SHORTAGE? Officer of a Cincinnati Packing Company Is Accused.

Cincinnati, Jan. 22.—It was reported to-day that Theodore Braemer, secretary and treasurer of the J. and F. Schroth Packing Co., of this city, was short in his accounts from $100,000 to $400,000. The story as printed in the local papers was that Braemer, when charged with a shortage of $100,000, resigned from his position and then transferred to trustees to investigate the shortage.

Several Denials. Marland Cleveland, representing Theodore Braemer and Joseph W. O'Hara, representing the J. & F. Schroth Packing company, have denied the charges during the day, as joint trustees as well as counsel. They said they had nothing for publication to-day except to say that Braemer tendered his resignation and that all discrepancies in the books and other differences had been satisfactorily adjusted.

Mr. Braemer said his salary had for the past six months, and I concluded to quit. There had been some errors in the books, and some time ago it was mutually agreed to have an audit go over them. Some more errors were found, and as a precautionary measure and to indemnify the company Harlan Cleveland and Joe O'Hara, the attorneys, were appointed trustees of the company.
