MARRIED IN CHURCH
Wedding of Miss Helen Skiles and Allen Wright.
ST. MARK'S CHURCH LAST EVENING

Profuse Decorations of Palms and Cut Flowers—Reception Followed Ceremony.

The marriage of Miss Helen Skiles and Allen Wright was solemnized last evening in St. Mark's church in the midst of a large assemblage of friends and among the most charming appointments.

The bride, Miss Helen Skiles, daughter of Mr. W. W. Skiles and brought to an old Minnesotan family. Mr. Wright is the son of Governor Wright of Indian Territory and has been United States associate judge of the territory for three years.

The decorations in the church centered around the chancel, where tall palms towered high above the altar on either side. The chancel rail was wreathed with southern smilax interwoven with Lawson pink carnations. Large clusters of pink roses and the pink satin ribbons to the pews in the center aisle.

George H. Normington played a program of music from "Lohengrin" as the guests arrived and were seated by the usher, William V. Clute, Mr. Campbell of Oklahoma City, Mr. Hunter and Mr. Miller of Duluth. At 8 o'clock the full vesper choir, entered the church singing the "Lohengrin" bridal chorale. The choir was followed by Bishop Brooke of Indian Territory and Rev. T. W. MacLean, rector of the church.

Miss Helen Skiles was the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown of pink Japanese silk. The skirt was finished with a bounce edged with tulle and a row of tulle and bodice also. In her hair Miss Skiles wore chiffon roses and she carried a great cluster of Easter lilies.

The bride's gown was of heavy cream satin. The skirt was with long court train, had panels of satin outlined with point lace and the bodice was of chiffon, tucked and puffed and finished with a row of tulle and a row of tulle caught with a diamond shaped necklace of diamonds. Her flowers were white violets.

Mr. Wright and his best man, H. E. Yarnall, of Little Rock, Ark., entered the chancel steps, where the betrothal service was read. The bride couple then advanced to the altar, where the final vows were spoken and where after the reading of the scriptures, Bishop Brooke read the marriage service, assisted by Mr. MacLean. Mr. Normington improvised a subdued accompaniment. The choir sang the wedding hymn after the service and the bride party left the church to the sound of the Mendelssohn march.

About sixty guests attended the reception at the home of Mrs. Skiles in the Swiford after the service. The rooms were hung with southern smilax and palms and ferns banked the mantels. The bride and groom were seated at a table with pink roses. Red and white were the colors used in the room where the gifts were displayed. The walls were decorated with pink and white tapers for decorations. Mrs. Skiles received with Mr. and Mrs. Wright. She wore a handsome gown of lavender crepe trimmed with gold-sprangled cream lace and Persian panee velvet.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright left for St. Louis for a visit of several weeks, after which they will be at home in South St. Paul, Feb. 1. Mrs. Wright's going-away gown was of dark blue cloth, trimmed with straps of the same, and the hat and long cloak were to match.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Reid and Wilbur N. Coleman of Chicago was solemnized at a delightful home gathering last night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. Buchanan, brother and sister of the bride, 2218 Fourth avenue S. About seventy-five guests witnessed the ceremony being read by Rev. Clarence F. Swift. The bride and groom were unattended and stood during the interchange of the nuptial vows under a graceful canopy of white tulle and palms, and among which were arranged large and fragrant Easter lilies. A strong orchestra played the bridal music and furnished an accompaniment to the ceremony. The decorations of the house were simple but effective. In the parlor and living-room green and white were the colors being garlanded with smilax, and vases and baskets filled with white blossoms were scattered about. The lights throughout the house shone through the palms and ferns, and among which were arranged large and fragrant Easter lilies. arrangements promise something unusually attractive and the decorations will be superb. The committee, Meses. Joseph Zwick and Henry A. Oswald, will be assisted by Frederick Powers.

One of the pretty affairs of the day was the card party given this afternoon by Mrs. Henry Gipson at her home on Groveland avenue. The hostesses were Mrs. Zwick, Mrs. Oswald and Mrs. Powers. The decorations were most effective among the green in the drawing-room, while pink roses were used in the living room and library. Six-hand euchre was played at ten tables and the score cards were daintily sunbonnet babies. Mr. and Mrs. Gipson will be married in the near future at cards this evening. The guests will be the members of a card club to which Mr. and Mrs. Gipson belong.

