BIDDING FOR POLES

Twin City 'Phone Co. Seeks to Curtail Its Rival's Privileges.

USE OF CITY POLES ASKED FOR

At Present It Is Charged That the Northwestern Company Uses Them Free.

The local telephone company promises to give the city council considerable trouble before it is over. Both companies have done more or less maneuvering in the council before this, and to-night the city fathers will be called upon again to interfere.

A short time ago the Northwestern company offered to install in city departments, free of charge, a limited number of 'phones. This was taken by the Twin City company as direct slap in the face, and the officials of the local corporation at once set about discovering a plan by which they could "play even."

That plan, they believe, they have now found. After looking over the equipment of the Northwestern company, Twin City representatives reported that it was occupying, in different parts of Minneapolis, no fewer than 905 poles belonging to the fire department and for which no rental was ever paid or offered. Moreover, it is asserted these poles are being used without authority, and even without the knowledge of the council.

On the city poles the Northwestern company has placed its telephone lines, carrying something over 200 miles of telephone wires, and all without the payment of any rental.

When this discovery was made, Twin City experts were set to work to figure out the value of the equipment thus usurped by the Northwestern company; and the result of their calculations will be made known to the council to-night, when the company will present a formal offer providing for the lease of these city poles by the Twin City people at an annual rental of $1,000.

The letter accompanying the offer goes into the charges imposed against the city by the Northwestern company since the advent of the new concern, and quotes figures showing that the municipality paid to the Northwestern company $23,154.02 during the period from Jan. 1, 1890, to October, 1900, during all of which time the company was "working" the fire department and using its poles free of charge. It also states that the Northwestern company has been permitted to use its poles free of charge, the letter calls attention to the fact that under its charter the Twin City company is compelled to carry city wires free of charge, so that the two companies are on an even basis in that respect.

The offer is held good only if possession of the poles is given within thirty days. Should the council accept the offer the Northwestern company will be obliged to remove its wires.

THREE CONTRACTS LET

City Hall Commission Buys Engine, Electric Generator, Etc.

Three contracts calling for an aggregate expenditure of $1,000 were let by the courthouse and city hall commissioners yesterday afternoon, as follows: Twin City Iron works, Corliss engine, $2,500; Electric Machinery company, electric generator, $4,000; Wilkinson & Co., electric light fixtures, $4,000. The new marble and iron bids were discussed, but action was deferred until a later meeting.

ST. PAUL CUSTOMS RECEIPTS.

The receipts for the last six months of 1901 were $12,534.83, as against $16,710.33 in 1900. Of the amount for 1901, $30,944.56 was received through the support of Minneapolis, leaving the receipts for all other places in the district, including St. Paul, $207,880.27. Duluth is in another district.

LIGHT FOR PARKS

Prof. Arthur E. Haynes of the University Has a Plan.

USE POWER FROM DAM NO. 2

The Right to Its Use to Be Obtained From the Government.

Professor Arthur E. Haynes of the state university has suggested a plan that would seem to be worthy of the careful consideration of the park board and of the loyal support of Minneapolitans generally. It is this, that the park board obtain from the government the free use of the water power of dam No. 2, to be constructed below Meeker island, as a partial return for the surrender of the board's riparian rights on the shores of the sites of both dam No. 1 and No. 2. This power, he suggests, could be used in lighting the river banks, the parks and the parkways of the city, and the surplus power could be sold and the receipts used for park maintenance. This is the way Professor Haynes puts the proposition.

In view of the fact that the park board has a generous grant to the United States government the riparian rights necessary for the construction of dam and lock No. 2, just below Meeker island, it is a simple matter to secure the right to the park board to utilize it, the board could magnificently light up both banks of the river and the rest of the entire system of parks and parkways of the city, while it would still have a large surplus of electric power to rent, the income from which could be used for the maintenance of the parks. It seems to me that this is a matter worthy the hearty support of every Minneapolitan.

A SHORTAGE OF HORSES

NEW YORK EXPERT PREDICTS IT

He Is Telling Farmers How to Meet It at the Farmers' Institutes.

Superintendent O. C. Gregg has just returned from the farmers' institute at Litchfield, and declares the institute to be the finest ever held in the north, which always turns out a large and interesting assembly of speakers has been arranged with other states and the plan is to visit this state in the near future. D. Smead of New York, who is known to be one of the best authorities on the horse market, as an expert horseman he predicts that very soon we shall be confronted with a horse shortage. His remarks were made at the attention of the farmers of our state to this end, and at the same time give clear and concise instructions relative to the order to meet the demands of the market.

Superintendent E. W. McKee of Maine, who for many years has been in charge of the institute work in his state, makes a decidedly useful member in this new force. He is a dairyman with large experience. He has been in the horse business for many years and is a valuable in calling the attention of the land owners and farmers of Minnesota to the need of preserving and adding to the fertility of their soils. He also will speak concerning ensilage as a means of increasing the production of crops, and will also discuss the value of the horse as a means of increasing the production of crops, and will also discuss the value of the horse as a means of increasing the production of crops.

ALL SORTS OF FUN

Lumber and Sash and Door Salesmen Have a Banquet.

The Mississippi Valley Lumber and Sash and Door Salesmen of the north held their annual entertainment and banquet last night in Eike's hall. Professor Payne furnished entertainment in the form of mind readings, Ed Seldon did a few "stunts" as a German comedian, Wolf and Barrett gave numbers on piano and the violin. Mr. Laird sang, Charles Shibley played the organ and moving pictures were shown. Teddy, the trick dog, showed how clever a dog can be when he tricks. Cole and Raymond appeared in a skit called "Silent Fun." The remainder of the program, in which members of the May Howard Extravaganza company figured, was as follows: Monologue, J. Lemuels; serio-comic, Amy Nelson; music specialty, Patricio trio; buck and wing, Stevens; song and dance, May Belle; Little girl with big voice, Frankie Emmett; head-to-head, St. Ormond; forty contest, LaRue and Phillips.

