

MEAT OF MINNESOTA

Prizes Won Against Competition of the Continent.

AWARDS TO COLLEGE BREEDERS

Closing Day's Session of the National Live Stock Association.

Special to The Journal. Chicago, Dec. 6.—Wednesday saw an enormous crowd of visitors to the international stock show...

It is no easy matter to earn the prizes which the national live stock association awards...

Following is a list of prizes won by the St. Anthony Park institution...

Table listing prizes for various livestock categories like SWINE-TAMWORTHS, HORSES, etc.

Table listing prizes for various livestock categories like HORSES, SHEEP, etc.

Table listing prizes for various livestock categories like HORSES, SHEEP, etc.

Table listing prizes for various livestock categories like HORSES, SHEEP, etc.

Table listing prizes for various livestock categories like HORSES, SHEEP, etc.

Table listing prizes for various livestock categories like HORSES, SHEEP, etc.

Table listing prizes for various livestock categories like HORSES, SHEEP, etc.

Table listing prizes for various livestock categories like HORSES, SHEEP, etc.

Table listing prizes for various livestock categories like HORSES, SHEEP, etc.

Table listing prizes for various livestock categories like HORSES, SHEEP, etc.

Table listing prizes for various livestock categories like HORSES, SHEEP, etc.

Table listing prizes for various livestock categories like HORSES, SHEEP, etc.

Table listing prizes for various livestock categories like HORSES, SHEEP, etc.

Table listing prizes for various livestock categories like HORSES, SHEEP, etc.

"Pudge" Needed the Money

Last fall "Pudge" Hoffeldinger refereed a football game in which the Minnesota team was one of the contestants...

BIG APPLES ON TOP

A Wisconsin Horticulturist Speaks Openly About Trade Tricks.

THE CONVENTION CLOSES TO-DAY

The Final Sessions Are Devoted to Commercial Orchards and Pomology.

The largest attendance of the meeting was present at the morning session of the Minnesota State Horticultural society...

An incident of the morning session which created a laugh, came during the discussion on the paper by W. S. Widener...

"I want to say that in putting on the facings it is the custom in Minnesota to put the smaller apples at the ends so that the purchaser may be agreeably surprised...

Roy Underwood of Lake City read a paper on "Cultivation of the Commercial Orchard Before and After Bearing..."

Carl Vollenweider read a paper dealing with the market end of the business, in which he gave a number of valuable hints...

The general subject of the afternoon session was the "Improvement of Fruits," which was divided into seven topics...

Officers re-elected: Horticultural Society Holds Election—National Park Indorsed.

At the afternoon session yesterday the society re-elected its old officers, as follows: President, W. W. Pedergast...

She did not think that remark was made in connection with his efforts to save his wife. There were several people present...

Mrs. Peckh impudences. Mrs. Lillie Peach, an inhabitant of the third floor of the flat building at 816-818 Eighth avenue S., succeeded Mrs. Walsh...

The new name on the list is that of A. K. Bush of Dover, who was elected to fill out the unexpired term of the late J. S. Harris on the executive committee...

Following the election of officers the State Forestry association held a joint session with the Horticultural society...

Mrs. William Elly Bramhall of St. Paul read a paper on the proposed national park in the northern part of the state...

Last night the delegates to the Horticultural society, together with the women's auxiliary, banqueted in the rooms of the Unitarian church...

RESTRAINT OF ROOSEVELT

Continued From First Page.

Justice, a Filipino, $7,500; six justices, two of them Filipinos, $7,000; treasurer, $6,000; auditor, $6,000; collector of customs, $6,000; head of the department of posts, $6,000; chief of the bureau of education, $6,000; chief of the health bureau, $6,000; attorney general, $5,500.

Up to Sept. 1 last, Governor Taft was receiving $12,000 annually and $15 per diem. After that date his salary was fixed at $5,000 a year as commissioner and $15,000 additional as head of a bureau.

His other colleagues on the commission received $5,000 a year as members of the commission and $10,000 more each as heads of bureaus. Their compensation, therefore, is $15,000 annually. But while the consensus of congressional visitors is that the commission is a good thing...

