COW HAD TUBERCULOSIS. Special to The Journal.

New York, Nov. 22.—Tests made by experts from the Brooklyn health department revealed the fact that the cow owned by Dr. George D. Barlow, cultures from which he used to inoculate Miss Emma King, had tuberculosis.

It's Easy Enough to Buy FURS

But not so easy to get the kind you want. The furs that last for years; that are reliable always; that are as near perfection as a lifetime devoted to the selection and study of pelts can make them are the only kind of furs you get at "original" Albrecht's.

Our 1901-02 catalogue pictures graphically from living models the latest modes. It gives an idea of America's most up-to-date fur stores, with rules for self-measurement and directions for ordering if you live out of town.

E. Albrecht & Son. The "Original" Albrecht, Established 1855. Note number WELL. We have no branches. 20 E. 7th St., St. Paul.

In Social Circles

Mrs. George P. Wilson and Mrs. W. R. Sweet gave a large reception this afternoon for Mrs. Wm. Wilson and Mrs. Walter Wilson. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of flowers, chrysanthemums and American Beauty roses mingling with the palms and ferns.

Mrs. Hilram Lyon entertained thirty young women this morning at her home on Sixth street SE for Miss Esther Eddy. Chrysanthemums furnished a simple decoration through the rooms and the morning was spent in informal sociability.

Miss Lavinia Sanborn will give a theater party at the Metropolitan club this evening for Miss Florence Brown of Duluth and Donald Freeman of St. Cloud.

Mrs. M. F. Lenoix will entertain the Monday Card Club next week at her home, 2129 Girard avenue S.

The South Side high school will give a reception to the members of its football team Wednesday evening in the Holmes Hotel. The committee on arrangements includes Lena Gjertsen, Gertrude Scharp, Blanche Hallstrom, Joe Hedding and Frank Lyon.

Thanksgiving Day will be celebrated at the Town and Country Club in the usual fashion. Invitations have been issued by the members of the house committee for table d'hote dinner from 6 until 8:30 o'clock.

Mrs. and Mrs. Fred M. Iverson entertained twenty-five guests last evening. The time was pleasantly spent in a guessing contest and the game "Mum Jew" played progressively.

BRILLIANT SOCIAL EVENT

The Hostesses' ball of 1901 which took place last evening in the West Hotel will doubtless be known as the festival of candles although its only resemblance to the ancient Roman feast was found in the myriads of tapers that gleamed among the foliage.

The ball room was almost oriental in its brilliant yet subdued coloring and the light from the stained glass windows used in all the rooms with the exception of the reception parlor where red chrysanthemums mingled with white and pink in a great Italian basket.

The list of hostesses includes: Misses James S. Bell, John Crosby, George H. Christian, Albert L. Carpenter, Frank A. Chamberlain, Charles W. Case, William C. Goodwin, Frank W. Forman, Calvin G. Goodrich, John B. Gilliland, Arthur H. Harris, Hugh G. Harrison, Louis K. Hull, Volney S. Troy, David P. Thompson, Frank Burton, W. Kendrick, Alonzo H. Linton, Thomas W. Lowry, Robert R.
