M. & ST. L. STOCKS MOVE An Indication That the Illinois Central Is Again Interested.

New York, Jan. 7.—It is reported that negotiations for the purchase of the Minneapolis & St. Louis are to be reopened by the Illinois Central. The common $1.75 to $3; sold by first-class dealers or J. N. stock was one of the strong features of Johnson Co.,915 Nicollet. Carriage tires, $8 up. the stock market yesterday, advancing about five points on transactions of only a few thousand shares. It is asserted that 10 this is partly due to renewed attempts to buy the road. It is not generally known, but it is nevertheless, quite true, that the market for Minneapolis & St. Louis stock has been held down by the pressure for sale of a considerable block held by the Patterson estate. It is known that this stock has been steadily absorbed by inside interests, and it is now good opinion, that the entire block has passed to prominent interests in the company who included interests in the company who included in the company wh are cognizant of the plans that are in progress for the sale of the property. Now that these holdings are off the market, as is believed to be the case, it would not be surprising if the common stock quickly advanced to at least 130. This could easily occur, as it is closely and Rock Island each 13 per cent, the North-Western 9 per cent and the Santa Fe 5 per To offset the decrease in grain traffic the To offset the decrease in grain traffic the western lines had a big increase in live stock traffic. They brought here last year 291,711 car loads of live stock, while in 1900 they hauled 277,203 car loads, in 1899, 269,405 car loads, and in 1898, 276,643 car loads. The North-Western had 23 per cent of the total live stock traffic last year, the St. Paul 20 per cent, the Burlington 12 per cent, the Rock Island and Illinois Central each 9 per cent.

MODERN FABLES.

There is a fable of mythology that Hercules once, on a journey, came to two roads. From one there came a person gally dressel and beckoned him that way. Hercules said: What is your name? 'My name is Pleasure, but my enemies call me Vice,' was the reply. From the other road came another, and Hercules said: What is your name? The answer was: 'My name is Virtue; the road is difficult, but the end is joy and peace.' Most people come often to that point where Life's road divides. Small things lead us one way or another. Good judgment is required and well-inforrmed minds are safest on such occasions. Life is too serious to neglect such opportunities as are offered for fitting one's self for the pivotal points on life's battle ground.