Three members of the old ways and means committee failed to be returned to the congress—two republicans and one democrat—and the republicans have taken all three of these places. The old committee stood ten republicans and seven democrats.

In this congress, the republican majority has been reduced to six democrats. This change is made because of the larger republican majority in this congress. McCarley of Minnesota goes up two points on the committee, both republican vacancies occurring above him.

He is now seventh on the committee. As has been claimed in these dispatches from Boston, Mr. Babcock of Wisconsin, is a member of the new ways and means committee.

In the last congress this committee contained ten republicans and seven democrats. In this congress, the republican majority having been radically increased, the committee, like the committee on appropriations, contains eleven republicans and six democrats.

Mr. Babcock's tariff views had nothing whatever to do with the change. In the other house committees the republican margin is also to be increased. In the senate committees are to be increased the republican majority in both houses in a similar way.

"I read in the morning newspapers," said Representative Paine, chairman of the Philippine committee, "that I am to be referred to the Philippine products, but I desire to say most emphatically that I shall do no such thing. If the ways and means committee appointed to-day, which will promptly get to work, cannot serve the house in performing its constitutional function in regard to revenue, we shall let it try to do something of the kind."

This statement of the house leader is typical of the feeling that has been aroused by Mr. Lodge's revenue bill and the unwarranted assumption that it was an administration measure which the house needed only to "O. K." to straighten out the existing tangle.

Senators Spooner and Allison were working, it is understood, on a measure which they hoped quietly to get the house committee to adopt, but all such plans have been upset.

Judge Crumpacker is presenting to-day his petition asking for a caucus of house republicans to consider the question of southern representation along the line of his own resolutions and those introduced by Congressman Moody.

Mr. Crumpacker has already secured more than enough signatures to call a caucus, and what is still more significant reports that no republican to whom the petition has been presented has declined to sign it or has expressed any dissent from the plan he has in view.

Mr. Moody, since his Louisiana resolutions were presented, has heard from several western senators on their own initiative and many representatives, besides receiving scores of private letters all urging him to push the matter to successful issue.

RIVER AND HARBOR FUNDS.

Representative Burton of Ohio, who will be chairman of the rivers and harbors committee, is in favor of early action on the bill to be reported by this committee.

For that reason hearings will be limited to necessary and new projects recommended by local engineers and indorsed by General Gillespie. Burton says it is desirable that the bill should become a law so that contracts may be let and some work done on various projects this season.

Mr. Burton is opposed to having any irregular legislation incorporated in this bill and will fight such proposition as he did last session. He will, however, support a separate rate irrigation bill when it comes before the house.

Mr. Burton intimated that appropriations will be sealed to the lowest notch. To-day a caucus was held by Pacific coast members of the house to harmonize differences as to details of the bill for Chinese exclusion.

The meeting lasted an hour and it was decided that harmony was essential to success. Congress will pass any reasonable bill for which the far west asks.

As a result of to-day's meeting a bill will be introduced, perhaps before the holidays, and every western member will support it.—W. W. Jernake.

WASHINGTON SMALL TALK.

The postoffice at Bethel, Edwards, Polan, Scobe, Sheldon, Lenby and Rogers, Minn., Edmore, N. D., and Lebeau and Selby, S. D., will be closed on Dec. 24.

The postoffice at Akeley, Minn., will be raised to the presidential class Jan. 1 with the postmaster appointed to-day: Iowa—Amity, Scott county, Albert A. Meyer; DeKalb, DeKalb county, H. D. Fry; Paris, Green county, Charles Try; Folsom, Mills county, Charles E. King; Harlan, Appanoose county, R. Hunter; Folsom, Iowa county, John J. Dykstra. Montana—Clyde Park, Park county, Charles A. Arnett.

Congressman Tawney to-day introduced a bill to give Gideon Holton of Meadville, Pa., formerly of Minneapolis, $6,000 as reimbursement for bounty tax. In 1864 Holton secured forty-two men for army service from Fillmore county, Minnesota, and this fact is the basis of the claim. In the fifty-third congress a similar bill was adversely reported.

