St. Paul, Minnesota, announces to Minneapolis patrons that they will have an attractive display of PARIS AND NEW YORK MODELS ready for inspection at the West Hotel, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 8th and 9th. You are cordially invited to attend.

Social Circles

Mrs. Charles Bayard Mitchell was the guest of honor at a delightful informal reception given this afternoon at the home of Miss Jessie Quail, 2708 Park avenue, by the Young Ladies' Mission circle of Hennepin Avenue M. E. church. Clusters of long-stemmed American Beauty roses were used in profusion through the rooms and branches of autumn leaves added further decoration. During the afternoon Mrs. Mitchell was presented with a pair of silver candlesticks by the young women.

Mrs. Edmund Pennington gave a pretty luncheon this afternoon at the Minneapolis Club for Miss Flossie Heath. Covers were laid for seven and the decorations were in pink and white. Roses and carnations were used in profusion and a bunch of white roses marked Miss Heath's place.

The Misses Chute will give a luncheon Thursday, Oct. 17, at their home on University avenue SE.

The people of Hennepin Avenue M. E. church will give a reception Thursday evening in the church parlors for Dr. and Mrs. Charles Bayard Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Hutschlipler.

The wedding of Miss Ida Greenberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Greenberg, and Dr. J. Lockyer, formerly of Minneapolis, but now of Chicago, will take place to-morrow afternoon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Charles Sternberg, 903 Fifteenth avenue S. A linen shower was given last evening for Miss Greenberg by Miss Pearl Schwartz at her home, 39 Eastman avenue. The rooms were very prettily decorated in purple, the bride's favorite color. About forty guests were present. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. M. Higgins of Stevens avenue, gave an informal tea on Friday for Mrs. Harry C. Higgins of Albert Leese, who is her guest. Mrs. C. D. Smith assisted in receiving. The dining-room was in red, with American Beauty roses. Mrs. O. H. Clement presided at the table and was assisted by Miss Lord and Miss Smith.

The marriage of Miss Ellen Ermlina Bugbee and David Waldo Knowlton was quietly solemnized Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. S. Bugbee, at Fairview, Minnetonka. The cottage was hung with branches of gay autumn leaves and an arch of woodbine was in the alcove. Dr. and Mrs. Knowlton were the bride and groom. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine over white tulle. The skirt was fashioned with ruffles edged with panne velvet applique and the bodice had a deep yoke of the velvet. Miss Bugbee carried bride roses. A wedding breakfast was served and the bride and groom and smilax decked the table. Mr. and Mrs. Knowlton will spend the week at Minnetonka and they will be at home after Nov. 1 at 1201 Hennepin avenue.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. Mitchell Bisson of Holmes avenue entertained fifty guests at a musicale. Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hall and Miss Beatrice Mitchell were the guests of honor. The program included piano and garden flowers were used in the decoration of the parlors. Meteor roses banked the sideboard in the dining-room.

An informal tea was given Saturday by Mrs. William Clay at the Holmes Hotel for Miss Mabel Gilman, the fiancée of Mrs. Clay's brother, Mr. Gilman. The room was decorated with attractive and light refreshments were served from a flower-decked table. There were thirty guests. Mrs. Bell and Miss Mulvey assisted in receiving.

Mrs. Charles of Thirty-fourth street entertained Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Lydia Nelson of Granite Falls. The guests were a group of Stay Hall girls. The parlors were adorned with palms, ferns and roses and in the dining-room pink and red carnations were used with charming effect. Music and dancing were the amusements.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Pineo gave a handsome dinner Friday evening in their apartments at the Holmes Hotel. American Beauty roses were used for the decorations and were placed at each cover. After dinner whist and billiards were the amusement. The guests were Messrs. and Misses George Gillette, Louis Gillette, W. E. Hale, Samuel Rankin, A. C. Paul.

A reception was given to the new supervisor of the public schools, Miss M. Adelaide Holton, Friday afternoon by the teachers of the Horace Mann school. There were sixteen guests, among them Mrs. Alice M. Cooley, the retiring supervisor, who spoke a few words of farewell. The room was decorated with American Beauty roses and nasturtiums. Prappé was served by Misses Harriet Willard and May Brown.

