

Detested States Naval Academy Alumni association, makes the following statement in connection with the Schley inquiry:

"There is one story which I am very anxious should be truthfully presented to the public. After Macley's book was published, Macley stated that the proof had been submitted to the commanding officers, including Admiral Sampson, and that they approved his statements. A reporter calling upon Admiral Sampson when he was ill in his bed obtained from the admiral what appeared to be a true statement. The admiral was asked if he had seen and read the proofs of Macley's book and he said 'yes'."

"Unfortunately he was too ill to go into the matter and did not correct certain parts of them, but as soon as he arrived at the part which contained the statement that Schley was a coward and a traitor he was very much angered and said that the statement was one which he would not fight to make, that it was unjust and unfair to speak of any naval officer in such terms, and declined to have anything further to do with it."

"The secretary, impressed with the great desirability of having the statements of facts accurate and not believing that he was in any way responsible for the statements which he had made, on his own account, compared the book with the records and made on the margins a number of corrections. As these were in the same handwriting as those which when Admiral Sampson was giving his personal attention to the corrections, Mr. Macley was perfectly justified in his statement."

GENESIS OF THE HEMP COMPANY

Former Assistant Secretary of War Tells Why Maj. Hawkes Was Appointed.

Washington, Oct. 8.—George D. Meiklejohn, former assistant secretary of war, was a witness in the Heistand investigation. He stated in his testimony that the origin of the proposed hemp company.

He said that when the proposition was made to him by Colonel Heistand to take stock in the company he replied that he would give it his best consideration, but he had no time to do so.

Mr. Meiklejohn explained that the opening and closing of hemp ports to the Philippines was wholly within the control of the military government of the islands and he could not, and would not if he could, have influenced him in the matter.

Astonishing Story as to Miss Stone, Missionary.

ACTS WITH CAPTORS

Ransom Collection a Scheme to Get Money for Propaganda.

YARN VERY NATURALLY DOUBTED

Critical Relations Between United States and Bulgaria Because of This Incident.

Paris, Oct. 8.—A letter received by the Havas Agency from Salonica, dated Oct. 4, says:

The American consul here has just received orders to make the arrangements with the vail (governor) for the payment of the ransom of Miss Stone. The United States will advance the money, afterward settling with Turkey. The Turkish authorities have made numerous arrests among the Bulgarian population, without distinction of religion, and nearly all have been put to torture in the hope of extracting information. A prisoner of the Bulgarians, an understanding existed between the Protestants and the Macedonian committee and that Miss Stone was even acting in concert with them, with the view of obtaining funds for a political propaganda. These declarations, which were made by Dimitri under torture, are valuable. What is certain is that the captain of the band designated for the payment of the ransom a place in proximity to the Roumanian frontier, where he had to escape the Turkish police, and that the Bulgarian police do not cause him anxiety.

This condition of affairs is shown by the fact that five or six bands of brigands, twelve or fifteen men each, have become so bold between Strumitsa and Kyprit that the officials of the Oriental railway have requested the Turkish military authorities to reinforce the troops guarding the track and bridges.

RUPTURED RELATIONS

Possible Outcome of Our Tilt With Bulgaria.

New York Sun Special Service

Washington, Oct. 8.—Bulgaria, as well as the Macedonian committee, is charged with participation in the plot which culminated in the abduction of Miss Stone, the American missionary. This charge is being made by the United States.

It is a serious charge, inasmuch as it is a breach of the friendly relations which have hitherto existed between the Sofia government and the United States. Careful investigation has been made by the American consul in Sofia, and it is sufficiently strong to have under consideration by the American government.

That the government of Bulgaria should have placed itself in a position where it could even be suspected of the crime is a mystery to Washington officials. Bulgaria has always been a hotbed of anti-Turkish plots, and it may be that her officials, desiring to involve Turkey in further trouble with the United States, countenance the movement for the capture of the American missionary.

MONEY FORWARDED

Very Potent Influences Are Called Into Operation.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Not since the successful attempt to save the life of John Hays Hammond, the engineer implicated in the Jamison raid, has the state department been so forthrightly energetic in efforts to save a human life as it is now exerting in behalf of Miss Stone. A sum of money has been forwarded by cable to Spencer Eddy, the United States secretary of legation at Constantinople, who has shown remarkable energy and ability in unearthing the ramifications of the plot which resulted in the kidnaping of Miss Stone.

It is expected to do to run down the bandits and what is now to be done is to secure similar action on the part of the Bulgarian government, and that end influences more potent with the Slav races than that of the United States government are now at work.

