MISSIONARY IN RANGOON

Self Help Taught in a Unique Hill School. The C. A. Stewart Missionary society of Simpson M. E. church gave a reception this afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. C. Berry, 812 Colfax avenue S, for Miss Fannie Perkins, a missionary from India.

Miss Perkins is an old school friend of Mrs. Berry's and has been in Minneapolis for the reception was very informal, and Mrs. H. A. Thorne received with Mrs. Berry and Miss Perkins. Chocolate was served in the dining room by Mrs. George Elison, assisted by a group of young women.

Carnations and chrysanthemums furnished an attractive decoration through the parlors, and chrysanthemum victory was the order of the day. The hours were from 5 until 5 o'clock, and the guests were the Methodist women of the city.

Miss Perkins will leave tomorrow for St. Paul. Later she will visit Rochester and Fairbault before returning to Iowa. Since she has been in Minneapolis she has spoken at the district meeting in Camden Place and in the Forest Heights and the Park Avenue M. E. churches. Her home is in Denison, Iowa, and she was sent to India eleven years ago by the Des Moines branch of the Woman's Missionary society of the M. E. church.

She has been connected with the Rangoon missions, where there is a school for over 100 girls of European birth and a Burmese school. A school is also supported in Than Daung, where forty boys and girls are taught. Than Daung is nothing but a hill station, and the school is unique in southern Asia. Self-help is a feature, and the entire work of the school is done by the pupils. They are divided into groups of three to serve in different capacities, cooks, waiters, etc., and their term of service is two months. The school was first opened first as a place where the delicate children from the Rangoon orphanage might be brought during the warm weather, and it has grown to its present proportions. Scholarships are supported by American missionary societies, the government contributes something and the pupils who can pay their expenses do so. The government examinations are taken, and out of a class of thirty-three recently sent up only four failed to meet the requirements.

BETSY ROSS CHAPTER. Daughters of Revolution Organize a Young Women's Chapter. The initial meeting of the first local chapter of the Daughters of the Revolution in Minnesota was held Saturday afternoon at the home of the state regent, Mrs. Isabelle Carr Ramsey. The state chapter has been in existence several years, and has now grown strong enough to permit subdivision into local chapters. The first to be formed is made up of young women who have not hitherto been members of the society. The new organization chose the name of Betsy Ross chapter, and the officers, appointed by the state regent to perfect the organization and serve until the first election, are: Regent, Mrs. W. A. Badger; vice-regent, Miss Henrietta Morgan; secretary, Miss Harriet

Plummer, treasurer, Miss Alice Williams. There were ten members present Saturday, and several others are ready to join the new chapter at once. Regular meetings will be held once a month, at which historical programs and social features will divide the time. There will be no meeting held in December, as the chapter will join with the state society in a meeting. The next regular meeting will be held in January, with the regent, Mrs. Badger, at her home, 34 Thirteenth street S.

Club Mock Trial. The meeting of the Lincoln Debating club held last Friday evening was marked by quite a departure from the usual line of debate. It was in the form of a mock trial. The treasurer of the club, A. Nelson, was charged with embezzlement. A. H. Anderson was counsel for the defense, while H. Nelson was the prosecuting attorney. The president of the club acted as the judge. After an hour and a half of questioning and cross-examination, the case was given to the jury, which returned a verdict of not guilty. The two attorneys deserve much credit for the way in which they conducted the trial. This club is comprised chiefly of South high school pupils, and as such has received the approval of several of the teachers.

Club Notes. Prospect Park Guild will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. E. C. Clinker. Hillieston, the supreme commander of the Ladies of the Macabees, will arrive in Minneapolis Dec. 4. Mrs. Welch, of 1217 First avenue N., will give a dinner for her during her visit. The November meeting of the Political Equality Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Ina W. Stacy, 306 University avenue SE, to-morrow evening. The program will include a history of the woman suffrage in Minnesota, reports of the state convention and a parliamentary drill. The story class of the Woman's Society of Immanuel Baptist church held its first meeting Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. J. L. Geason, 278 Sixteenth avenue S. Mrs. Georgia Hastay has charge of the study for the year. Happy Childhood Knows What's Best. Medicine that a child dislikes, will not do it much good. Sensible parents will give the little darlings medicine that tastes good and does good, and don't grip or gripe; the kind they like themselves. "I rely upon Cascarets entirely in looking after our children." "My little boy, 1527 Division St., St. Louis, Mo., has never used any remedy that has been as good as Cascarets. Have to keep them hidden from my little boy, as he eats them like candy." "Mrs. Bobb G. Fay, Gosh, Ohio." "I shall never be without Cascarets. My children are always delighted when I give them a portion of a tablet, and cry for more. They have a permanent place in my home." "Mrs. John Flagg, Michigan City, Ind." "We use Cascarets in our family and they are the children's friend." "Mrs. James Greenwood, Menasha, Wis." "I always keep Cascarets in the house for the children, as well as myself." "Mrs. Chas. Root, 88 Lorain St., Cleveland, O." "For months I have used Cascarets, and my little ones require no other medicine." "Mrs. O. H. Hammond, 59-24th St., Minneapolis." Medicine forced on the little ones loses half its power. A nasty, sickening medicine is an injustice to the dear little innocents who can't protect themselves, makes them peevish and afraid of the dose. When a child hates the medicine, it will not be effective. Children like Cascarets Candy Cathartic, ask for them and are kept healthy always and easily against the damages of childhood's ailments.
