjected to a joke, and this year the artist laid down a form for their government. The rules prescribe implicit obedience to all upper classes, taboo the wearing of straw hats until after Memorial Day, forbid smoking in the college yard, the carrying of canes, the smoking of pipes, the wearing of "passionate" socks, and for the propagation of a sense of medieval chivalry among freshmen they are cautioned against kissing, hugging or annoying the fair "Rads" (Radcliffe coeds). Facial appendages don't become the veridical physiognomies of freshmen. For the prevention of cold, croup, measles, whooping cough and sore gums among the freshmen class they are advised to have their milk bottles sterilized at least once a week.