Assurances fall, then the ransom money must be paid, and that is why Mr. Eddy has been placed in possession of his powerful auxiliary. The state department deprecates most earnestly newspaper discussion of the measures it is taking in Miss Stone's behalf, claiming that it is being greatly embarrassed in its efforts by such publications.

Consequently, the officials refuse to give any information concerning the case beyond the merely negative statement that they have not been informed of the reported extension to one month of the time allowed for the ransom of Miss Stone.

Would Seize Ransom Down.

Constantinople, Oct. 8.—Mr. Haskeli, the American missionary at Samokof, Bulgaria, is opening negotiations with the brigands with a view of reducing the amount of the ransom demanded for the release of Miss Stone.

LINEMEN TO LOAF

Chicago Strike May Spread Far and Wide.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—A general strike of the linemen employed by the Bell Telephone company and its numerous allied systems throughout the country is threatened as a result of the Chicago Telegraph company's refusal to grant the strikers' demands for an increase in the wage scale.

The Chicago company is declared by the strikers to be practically the same as the Bell company, being controlled largely by the same interest and having been built up under the same system of patents as the Bell company and controlled for nearly half a century.

Aside from Chicago, the principal places in which the Bell interests would have to fight are New York, Boston, and practically every town of any considerable magnitude in New England and throughout the eastern states generally.

C. L. Smith Is Now Looking Over Former Sheriff's Accounts.

Indignant When Asked to Tell Who He Is.

A REFUND MAY BE DEMANDED

Investigation Shows That He Appears to Have Made Some Irregular Collections.

C. L. Smith, attorney for the board of county commissioners, is now investigating the accounts of Alonso Phillips, former sheriff of Hennepin county, to determine whether or not Mr. Phillips collected excess fees from the county. The commissioners rested after noon and instructed him to look into the matter and also authorized Chairman Sweet to make formal demand for any overcharges that he might discover.

Although the resolution passed does not bind the board, it was understood that if Mr. Phillips refused to make any refund, the board would take the matter up to date the investigation has developed the fact that Mr. Phillips charged for the service of tax warrants when no money was collected, and that he also collected for the service of writs when no service was had.

In the aggregate these charges will amount to a considerable sum, as Mr. Phillips' bondsmen will be released from all responsibility for the money he collected for the money involved will be made before that time.

The former sheriff says that he is not in the least worried over the investigation, and declares that his books will be found correct. However, there is a difference of opinion; although the inaccuracies in Phillips' accounts are said to be the result of error purely.

McGardner's Court Examination. At the sheriff's office this morning the statement was given to Mr. McGardner would interpose no objection to an examination of his books by the public examiner. However, it is doubtful whether the books will be called for.

All the grand jury asks for information the conduct of the sheriff's office, the evidence recently discovered will not be laid before it. However, it is said that the members of the jury have already expressed their intention to agitate the matter, and it is likely that those who have conducted the investigation will be called in just as soon as the jury meets.

YAMAZAKI TELLS OF THE VETERAN STATESMAN'S SERVICES TO HIS MOTHER COUNTRY.

Minneapolis Japanese are going to take advantage of the opportunity to pay their respects to Marquis Ito, the "grand old man" of Japan, who will spend the next day or two in the twin cities.

While no arrangements have been made for a public reception during his stay, the former premier of Japan will doubtless be glad to meet his fellow countrymen. There will be no chance to greet him in Minneapolis as almost the entire population of James J. Hill in St. Paul. Several Japanese interviewed this morning expressed their intention of calling on Marquis Ito in St. Paul.

Yamazaki of the Japanese Bamboo Manufacturing company, 911 Nicollet street, was very indignant when asked by a Journalist man: "Who is Marquis Ito?" He was willing enough to answer the question, but he was indignant at the very idea that there could be any one in the civilized world so densely ignorant as not to be familiar with the life and character of the great statesman.

He accordingly made an effort to enlighten the interviewer. Mr. Yamazaki is very proud of Marquis Ito, whom he speaks of as the foremost Japanese statesman of today—the man to whom thanks are largely due for Japan's position as a nation among the powers. Said Mr. Yamazaki:

"You Americans say that a man is never a prophet in his own country. It is not so in the case of Marquis Ito, who has been more in his own country than abroad, and justly so. He is an old man now and his life's work is about done, but his long record of service to his country which he will be proud. He has dedicated his life to the industrial and social uplifting of Japan and all the world knows what marvelous things he has accomplished for his country. His health is falling now, but his mind is as active as ever. There is still great respect for his opinions in Japan and he may yet have much to do with the further shaping of the empire's policies.