Miss Grace Norton entertained Friday evening at the home of her grand mother for Miss Beldem of Massachusetts, and Miss Laura Hill of St. Paul. The parlors were elaborately decorated with flowers, palms and ferns and red roses formed the center of the dining-room. Candelabra holding blue tapers were at either end of the table. A string orchestra furnished music for dancing. Miss Norton will return to college the last of the month and will be accompanied to Massachusetts by Mr. and Mrs. Norton.

Miss Clara Bauman gave a dancing party Thursday evening at her home on Eleventh street S. The guests of honor were Misses Alice Hasey, Metta Two, Edna Harriety, Blanche Harriety, Evelyn Ellsworth, Frances Record and Corinne Palmgren. Clusters of pink and white asters brightened the parlors and the dining-room was hung with American flags.

Thursday evening Miss Jennie Warham entertained for her guest, Miss Minnie Cornish, of Barnesville, Minn.

Mrs. W. P. Cockey gave a musicale Wednesday evening. The attractive program was given by Mrs. Nettie Fuller Snyder of Mankato, Rev. Father Sullivan of St. Paul, Mrs. Sheldon and U. S. Kerr of Boston. Supper was served after the program.

Mrs. Edgar W. Runyon entertained a group of friends at a delightful musicale Tuesday evening. Miss Helen Hall, Miss Albert Fisher, Scott Woodworth, Richard Woodworth and U. S. Kerr furnished the program. Among the guests were Miss Camille Ursula and Mr. Luere.

Miss Beebe entertained last week for Miss Velde of Pekin, Ill. The decorations were in the fall colors and clusters of asters were arranged on tables. The dining-room was in red and red carnations in the center of the table. The amusement of the afternoon was found in a little booklet, "A Musicale Romance," given to each guest. In the booklet were questions which could be answered with the names of popular songs. Mrs. Thomas won the prize for the most correct list. Mrs. Charles Oliver presided in the dining-room and was assisted by Misses Florence Herthum and Pearl Oliver.

Miss G. Brookberg entertained Saturday evening for Mrs. M. de Mars. A musical program was given by Mr. de Mars and G. Johnson. Mrs. de Mars leaves next week for Europe.

A HOSPITAL CORNER STONE

Laid Yesterday by the Swedish Building Association.

About 5,000 people, mostly Swedes, were present at the laying of the corner stone to the new Swedish hospital at Eighth street and Tenth avenue S yesterday afternoon. The exercises opened with the ringing of a hymn, followed by a scripture reading by Rev. E. O. Stone. After a choral selection by the choir of St. Paul Lutheran church, Rev. E. A. Skogsberg spoke of the institution and its claim to support by the Swedish people. Dr. C. J. Petri spoke of the Swedes as builders. They believed in raising up not in tearing down, and were never anarchists. The choir of the First Swedish Baptist church sang a selection, after which the Rev. Olaf Bodin, president of the hospital board, laid the stone. In it were placed a number of newspapers, including a copy of The Journal, several coins, and the annual reports of the hospital, Soderstrom's reminiscences of Minneapolis, etc. Short passages from the scriptures were read by the Rev. Messrs. E. A. Skogsberg, Carl J. Petri, A. Lidman, E. Sahstrom, G. Levedahl, E. O. Stone, O. A. Nelson and J. G. Hulstrand. The big crowd repeated the Lord's prayer in Swedish and Rev. Alfred Ramsey then pronounced the benediction.

An Easy Way.

Lots of times you say, "Give me a good cigar" and you get something that smokes like straw. If you said "Give me a cigar guaranteed by the Red Box trademark" you would get something good. It costs no more to say this and get what you are entitled to.

Myrtle Lodge, No. 27, Degree of Honor, will give musical and literary entertainment, followed by a dance, in the hall, 243 Bloomington avenue, this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. De Laittre of Aitkin, Minn., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. De Laittre, 2641 Lyndale avenue N., on their way home from a two months' visit to the Pacific coast and Yellowstone park.

