MILLER'S JURISDICTION

It Covers Only the Burlington System-No Northern Traffic.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Darius Miller, the new traffic manager of the Burlington, says that he will have nothing to do with the traffic affairs of either the Great Northern or the Northern Pacific in the future: that his new position gives him authority 13 over Burlington traffic matters only.

Decrease in Grain Receipts. Chicago, Jan. 7.—During 1901 the western rallroads brought to Chicago 196,319 car loads of grain, while in 1900 they brought 278,089 car loads, in 1899, 292,171 car loads, and in 1898, 321,941 car loads. The Burlington road had 18 per cent of last year's grain traffic, the St. Paul 15 per cent, the Illinois Central and Rock Island each 13 per cent, the North-Western 9 per cent and the Santa Fe 5 per cent.

To offset the decrease in grain traffic the western lines had a big increase in live stock traffic. They brought here last year 291,711 car loads of live stock, while in 1900 they hauled 277,203 car loads, in 1899, 269,406 car loads, and in 1898, 276,643 car loads. The North-Western had 23 per cent of the total live stock traffic last year, the St. Paul 20 per cent, the Burlington 12 per cent, the Rock Island and Illinois Central each 9 per cent.

MODERN FABLES.

There is a fable of mythology that Hercules once on a journey, came to two roads.

'There is a fable of mythology that Hercules once, on a journey, came to two roads. From one there came a person gaily dressel and beckoned him that way. Hercules said: 'What is your name?' My name is Pleasure, but my enemies call me Vice,' was the reply. From the other road came another, and Hercules said: 'What is your name?' The answer was: 'My name is Virtue, the road is difficult, but the end is joy and peace.' Most people come often to that point where Life's road divides. Small things lead us one way or another. Good judgment is required and well-informed minds are safest on such occasions. Life is too serious to neglect such opportunities as are offered for fitting one's sions. Life is too serious to neglect such opportunities as are offered for fitting one's self for the pivotal points on life's battle ground. The Journal's Home Study Library contains more that is good and less that is unnecess ary than any other set of books published in the country.