A PLUMBING INSPECTOR

Board of Health Fills a Long Vacant Position.

Thomas McCarron was yesterday elected plumbing inspector by the board of health. For the past year the department has had no plumbing inspector. Dr. Raymond, secretary of the board, was vice Dr. M. J. Sexton, resigned, and Health Commissioner Hall's selection of C. S. Deegal as superintendent of the quarantine hospital was confirmed.

What a User of Washburn Lignite Coal Has to Say of It.

Minneapolis, Jan. 9, 1902.

Washburn Coal Co., No. 17 So. Fourth St., City.

Gentlemen:

We have used your lignite coal all winter in our range and find it the best range coal we ever used. I start the fire with millwood and then throw on the lignite, which ignites easily and makes a quick and even fire, excellent for ironing or cooking. You can hurry it faster than other coal in the morning and it lasts longer and burns than wood. Keeping fire all night if desired. It is not so sooty as soft coal and has scarcely any clinker at all. We use the Garland range with an ordinary coal grate. It makes a splendid baker with lignite. At first I did not succeed so well with it until I had learned how to regulate the draft. Very truly yours, Mrs. E. D. Case, 3224 Pleasant avenue.

Langdon Estate Account.

Cavour S. Langdon has filed his final account as executor of the estate of the late Robert B. Langdon. There has come into his hands $800,000.

He has filed claims against the estate aggregating $67,471.12, and the expense of administration has been $129,889.40.

Shirt, Collar and Cuff Sale.

Now going on at The Nicolet Clothing House.

TEACHERS JOIN THE ASS'N

AN N. E. A. BOOM IN MINNESOTA

Commercial Club's Convention Committee Reports Probable Accession of 2,000 by July.

Chairman Nye and Superintendent C. M. Jordan of the convention committee of the Commercial Club expect to be able to report an additional membership of 2,000 for the National Educational association by the time the convention meets here in July. Minneapolis and St. Paul educators are joining the association in large numbers and the same interest will probably be shown by educators in other sections. The association asks the state in which the convention is held to add 1,000 to the membership. At the time the convention was held in Los Angeles, California contributed 4,000 new members.

May Get Grain Growers.

Secretary O'Gorman and Chairman Nye to-day conferred with a delegation from the Chamber of Commerce over the National Grain Dealers' meeting, to be held next October. Minneapolitans will probably ask for the convention. Up to date, Membership has been in the lead, but the warm contest which has arisen between Memphis and Chicago in securing makes a compromise on Minneapolis possible.

And American Veterinary Society.

Minneapolis may secure the convention of the American Veterinary society in September. The last meeting was held in Atlantic City. Minneapolis has no serious opposition other than the objection of the eastern members of the convention committee to holding the convention in the west.

THE WEATHER

The Predictions.

Minnesota and Iowa—Fair to-night and Saturday; colder to-night; northwest winds, becoming variable Saturday. Wisconsin—Fair to-night and Saturday; cooler to-night; brisk northwest winds. The Dakotas—Fair to-night and Saturday; colder in east and central portions to-night; variable winds. Montana—Fair to-night and Saturday; variable winds.

For Minneapolis and vicinity—Fair to-night and Saturday; colder to-night.

Weather Conditions.

Light snow was falling this morning at several points on the Michigan and Erie, but elsewhere the weather is generally clear. There has been a moderate fall in temperature since yesterday morning from Lake Michigan and Superior westward, with this morning's temperature below 20 degrees in North Dakota, and below 10 degrees in the region farther north. The lowest temperature reported this morning being zero at Battleford. The pressure is high in Washington, Montana and Wyoming, and slightly below normal in the New England coast.

T. S. Outram, Section Director.

LOOKS LIKE A CORNER

Eggs Go Up to 30 Cents Per Dozen in Chicago.

The rise in the price of eggs in Chicago to 30 cents a dozen is regarded by local dealers as proof that Chicago packers have engineered a corner on eggs. Storage stocks of eggs are low in Chicago and the cold weather in December in that vicinity has caused the hens to "dry off," thus greatly curtailing the supply, and allowing packers to manipulate the market.

Eggs are reported plentiful in the local market. With the continued moderate weather, hens are laying again. Fresh eggs here are now selling at wholesale at twenty-five cents, and storage eggs at sixteen cents.

No Bill for Issu.

No bill was returned against Angelica Izzi, who was arrested on a charge of forgery. He will stay in jail for a time, however, on account of the quarantine regulations.

County Pays Bill.

The county has paid the claim of the Great Western Printing company for printing tax books amounting to $1,000, which was appealed by the taxpayers. The judgment was for $1,000.

The First Offer for Sale of the Stock of the Claude L. Mining Stock a Great Success.

The price of the Claude L. Mining stock at five cents (5c) per share closed at 6 p. m., Jan. 9. Of the number of shares intended to be sold there is remaining only (38,000) thirty-eight thousand. These are shares of mine property, but not taken until Jan. 20th at 6 p. m., unless sooner sold, they can be bought for cash at ten cents (10c) per share at the office of H. G. Lee & Co., 213 and 221 New York Life building, Minneapolis. Please take notice that in my opinion the Claude L. stock will bring twenty-five cents (25c) per share before sixty days from date. The stock is a good buy now at ten cents.