The Tuttle Sunday school will have an autumn picnic at Washburn Park Saturday. The children of the Sunday school are requested to meet on the bridge at Washburn Park at 10 a. m.

Fraulheit Anna Schonen-Rene, who has spent the summer in Germany at her old alma mater studying for her master's degree, will return to Minneapolis next week and resume her lessons in voice culture.

Rev. Thad. T. Creswell, formerly of Minneapolis, is in the city to-day visiting his parents. Mr. Creswell is returning home from the annual meeting of the Wisconsin synod at Hudson.

Dollie Rathbun-Chesley for several years a resident of this city, has accepted a flattering engagement as soprano soloist in one of the leading churches of Cincinnati, Ohio, and with her little daughter, has gone there to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gilman, Jr., are visiting in Washington, D. C. Miss Inna Powers gave a supper and theater party in their honor. Mrs. Gilman and her little daughter, has gone there to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Prosser of Willowwood returned to the city to-day.

NEW SWEDISH CHURCH

A Handsome Structure Dedicated in Northeast Minneapolis.

The Swedish Mission church on Central avenue in Northeast Minneapolis was dedicated yesterday afternoon in the presence of 1,500 persons. The president of the Swedish Mission Covenant, the Chicago, Rev. C. F. Bjork, preached the sermon. Rev. F. M. Johnson, of Chicago, made a short address. A collection for foreign missions was taken. The music was furnished by a mixed choir and orchestra.

In the evening Rev. E. A. Skogsberg, of the Tabernacle, and Rev. E. A. Lindquist, of St. Paul, addressed the congregation.

The new church is one of the handsomest in the city. It is of brick and seats 570. Rev. C. V. Bowman is pastor.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN RECEIVED.

A pleasant affair of the day was the reception given this afternoon in the university armory by the Woman's League. The guests were the young women of the university and the great hall was thronged during the reception hours. The women of the faculty assisted Miss Ruth Cole, president of the league, receive. Prappé was served by a group of girls. A program of recitations and fancy dances was given and later in the afternoon the university band played for an informal program of dances.

The league will hold a meeting in a few days to plan for the coming year. It is expected that arrangements will follow those carried out last season and the women of the faculty will be formed into small groups to entertain

SUIT BARGAINS At RANSOM & HORTON'S

We have just received something over 100 Suits that have been delayed some weeks in delivery by the big cloakmakers' strike in New York. We have been made an allowance on this account and will give you the benefit. It isn't a great big cut, but we thought it was good, and it will enable you to save $2.50 to $5.00 on purchase of a swell new late style and popular suit. We have these goods priced at

$16.50 $18.50 and $20.00

and $25.00 $30.00 and $35.00

which is $2.50 less on first three lots and $5.00 less on second three lots than the regular prices. The most desirable lot of goods we have ever shown for the money. See them.

JACKET BARGAINS

Those ladies who purchased Jackets in our $5.00 and $7.50 sale KNOW what big bargains they got, and WE know how heavy our loss was. Now we offer you about 40 medium weight, fine quality Box Coats in 26 to 36-inch lengths at One-Half Price. Tuesday will doubtless see them all gone. Be wise.

SPECIAL BARGAIN

200 Oxford Walking Skirts at $4.75

These goods are a "big snap" for us and you. Same thing has been sold this Fall and pushed as a "bargain" at $5.98 and is now on sale at $6.50 in one of our Twin City stores.

The Endless Variety OF THE FURS in this Biggest FUR STOCK

Are the wonder, delight and satisfaction of people who have shopped in fur stores all over the country. Not an idea, style or detail of finish now in vogue in the world's leading fashion centers but is reproduced here in the matchless "original" Albrecht stock of fur garments and "small goods."

We are particularly proud of our present season's stock of skins, which were shipped to us direct by our own representatives at primary markets. Ours are the pick of the very best offered at those markets and that means the best in the world.

To-morrow, come and see the thousands of
