GREAT FEAT AT CARDS

PERFORMED BY PROF. McCLUNG

Played Ten Decks, Calling Each Play and Never Missed a Card.

Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 11.—In the presence of a score of leading whist players of this state, Professor De Adelick McClung, a whist player of national reputation, played ten decks of cards, calling each play, not having seen the cards for one week at a sitting.

FOOTBALL ON COAST

Stanford and California Prepare for Holiday Contest.

New York Sun Special Service. San Francisco, Dec. 11.—The football teams of Stanford university and the university of California have begun practicing in preparation for their games in southern California during the holidays.

"WIZARD" IS CHAMPION

He Led Slosson Forty-Five Points in Final Game.

New York, Dec. 11.—Jacob Schaeffer of Chicago and George F. Slosson of the international eighteen-inch billiard championship tournament at Madison Square Garden concert hall last night, and the Chicago man won by a score of 400 to 355.

KING HICKEY TALKS

Says There'll Be No Twin City "Western" Teams.

President Hickey of the American Baseball association says there will be no Western league teams in Minneapolis and St. Paul. "Jimmy" Whitfield's league will surely have teams in Omaha and Kansas City, and with Kourke in Omaha and Jimmy Manning, not to speak of Jimmy Whitfield, in Kansas City, expect to throttle and drive the Americans out across the Missouri.

OFFICIAL TENNIS STANDINGS

United States Association Has Completed Its Ranking List.

Boston, Dec. 11.—The ranking committee of the United States Lawn Tennis association has completed a list of the official ranking of the lawn tennis players of the country. It follows: Singles—Class 1—Owe 3-6 of 15, W. A. Larned.

AFTER SECOND PLACE

A Close Finish Fight in Commercial Club Tournament.

Only a few more games remain to be played before the end of the Commercial club billiard tournament which has proved such a popular feature at the club during the last month. There will be a close finish fight for second place in class A.

CHESS AND CHECKER TOURNAY

Tow-Day Contest Opened at Grand Forks.

Grand Forks, N. D., Dec. 11.—The chess and checker tournament under the auspices of the North Dakota State Chess association opened in this city yesterday and will last two days. The attendance is good, there being many present from outside points.

Super-emminence in Stylish Overcoats!

There is not another such stock of fashionable, fine Overcoats in this country. Overcoats by the thousands that reign supreme as to excellence of quality and value $15 Overcoats; $15 Yoke Overcoats; $15 Automobile Coats, $15 Fullmore Overcoats; 5,000 Overcoats at $15.

They represent the greatest overcoat values in America; 200 different sorts at $15.00; Montignac, Chinchilla, Fur Beaver, Elation, Chevriot, Frieze, Kersey, Patent Beaver and English Whipcord; 48 inches long, fashionable bell shape or the natty medium length box coats; see them.

They are all real masterpieces of tailor's art and most beautiful overcoats ever seen for $15.00 many of Muncie, Ind. His work consists in digging ditches and he digs merrily. Ruslie seems to be as happy as when he was a sort of a demi-god and the Ruslie cottage is said to be the abiding place of contentment and peace.

Whitfield in the East. Chicago, Dec. 11.—James Whitfield, president of the Western League, who secured assurances of the support of the American League from President Johnson Monday, yesterday left for New York to confer with the National League magnates and with President Pat Powers of the minor league association.

Mr. Hickey's idea, however, is that the fans of Kansas City and Omaha will prefer to see ball players representing Milwaukee, Indianapolis, Minneapolis and St. Paul rather than the "bush leaguers" from Des Moines, St. Joseph and Colorado Springs.

RUSIE THE DITCHER He is the Successor to Ruslie the Pitcher.

Amos Rusie, the famous baseball pitcher, the greatest that the game ever saw, and who once drew $6,000 a year and was the pet of all New York, is now working as a day laborer for the waterworks com-tion. Mr. Whitfield is accompanied by Kid Nichols, the Boston pitcher, who will own a half interest in the Kansas City club with James Manning.

Nichols will see President Soden white in the east. He says that Boston has no claim upon him whatever, and that he will not play with the Boston club again, but will settle down in Kansas City.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—David Jones, the young collegian who led the hitters of the "Three-I" League last season, will be in the lineup of the Chicago National League next spring.

North Dakota Hunting Permits. Special to The Journal. Fargo, N. D., Dec. 11.—During the hunting season, the local officials issued 674 hunting permits to residents of the state, the majority of which went to Fargoans.

Better Done in Germany. The first thing that impresses the traveler in Germany is the way the cab service is run. Almost every cab is furnished with "taximeters,"—little dials placed in front of the seat and so arranged that they indicate just how much the passenger owes at any time.
