Twelve Leading Stores under one roof.

$16 Men's Frieze Overcoats, $12.

Cut in Wilton style, 44 inches long. These overcoats are made of 32 oz. Irish Frieze of the particular shade of Oxford, that is so fashionable. Lined with the best serge and with heavy Skinner satin sleeve lining; these overcoats are worth $16, for they are both serviceable and fashionable. It gives us great pleasure to recommend this garment. Price $12.

Men's Silk Lined Overcoats $30.

About 20 Black Chevot Overcoats in rough fabrics. These garments are the best that can be made, for being hand tailored throughout they are lined with the finest silk and interlined with serge. In this line are many of our $45 garments. Price $30.

Overcoats for Young Men.

For young men the Yoke Overcoat is most fashionable and it is safe to say that no store in the West carries so complete a line of these garments.

While in price these Yoke Overcoats run from $10 to $25 we recommend our Oxford Yoke overcoat, at $13.50, and Brown Yoke, at $16.50, as being particularly fashionable. Then we have a fancy Yoke Overcoat at $18.50, a combination of green and gray shading that is very "swell". If you prefer a "Fullmore" overcoat we will show a plain black rough chevot. It is a basket weave effect, serge lined, with satin sleeve lining, $20.

Boys' Overcoats.

From the ages of 5 to 16, we show "mannish" Overcoats, some without the yoke, but the greater majority with the yoke which in some garments you will find heavily stitched. This gives a braided effect which is refined as well as stylish. These overcoats are cut long and full and have side pockets. They come in all colors, brown, black, green, oxford, blue, etc. We specially recommend our $6.50 and $7.50 values.

Children's Overcoats.

From the years of 3 to 8 mothers demand that their children be fashionably as well as tastily dressed. To add to these requisites we have taken great pains to give to our children's overcoat that air of refinement which is only noticeable in the highest grade clothing. These garments vary in price from $2 to $12.

One line of dark green chevot overcoat is particularly tasty. It is a yoke overcoat which has one heavy plait running from the plait to the bottom of the skirt; and two plaits in front, all of which, as well as the yoke are heavily stitched. The waist is encircled by a leather belt with heavy brass buckle. Price $9.

IN A NUTSHELL

Seattle—The exports of wheat from Puget Sound for 1901 will be double those of the preceding year.

New York—Arthur Grison, editor of the Smart Set, is dead of typhoid fever. He was 32 years of age.

Chicago—It is charged that Detective Walsh is the leader of a gang of safe blowers. Walsh denies it.

Boston—Forteen Massachusetts cities held elections yesterday. One of them elected republican mayors and councilmen.

Seattle—Lieutenant Laurin L. Lawson, a former Minnesota man, has been tendered a commission in the regular army.

New York—Richard Croker says: "You won't see much more leading on my part. He is going to England in January or February. He denies that he is to be a state leader and dictator in national politics."

Ridgely, Md.—Several weeks ago a gorilla escaped from a circus at Stafford, Del., and has since been reported at various points on the peninsula. Its probable presence has caused no little terror.

Omaha—Dispatches from Sparks, Neb., report destructive prairie fires in the north-eastern part of Cheyenne county and throughout the greater part of Keya Paha. Thousands of acres of range have been destroyed.

Mexico City—A great deal depends on today's session of the Pan-American conference. If the discussion should become acrimonious, it is by no means unlikely that the very existence of the congress would be imperiled.

Helena—Hugh Cameron, assistant cashier of the First National Bank of White Sulphur Springs, committed suicide. No cause is assigned for the act, his business affairs being in first-class shape, while his domestic relations were pleasant.

New York—Lizzie Albert, 20 years of age, committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. A month ago, she had a nervous attack, which manifested itself in a twitching of the muscles of her face. Her girl companions, she said afterward, made fun of her affliction and her sweetheart gave up calling on her.

New York—Trading on the local cotton exchange was convulsed by the publication of the government's estimate of a short cotton crop for the year. The figures were 9,874,000 bales, or nearly 2,000,000 bales less than the trade had generally expected. Cotton jumped $2 a bale in an many minutes, amid scenes of excitement rarely seen.

New York—Edward Schumann, a farmer of Sigourney, Iowa, and a widower with four children, recently wrote to his brother Jacob, a farmer of Saxony, and sent her to Sigourney. Peking—The imperial edict deposing the former heir apparent, Fu Chun, son of Prince Tuan, the author of the Boxer troubles, is generally considered as the strongest proof yet given of the sincerity of the emperor's leaning toward reform. It appears to corroborate the belief among Chinese officials that the emperor sees the error of heretofore foreign policy of recent years.

Colon—General Domingo Diaz, the insurgent leader with a government office, has taken a train for Panama. This indicates that he has decided to surrender to General Alban and obtain the freedom of his forces from imprisonment. An announcement has been made that all political offenses committed previous to Nov. 23 by those liberals who surrendered to the government, municipal crimes are punished as before.

London—The House of Commons has passed a bill to amend the law relating to the publication of communications from Miss Hobhouse and her uncle, Lord Hobhouse, in reference to the former's recent deportation from South Africa. Lord Hobhouse, who is a member of the judicial committee of the privy council, impugns the legality of his niece's treatment, which, intimates, will be made the subject of judicial proceedings. There is every prospect that the incident will develop into a burning political question.

