The Plymouth Very Fashionable Men are beginning to realize that the best ready-to-wear clothing, such as are carried at The Plymouth, is preferable to ordinary custom made clothing. The argument is this—Your tailor charges you $40 for a perfect fitting sack suit, whereas we give you these same fabrics for $20. However, the very fashionable man does not object to spending $40, so he often purchases two of our $20 suits. Thus he is enabled to get a delightful change from day to day. Any suit, even if made by best tailors in this country, becomes tiresome after wearing it day after day.

After examining our suits at $20, you will readily see the logic of our argument. Prices on suits are $8 to $30. The Plymouth Corner, Sixth and Nicollet.

TOWN TALK

Final Break Comes Between the Warring State Boards. THE NORMAL BOARD AGGRESSIVE. An Action Planned Charging the Board of Control With Usurping Undue Powers.

The crisis has come in the long controversy between the state normal board and the state board of control. The latter body refuses to agree to the terms of the normal board. It will not concede the demand of the normal board that the resident directors be made purchasing agents and in a letter sent to A. T. Ankeny, president of the normal board, finally...

Steeking at Phelps. There was some change of wind between Saturday and Tuesday, responsible for the action of the Board of Control. When the two boards had their conference Saturday afternoon Messrs. Leavitt and Gould asserted that they were anxious to settle the matter, and indicated that personally they had no objection to the resident directors serving as purchasing agents, so long as they did not have to allow them compensation. On the return of Mr. W. E. Leavitt yesterday, the letter was drafted shutting off all negotiations.

President Ankeny Talks. Mr. Ankeny, after reading the letter sent by the board of control, said to The Journal: I confess I am disappointed at the action of the board of control. Every one who has followed this controversy must bear witness that the normal board has left nothing undone to secure an amicable adjustment between the two boards. The normal board believed that it was not legally included in the board of control, and that the attorney general had already decided this point in its favor. But it felt that no harm could come to the normal schools if the duties defined in the new act were respected by the board of control. There never was a time when Mr. Lee and Judge Gould and before him Mr. Morey, were not willing to make such satisfactory adjustment. Mr. Leavitt has been consistent in his refusal to respect their rights, and consequently he seems to have dominated his own board while trying to dominate ours. The end has now come, and no resort is left but an appeal to the courts to fully relieve the normal board of the operation of the new law. Much as I regret such action, it has been forced upon us by an attempted usurpation of the duties conferred by law upon the normal board.

As to the vouchers now held up by Mr. Ankeny said that he hoped that pending the action of the courts, the normal board's demands for regular pay, especially for salaries of teachers and building contracts over which there could be no dispute. A copy of the board of control letter was mailed to-day to each member of the state normal board, together with a request that they advise Chairman Ankeny whether they are willing to submit to the board's demands for regular pay, especially a lawsuit. In speaking of the matter, Mr. Ankeny said: "I think we'll choose the lawsuit."

TO-MORROW THE DAY

For the Opening of the Christian Missionary Conventions. GENERAL RECEPTION TO BE HELD. The Work in the South to Be Given Much Attention at Meetings.

The first twentieth century missionary conventions of the Christian church will begin with a general reception, participated in by all the missionary organizations of the church, to-morrow evening, at Exposition hall. Addresses of welcome will be delivered by A. T. Ankeny, president of the state normal school board; S. H. Hall, chairman of the public affairs committee of the Minneapolis Commercial club; President Cyrus Northrop of the University and Governor S. R. Van Sant. Responses will be made by General F. M. Drake, ex-governor of Iowa, and by Ben-Thomas, secretary of the American Christian Missionary society.

It is believed that the great work of the Christian church in the future will be to ward the solution of the negro problem through education. Plans will be suggested at the convention for its continuance and an increase in the facilities of the church for this purpose. The most interesting gatherings of the convention will be those of the General Christian Missionary society, the Sunday school, the Christian Endeavor societies and the colored people. These will begin at 7:30 Saturday evening in the Portland Avenue Church of Christ and continue until Tuesday evening. The colored churches of the twin cities are urged to send delegates to the meetings. The most important address of the entire convention promises to be that of C. C. Smith, who has been corresponding secretary of the negro educational board since its formation. His subject will be "Wards of Our Nation" and he will speak at the Exposition building Saturday morning at 10:25 o'clock. Mr. Smith will also address the colored convention Monday morning at the C. W. B. M. and the Negro Brethren.