M. H. Jewell of Bismarck is in Washington for a few days. State Senator William O'Neill of Wisconsin, who investigated the Indian office, is in Washington to be present at the hearing to be held before the secretary of the interior next Monday.

WRIT ISSUED

Megaarden Must Defend Quo Warranto Proceedings Next Monday.

Chief Justice Start this afternoon granted a writ of quo warranto directed against Philip T. Megaarden. The writ is returnable at the opening of court Monday morning, Dec. 9. Megaarden is directed to appear at that time to show cause why warrant should be held against him in the office of sheriff of Hennepin county.

FORMER ST. PAUL PASTOR

Rev. Dr. Ingersoll an Officer of the American Bible Society.

New York, Dec. 6.—Rev. Dr. Edward P. Ingersoll, pastor of the Immanuel Congregational church in Decatur street, Brooklyn, has been elected one of the corresponding secretaries of the American Bible society. Dr. Ingersoll was pastor of the Park Congregational church in St. Paul, Minn., from 1881 until 1888.

How to Tell the Genuine.

The signature of E. W. Grove appears on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine, the remedy that cures a cold in 1 day.

Winter footwear advertisement with large text and decorative elements.

OUR STOCK IS NEW AND FRESH—just out of the factories. The quality in every instance is dependable. Our prices are about as low as out-of-date styles are sold for elsewhere.

- Storm Overshoes: High front and back, black fleece lined Jersey cloth. Modern shapes and warranted quality. For Children 45c For Girls 55c For Women 69c For Men 95c. Moccasins: For Boys, sizes 13 to 6 Special 79c. Shoe Pads: For Boys, sizes 13 to 6 98c; 3 to 6 1.25. Men's Felt Shoes: Light weight, all for lace, proper fitting to wear under over 98c shoes. Men's medium weight felt, lace, leather soles 1.25. Men's felt, lace, with leather and felt soles 1.68. Canvas Leggins: For men and boys, all sizes, heavy 20-ounce duck; worth 75c and 90c 39c.

rooms of the Unitarian church. President W. W. Pedergast presided as toastmaster, and responses were made to the following toasts:

"Brothers in Affliction—The Legal Luminary and the Tree Feller," A. B. Chote, Minneapolis; "Truth Crushed to Earth Shall Rise Again," Clarence Wedge, Albert Lea; "In Search of Truth—Was the Garden of Eden Really Located in Minnesota?" Professor William Robertson, St. Anthony Park; "Tis Better to Be Sinned Against Than Sinful—The Commission Merchant a Proprietor for the Sins of Many," Nathan Longfellow, Minneapolis; "The Liveliest Thing on Record—A Minnesota Spring, from the Nurseryman's Standpoint," J. R. Andrews, Fairbault; "The Minnesota State Horticultural Society—We Toast Ourselves With Becoming Modesty," Frank Yabake, Winona; "The Gopher and Badger Lie Down Together—On Occasion," A. J. Phillips, West Salem, Wis.; "The Men's Auxiliary—What We Are Coming To," C. F. Eason, Minneapolis; "Things Horticultural and Otherwise in Countries Not Our Own," Rev. T. E. Archer, Minneapolis; "In Memoriam—A Finger Board Pointing the Way of Duties Unperformed," Oliver Gibbs Prescott, Wis.

PRIZES CUT OUT

The Bee-keepers' association, at the afternoon session yesterday, decided to discontinue the offer of prizes for honey exhibits. The association adjourned after the election of officers, as follows: President, William Russell, Minnehaha Park; first vice president, George A. Foster, Rosemont; second vice president, G. H. Ford, Bloomington; third vice president, Dr. W. McCoy, Duluth; secretary, Dr. L. E. Leonard, Minneapolis; treasurer, L. E. Day, Clinton Falls. Executive committee, H. G. Acklin, St. Paul; A. H. Gray, Redwood Falls; Dr. E. K. Jacques, Robbinsdale.

