A BOOM FOR SCHLEY

Bryan Men in Nebraska Are for the Rear Admiral.

HAVE LITTLE USE FOR DAVE HILL

National Committeeman Dahlgren, Judge Sullivan and Others State Their Position.

Special to the Journal.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 3.--In opposition to the candidacy of David B. Hill for president, which has been urged by prominent democrats of this state, a boom has been launched for Admiral Schley under favorable auspices. His qualifications as leader of the democratic party for 1894 are indorsed by some of Mr. Bryan's closest friends.

Two prominent Bryan democrats have come out for him as the most available man in the party.

In Edgar Howard's paper of Columbus appears an editorial strongly indorsing Schley. Howard is a well-known Bryan man and was defeated for congress in this district a year ago. National Committeeman Dahlgren is out with an expression in favor of Schley, as is Judge Sullivan, who will be chief justice of Nebraska next year.

New York--Stove men of Albany and Troy are discussing an invention which they say will be as revolutionary as that of the sewing machine. The invention consists of a firebox which burns soft coal without smoke.

WRITE RIGHT.

"Scatter decent, helpful things."

Good, philosophical Ras Wilson once said to a new reporter, "Young man, write as you feel, but try to feel right. Be good humored toward everyone and everything. Believe that other folks are just as good as you are, for they are. Give 'em your best and bear in mind that God has sent them, in his wisdom, all the trouble they need, and it is for you to scatter gladness and decent, helpful things as you go. Don't be particular about how the stuff will look in print, but let 'er go. Some one will understand. That is better than to write so dosh bing high, or so tarnation deep, 'sep thet' no one understands. Let 'er go."

"So, on the above plan," says M. W. Porter of Topeka, Kan., "I will write what I know of Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food from personal experience. After a long period of indigestion and other disorders, with some misgivings, I took up the use of Grape-Nuts. Despite the hot weather I kept gaining in strength and mentally, a thing I had never done at that season of the year."

I found the food an excellent stimulant for the brain, and I could do more and better work than I had ever done. It was a revelation to discover how closely the brain and digestive organs were in sympathy with each other. Whatever retarded the work of one had a corresponding effect on the other, and the food that tended to put one in proper shape acted accordingly on the other. I know that my great improvement mentally and physically came from dispensing with unwholesome food and using Grape-Nuts liberally.

WORK FOR MR. WOOLLEY

TEMPERANCE TALKS IN ENGLAND

Former Minneapolis Man Will Help Along the Cause of Reforms.

New York Sun Special Service

London, Dec. 3.--John G. Woolley, candidate for president on the prohibition ticket at the last election, has consented to make a series of speeches in aid of the pending national movement against intemperance. The lecturer sails for America Dec. 19, and his time till then will be fully taken up chiefly in the provinces. Temperance societies of every variety are bending their energies to attract great audiences to hear Mr. Woolley, believing that his work, following immediately in the wake of Rev. J. Q. A. Henry and others, will carry the total sentiment to the highest mark ever attained in the British Isles. The crusaders are vastly encouraged by the sympathy their efforts are receiving from the foremost men of the liberal party.

Paris, Dec. 3.--Much amusement was caused at a meeting of the anti-alcohol league in the tenth arrondissement by the reading of a letter signed "Carrie Nation," in which the writer offered to come to France to carry on a campaign of destruction against the "handmaids of the devil in the form of drugs, tobacco, intoxicating liquors and nude art." M. Schaefer, president of the league, asked the members to vote that the epistle be answered in a few lines, stating that "a hatched crusade" against intemperance would not be effective in France and declining the offer with thanks.

Washington, Dec. 3.--Senator Jones, of Arkansas, says that the democratic policy in the senate will be to aid whichever faction of the republican party happens to be on the right side of pending public questions and to take advantage of all mistakes which the republicans may make.