At least 10,000 persons will cross the line into Minnesota on the special rate ticket sold on account of this gathering. The convention was brought to Minnesota to impress the people of the northwest with the importance of the Disciples' movement.

An Unknown Region. Minnesota is an unknown region to many delegates who will attend the Christian convention from southern states. Here lies the stronghold of the Disciples, where the Disciples are urged to impress upon the convention the fact that this state offers the home missionary society extraordinary opportunities for activity in the West. With this view in mind, the state headquarters have been fitted up to show the fertility of the state's soil and the richness of the state in minerals. The fact that the church numbers 100,000 in Minnesota, while Iowa claims 60,000, will be made prominent.

After the Convention. Des Moines, Iowa, and St. Louis, Mo., which are rivals in bidding for the 1903 campaign headquarters. Delegates are hurrying to Minneapolis. At 11:30 this morning a special train left the Union station at Kansas City. It will arrive at the Minneapolis Union station to-morrow at 8:30 a. m. The Christian convention special started from St. Louis at 2:05 this afternoon, and will arrive at the Minneapolis Union station to-morrow morning. The Central Illinois delegation, Springfield over the Chicago & Alton at 6 o'clock, Thursday morning, leaving Chicago at 6:30 to-night and arriving in the morning.

Four Specials From Chicago. Chicago will run four specials to the convention from Chicago. The first will leave at 10:30 to-night, with the executive board of the Woman's Board of Missions, the National Board of Ministerial Relief association, President I. J. Spencer, and the Indiana, Ohio and Illinois delegates going along the Pennsylvania and Vandallia lines. A party of musicians will be on this train to furnish entertainment during the daylight ride in the evening. The second train will leave Chicago at 6 o'clock, Thursday morning, carrying Kentucky, eastern and southern state delegations. The third will leave at 6:30, Thursday night, with the central Kentucky party, and the fourth special will start at 10:30 in the evening with some of the Central Illinois and Kentucky delegates.

The First Delegate. The first convention delegate to arrive was W. K. Bennett of Waterloo, Iowa. He came yesterday and before night had sent word to his family to pack up and come to Minneapolis to live. A. L. Sample of the Worker, Pittsburg, Pa., has been similarly affected by the attractions of this city and if he can manage the deal will move his plant here. C. G. Cantell of the Cincinnati Standard came this morning and is already placing his publication exhibit.

The First Meetings. The first meetings of the National Missionary convention of the Christian church which opens to-morrow will be those of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions. The headquarters of the society are in Indianapolis and the officers are Mrs. D. A. Burgess, president, Mrs. N. E. Atkinson, recording secretary, Mrs. Annie B. Gray, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Helen E. Moses, who is also editor of the board's monthly magazine, and Miss Mary J. Judson, superintendent young people's work, Miss Mattie Pound. The funds collected and expended by this board amounted last year to $135,000 and its missionaries are to be found in mission fields all over the world. To-morrow evening the women's board delegates will participate in the general reception and entertainment committee. The morning program will include reports of secretary, treasurer, superintendent of young people's work and the leaflet committee, and addresses on "The Importance of Truth and Union" by Mrs. David Owen Thomas and on young people's work by Professor L. W. Fairfield, Indiana. The meetings will continue Friday afternoon and evening and

TWO PAVILIONS BURNED LAKE PARK AND WEST ON S. SHORE. Hotel Was in Great Danger and Almost Went With the Rest—Incendiarism Suspected. Special to The Journal. Excelsior, Minn., Oct. 9.—The Lake Park pavilion and the West pavilion adjacent to the Lake Park hotel were burned about 4 o'clock this morning, and the circumstances all point to incendiarism. The fire started in the West pavilion and was discovered by the watchman at the Winston place. Ferdinand Fink, the caretaker at the hotel, was aroused, but nothing could be done to save the property as it burned like a tinder box. West's loss is about $1,000, but he has $700 insurance—$300 on his pavilion and $400 on stock. The stock was, of course, pretty well sold out. The Lake Park pavilion cost originally several thousands of dollars. It was old and had deteriorated in value and the loss is not over $2,500. Fink lost ten rowboats stored in this pavilion and West lost two in the other building. The wind was blowing toward the hotel and the building was set on fire several times, brands and blazing sticks and shingles lodging on the roof. When it was seen the pavilions were doomed all effort was directed to save the hotel and this was successful.