WASHINGTON

Representative Williams of Mississippi has introduced a resolution proposing to inquire into the charges against Admiral Sampson and to ascertain if Admiral Sampson and Admiral Greenhalgh inspected and approved the proficiencies of the book in which Admiral Schley is denounced as a liar and a coward.

Council for the government has presented to the Spanish treaty claims commission a brief in support of the motion to dismiss the claims growing out of the sinking of the battleship Maine. It is contended that it was the intention of the treaty to provide for both to relinquish and leave in oblivion as settled in the tribunal of war the grievance of the sinking of the Maine. The brief says that the destruction of Spanish lives and the loss of Spanish possessions stand for and settled any supposed responsibility of Spain for the destruction of the Maine.

SHIP CANAL BRIDGE

Substructure for Duluth's Aerial Commenced by Contractors

IT MAY BE READY BY AUGUST

Department at Washington Must Assent—Steel From a Minneapolis Works.

Special to The Journal. Duluth, Minn., Dec. 4.—Contractors Hugo and Tims have begun work on the substructure of the aerial bridge to be built across the entrance to Duluth harbor, at the ship canal. The same firm will erect the false work and may perhaps build the steel structure.

On account of the lateness of the season it is not probable that anything more than the driving of piles for the foundations will be carried out this year. The concrete piers to cover these pile foundations will be put in early next spring and work on the superstructure will, it is expected, be carried on during the summer. If so the bridge will not be completed next August, otherwise it will not be ready till the following spring.

The consent of the local engineer in charge is said to have been obtained to the continuance of operations all summer, providing a clear space 250 feet wide be left for the ships, and the matter is now before the department at Washington. The American Bridge company will furnish the steel, through its Minneapolis works.

The piles will be sunk by water jet and seventy will be put under each of the two concrete piers in a space only 14 by 28 feet. The piling will be cut off about ten feet under mean water level and will be covered by eight feet of oak and pine timber, put in solid. One and a half feet below low water concrete piers covering the entire space and 9 1/2 feet high will stand on which the steel superstructure will be bolted.

TAWNEY AND ST. LOUIS

MORE MONEY NEEDED FOR SHOW

Minnesotan Objects to the Designation of "World's Fair," Calling It Meaningless.

Special to The Journal. Washington, Dec. 4.—The fifty-seventh congress will have to make an appropriation providing for the government exhibit at the Louisiana Purchase exposition and to pay the salaries and expenses of the federal commission which was created by the previous congress. Representative Tawney of Minnesota, who is chairman of the exposition committee, is of the opinion that a large amount of money will be needed, probably $500,000. Mr. Tawney's idea about a government exhibit is that it shall be more complete and more unique than any previous exhibit with which Uncle Sam has been identified. He believes that it ought to be in keeping with the present era of prosperity and that it ought to symbolize the unparalleled growth, material and otherwise, of the country during the last ten years.

Mr. Tawney has no sympathy with the conduct of the management of the Louisiana Purchase exposition in practically dropping the original name of its show and using the colloquial title of Chicago's Columbian exposition—"World's Fair." He says:

No other title than Louisiana Purchase Exposition could have so well and intelligently expressed the purpose and meaning of the enterprise. The extent of our nation's history which the exposition is to commemorate was of paramount importance—perhaps the most important. The name originally chosen was in itself a lesson to the nation, and perhaps pleasing to the ear, means nothing. I hope that the managers of this great enterprise will drop the name of "World's Fair" and get back to "Louisiana Purchase Exposition."

BOATS STILL IN SERVICE

Current Rumor Denied by Managers of Steamship Companies.

Special to The Journal. New York, Dec. 4.—Managers of big steamship lines here say there is no truth in the report they have decided to take off half their boats in order to come down to the present requirements of passenger and freight service. Such an arrangement wouldn't be possible, owing to mutual jealousies. There is always some rotation in service in the winter owing to the falling off in business, and vessels are then overhauled and refitted for spring business. The Deutschland of the Hamburg American line will thus be laid off two months and the Oceanic of the White Star line six weeks.

SAWMILL ON THE SOUND

Planagan and Dumas of Minneapolis Look Over the Field.

Special to The Journal. Tacoma, Wash., Dec. 4.—"The great lumber manufacturing plants of the mid-west are looking toward the Pacific northwest as their seat of operation in the near future."

William H. Planagan, of a well-known Minneapolis firm, gave the foregoing prediction in a dictation to the Pacific northwest on a business trip, buying timber land. While he will not say so for publication, he is also here with a view to establishing a sawmill in Puget sound. He is accompanied on his trip by Frederick Dumas, of Minneapolis.

The Firemen's Association Meeting a Good Thing for Crystal Falls.

Special to The Journal. Crystal Falls, Mich., Dec. 4.—For the first time in the history of the Upper Peninsula Firemen's association, a city in which the annual tournament has been held has made money out of the deal. The final meeting of the Crystal Falls Tournament association, just closed, reported a surplus of $1,000. It was found $300 was remaining after the last of the claims had been settled. A dividend of a fraction over 30 per cent was declared, and in addition there are 400 coats belonging to the association which will be sold and the money divided, making a total of about 50 per cent.