When I met Marquis Ito many years ago in Tokyo he was in the prime of his vigorous manhood, with all his splendid abilities bent on the advancement of Japan along all the lines that make for the highest civilization.

Every school boy in Japan to-day knows Ito's life story by heart. When Commodore Perry sailed up Yeddo bay and opened Japan's ports to the commerce of the world, Ito, though a very young man, saw what possibilities were in store for Japan if she opened up to her. He was only 20 years old when he sailed for England and the unknown western world, determined to secure a liberal education and get abreast of modern civilization in order that he might apply that knowledge for the good of Japan.

When he returned after several years away from home he encouraged Japan to cultivate cordial relations with the United States and all other countries and did much to discourage the anti-foreign sentiment, with which there could have been no progress in Japan. He realized that it was only through education that his country could be developed and he had much to do with the establishment of Japan's schools and colleges. Marquis Ito was also quick to see that much of Japan's development must come from close relations with the United States, and he was the first to see that Japan, this country is very dear to his heart.

K. Haskida and K. Yoskida, who are associated with Mr. Yamazaki, after also acquainted with Marquis Ito, having met him three years ago at Tokyo.

ARRAIGNED FOR TREASON

Dr. Krause, Former Governor of Johannesburg, in Court.

London, Oct. 8.—Dr. Krause, the former governor of Johannesburg, who was arrested Sept. 2 on the charge of high treason, was arraigned in the extradition court at Bow street today and charged with high treason and incitement to murder. The former charge is connected with the surrender of Johannesburg, when, according to the public prosecutor, Dr. Krause obtained from Lord Roberts a twenty-four hours' armistice on the plea that street fighting would thereby be obviated, and utilized the period in getting all the Boer fighters out of town and into the interior.

Dr. Krause had been paroled he went to Europe and applied to Dr. Leyds, the agent of the Transvaal, for money on account of these services.

The prosecution introduced letters in which Dr. Krause described Lord Milner as "an arch scoundrel, an enemy of Boer national existence and a willing tool of the English and other imperialists to break the oath and shoot the traitors. The letters indicated that Dr. Krause acted as a channel of communication between the Transvaal and the Boer government in Holland. The prisoner was remanded.

M. & M. INSPECTION

Railway Commissioners Will Look Over the Line.

The Minnesota & Manitoba railroad will be inspected this week by the Minnesota railroad and warehouse commission. The members of the board will inspect the line from the north to the south.

The line is now being used to the Canadian Northern, in order to be operated as a part of the McKean & Mann system. It has been operating for some time between Warroad and Brainerd. The commission will make a thorough inspection of roadbed, yards, depots, rolling stock, etc., to see that the company has complied with the law in all things. The trip will probably last until Monday.

IN THE WHEAT FIELDS

Heir Apparent and Wife Watch Busy Threshers at Work.

Poplar Point, Man., Oct. 8.—The Duchess of Cornwall and York arrived here at 11 o'clock this morning. The duke had not yet come in from the Kirchhoff place, but arrived later and was greeted with affectionate greeting when the royal couple met.

Afterward the entire party were driven to the Bond ranch, where they were shown the work of a modern steam threshing outfit. Both the duke and duchess manifested great interest in the work of the thrasher and enjoyed the drive through the wheat fields.

The duke enjoyed his hunting trip and thanked his host for the excellent dinner. The journey eastward was resumed in mid-afternoon, a brief stop being made at Winnipeg, where Sir Wilfrid Laurier rejoined the first section of the royal train.

THE DUCAL PARTY'S RETURN.

Special to The Journal.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 8.—The Duke and Duchess of York arrived this afternoon at 4 o'clock and after going through Ogilvie's four mill, which is claimed to be the biggest in the British empire, will proceed east. The duke is said to be an excellent shot. He yesterday at Poplar Point shot fifty-two birds out of two hundred killed.

Miss Marion Cunningham, the Popular Young Treasurer of the Young Woman's Club of Emporia, Kans., has This to Say of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Your Vegetable Compound cured me of womb trouble from which I had been a great sufferer for nearly three years. During that time I was very irregular and would often have intense pain in the small of my back, and blinding headaches and severe cramps. For three months I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and aches and pains are as a past memory, while health and happiness is my daily experience now. You certainly have one grateful friend in Emporia, and I have praised your Vegetable Compound to a large number of my friends. You have my permission to publish my testimonial in connection with my picture. Yours sincerely, MISS MARION CUNNINGHAM, Emporia, Kans."