CLASSED AS A MYSTERY

Continued From First Page. feeling between his family and Mrs. Flare. G. E. Shepherd, a son of Mrs. Effie Shepherd slept in a room under the Pickett fire and testified that he was awakened by the cry of fire. His first thought was of burglars. His mother was trying to rouse him. She asked him to go out and with Mrs. Nelson in the hall she saw a man who she thought was a burglar. He had preferred to stay in bed, as he was somewhat frightened himself.

Detective and Coroner Testify. Inspector Norman W. King of the police department said that he had interviewed every man, woman and child he could find. He had made a written report to Superintendent Doyle at the time, but had not been able to find it. Before continuing his evidence the witness was requested to step aside in favor of another witness, who was very busy. This was Dr. Henry C. Nelson, who investigated the death of Mrs. Pickett as coroner of the county. He related that he arrived at the scene of the fire before 3 o'clock, and proceeded at once to the bathroom.

The position of the body was described about the same as by other witnesses. He thought that the door reached the feet and pushed the body to one side. He found only one witness who could tell him anything of apparent consequence, that being a Mrs. Nelson. After moving the body he found a lamp. It was broken, the burner was off and stand broken off, leaving openings in both sides or ends of the glass reservoir. The chimney was all in pieces, at least there was broken glass on the floor. The lamp, as described by Dr. Nelson, is entirely different from the one introduced in evidence as the one used in the bathroom.

His version of the conversation he had with Mrs. Nelson varied somewhat from the one related by the star witness for the state. She had informed Dr. Nelson that she thought there were burglars in the house. When she went out in the hall she saw Pickett standing at the bathroom door. There were flames inside. He then came running down the hall crying "My God, my God, my God." No one else was in the affirmative. Dr. Nelson could not get any coherent information from Mr. Pickett.

The doctor denied positively that Mrs. Howard had told him anything about Mrs. Pickett's relations on the stand. No one had given him any such information. If he had he would have surely remembered it, as it was a fact of life. He was looking for Dr. Nelson on the stand when the court adjourned for the noon recess.

THE STATE RESTS

Mr. Chamberlain States the Case for the Defense. The state rested its case yesterday afternoon after Police Officer Matthew Jones, Mrs. Mary Michael, and C. B. Francis, of the Times, had been introduced to show that Pickett told conflicting stories regarding what he did on the night his wife was killed.

The last witness for the state was Gus Switzer of the clerk of courts office who produced the marriage license record to show that Reuben C. Pickett was married to Nellie Slater about eight months after the first Mrs. Pickett died.

In opening the case for the defense, Howard B. Chamberlain touched feebly on the sad features of the case and brought tears to the eyes of the female contingent on both sides of the case. He said that the defense would not attempt to say how Mrs. Pickett met her death. Mr. Pickett, however, knew nothing of it and when placed on the stand would tell everything he could recall regarding that night.

Attention was recalled to the fact that over fourteen months had elapsed since the fire before the interested parties had started the prosecution although everything that was known now could have been learned on the day of the fire. He also stated that he would prove that Mr. Pickett had no acquaintance with his second wife before the fire and would satisfactorily explain the equally hasty coffee and marriage. Mr. Chamberlain fully won the confidence of the jury by his bearing and his evident fairness toward all the wit-

Home Trade Shoe Store advertisement featuring a shoe and promotional text.

EDISON PHONOGRAPH advertisement with image of a gramophone.

Great Western Cycle Co. advertisement for skates and sweaters.

NOVEL TRIP advertisement for a cruise by ocean.

HIGH ALTITUDES advertisement for Postum coffee.

Food Cannot Be Boiled as Quickly as in Low advertisement for Postum coffee.

THE STATE RESTS advertisement for a legal case.

What the Chicago American Calls "Characteristic Poses of Gov. Van Sant!" advertisement with images of men in suits.

Woodbury's Facial Soap advertisement with image of a woman's face.

Baby's Sake advertisement for a baby product.