A delightful card party was given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Hobart at their home, 1412 W. Thirty-sixth street, for Mrs. William Henry Stead of Ottawa, Ill., the guest of Dr. and Mrs. F. Red and green were the chosen colors, and carnations were on the table and sideboard. The guests were Miss Fry and her maid of honor, Miss Edna Kahn of Indianapolis; Misses Susanne Richardson, Lila Clark and Marie and Mabelle Kelly of St. Paul, and Mrs. W. R. Macdonald and Mrs. J. P. Davis; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George Taylor; recording secretary, Mrs. E. W. Ensign; treasurer, Mrs. W. S. Wykes.

Thursday Musical Business.

The Ladies' Thursday Musicals held its first business meeting of the year this morning at the studio. Mrs. Floyd S. Muecke, who has been acting as secretary, called to fill out the unexpired term of Miss Marion Gale. The question of joining the National Federation of Musical Clubs was discussed, but action was deferred. As there are many more musicians qualified to join the active membership under the conditions now governing the admission of members than the limited membership of the club can include, the question was considered whether it would be desirable to raise the standard, so that not so many would be able to meet it, or to enlarge the membership and retain the present requirements. The question was also left for further consideration.

Reception for Taft.

When it was learned that Lorado Taft, the Chicago sculptor, who lectured last night in the Teachers' Club, would remain in Minneapolis to-day, an informal reception was hastily arranged by representatives of the Society of Fine Arts and the Arts and Crafts Society. The reception was held in the afternoon in the studio of Miss Agnes Harrison on Sixth street, and was a very informal affair, to which such art lovers as the hasty politician reached over for a few minutes' chat with the distinguished and entertaining guest. Russian tea was served by a group of young women.

Club Notes.

The Neighborhood Magazine club met Tuesday afternoon with Miss Ada White, 2734 Garfield avenue. Reviews were given of the "Forbes" and "The Century" magazines. The club will meet Nov. 26 with Mrs. James Chesnut, 212 W. Twenty-sixth street.

RELATED WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT.
Special to The Journal.

Winona, Minn., Nov. 14.—The announcement has just been made of the marriage of Miss Pearl Boynton and Harry C. Jeffrey, which took place on Jan. 25, last, at Pountain City. The groom was at that time employed in the North-Western shops in this city, but has now accepted a position in Minneapolis, and he and his wife have just gone there to reside.

If you want the best, lunch at M. Sleepers & Co., 816 Nicollet Ave, 2d floor.

KEEN COLLEGE MEN.
The Food of Harvard Brain-Workers and Athletes.

Memorial Hall at Harvard, where some twelve hundred of the men eat, is particularly interesting. The dining-room is an enormous gothic hall finished in old English oak with wide, stained-glass windows on the sides. The walls are hung with portraits of illustrious graduates and benefactors of past generations. The students have good food to eat and plenty of it. The hall is run on a co-operative plan so that it costs something less than four dollars a week for board. To this place three times a day come the men whose lives for the time being are given to serious intellectual work, and to accomplish this they are keen enough to realize that proper food is absolutely necessary.

One is particularly struck by the yellow packages of Grape-Nuts standing on nearly every table, which the men purchase at grocery stores and bring in for their personal use. They quickly find out by practical demonstration that brain work exhausts the phosphates, and that nature demands that this loss be made up, and made up from food.

Grape-Nuts is ready to be used without cooking. It is a scientific food which nourishes and builds up the brain, and is particularly suited to the needs of students. The varsity athletes also eat it to keep their digestive organs in perfect working order so that they can stand the great strain of both body and head work.

STREET RAILWAY WORK

BIG IMPROVEMENTS NEXT YEAR

Large Earnings Are Said to Have Influenced Directors to Be Generous.

Material extension of several important lines in Minneapolis and St. Paul, substitution of large for small cars on all the well patronized lines, reduction of running time on the interurban lines and the construction of a Lake Minnetonka line are probabilities in the plans of the Twin City Rapid Transit company for the year 1902. Thomas Lowry, president of the company, and C. G. Goodrich, vice president, have been spending some time in New York city with Kennedy, Tod & Co., and other eastern financiers interested in the street railway, with the result that when the Minneapolis men return they will have several improvements to announce for next year as indicated above. The street railway earnings have been far beyond expectation during the last four years; this assured the approval of the backers when an expenditure for improvement was suggested which will exceed expenditures made by the company during any one year except, perhaps, when the change was made from horse to electric motive power.

GAMES FOR SOLDIERS

Military Department Issues a Pamphlet on Proper Pastimes.

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. That is the theory upon which the United States government has issued a book of athletic rules for field sports and other diversions designed for use in the army.

Among the games suggested for the entertainment of Uncle Sam's boys in general are several familiar to the boys in blue all over the country. Among them are "Follow Your Leader," "Cock-Fight" and "Hare and Hounds." This last game is also known as "Paper Chase," and is of good old English origin.

The game of "Cock-Fight" is much more harmless than it sounds. In it the party divides into two opposing groups. The men then fold their arms and stand on one leg. Next they advance against their antagonists and attempt, by hopping against them, to compel the fellow on the other side to put his raised foot to the floor. When this is done the umpire declares the man "dead" and he retires. The sport is continued until all the men on one side are down and out.

Tickets and invitations can be secured from members of the society.

INSULTED A LADY

One Man Pays a $10 Fine for the Offense.

There was an exciting fight between Patrolman Louis Knudson and two disorderlies at Washington and Second avenues. The first night a woman complained to Knudson that the men had insulted her, and the policeman had witnessed the offense. When he arrested the two men they fought for freedom. A citizen tried to assist, but the man he held broke away. The other, who gave the name of Frank Miller, but whose real name is Burns, was taken to the central station in the patrol wagon. On the way he made another attempt to escape. In police court this morning Burns paid a fine of $10.

LOSE MONEY ON "SPUDS."

The contractor who agreed to furnish potatoes to the garrison at Fort Snelling for the year ending June 30, 1902, will lose $600 on the contract. The contract was for 100,000 bushels of potatoes at the price of $1.10 per bushel. The Fort Meade contractor asked $1.11 per 100 pounds and at Harrison $1.10, while the Fort Keogh man bid at cents and Fort Snelling contractor asked only 72 cents.

BUSINESS WON'T LET 'EM

Few Are Going Across the Atlantic This Fall.

Prosperity does not necessarily mean good business for the trans-Atlantic transportation companies. In fact, so far as Minneapolis is concerned, at least, it seems to have quite the opposite effect. At the office of A. B. Johnson & Co. it was said this morning that trans-Atlantic travel had been unusually light this fall. "People are so busy they can't get away," said one of the officials, and our business is suffering in consequence. You might think that travel would increase when times are good, but that isn't always the case.

Mr. Johnson will personally superintend the Christmas excursion to the Scandinavian countries this year. The party will leave Minneapolis Dec. 12, and will sail on the steamer Philadelphia, Wednesday, Dec. 4, arriving in Southampton Dec. 11, and in Scandinavian ports Dec. 13.