Mrs. J. H. Edmunds gave a card party this afternoon at her home on Girard avenue S. and about sixty women were entertained at six-hand euchre. The decorations were a pleasing and attractive decoration through the rooms. Mrs. Victor Welch, Misses Lenox and Reynolds assisted Mrs. Edmunds, Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Edmunds will give a second card party.

The Western Heddlings gave a luncheon of four courses at the home of Mrs. Lawson on Williamsburg, Pa., which is their guest, and Miss Ida May Heddlings. The decorations were in yellow and green.

Tuesday evening, Mr. Carpenter gave a theater party in St. Paul for Miss Lawson.

Mrs. A. H. Heller and Mrs. B. Heller entertained at an informal tea this afternoon at their home on Aldrich avenue. Mrs. S. Riegelman and Miss Polachek of Milwaukee were the guests of honor. The Quartet of La Franc roses brightened the rooms.

Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Allen of Garfield avenue entertained at cards last evening and were assisted by the ushers, William V. Clute, Mr. Campbell of Oklahoma City, Mr. Hunter and Mr. Miller of Duluth. At 8 o'clock the full vesper choir, entered the church singing the "Lohengrin" bridal chorale. The choir was followed by Bishop Brooke of Indian Territory and Rev. T. W. MacLean, rector of the church.

An informal dancing party was given last evening at the home of Mrs. P. J. P. in the fraternal house for Howard Woodman of Montana. The rooms were simply decorated with flowers and palms. A program of fifteen numbers was enjoyed by thirty guests.

Mrs. G. L. Matcham gave a dinner of sixteen covers last evening for Dr. and Mrs. Heller. The decorations were in pink and white. Pink and white roses and carnations formed the table decorations. Mrs. Motley of 242 Girard avenue S. gave a dinner for Mrs. Matcham and her guests on Tuesday evening. Covers were laid for twelve and the table was decked in green and white.

Miss Grace Thomas gave a luncheon yesterday afternoon for Miss Louise Eustis, a bride of this evening.

Mrs. H. T. Fall of 911 Third avenue S. entertained at luncheon yesterday. The decorations were in red and white and carnations were the chief decorations. In the afternoon Mrs. Fall and her guests formed a theater party. Present were Meses. Chambers, Jensch, Coit, Egloff and Miss Davies of Hudson, Wis.; Mrs. Louis Marchand of Milwaukee; Mrs. Kuitner of Detroit, Mich., and Miss Levi of Topeka, Kan.

Mrs. Horace Schloff of Park avenue entertained at cards yesterday afternoon at her home. The affair was in honor of a group of visiting women, Mrs. S. Riegelman of Milwaukee, Mrs. Kuitner of Detroit, Mich., and Miss Levi of Topeka, Kan.

A wedding that will bring a bride to Minneapolis was solemnized yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Zimmerman on Summit avenue, St. Paul, when Miss Rose Zimmerman and James Philip of Minneapolis were married. A canopy of white roses was arranged above the improvised altar and the decorations through the rooms were in pink and white. The only attendant was the little flower girl, Henrietta Lovistown, who scattered roses in the path of the bride on her way to the altar. The bride and groom were unattended and stood during the interchange of the nuptial vows under a graceful canopy of white tulle and palms, and among which were arranged large and fragrant Easter lilies. A strong orchestra played the bridal music and furnished an accompaniment to the ceremony. The decorations of the house were simple but effective. AFTER THE ICE MAN
 Boston Ice Company Charged With Neglecting to Erect Barriers.

The Boston Ice company is in trouble again with the people living around Lake Calhoun. There is a law requiring the companies to erect some sort of a barrier around any guard around the ice where they are cutting. Last year they bought a lot of old Christmas trees for this purpose. This year they have simply placed cakes of ice at intervals of six or eight feet around the cuttings.

Guy L. Baltuff now charges the company with violating the ordinance in not placing any guard around the cuttings. These openings, it is alleged, are a menace to the persons using the lake for other purposes. The attorney of the ice company stated that the case be continued until next March, as he affirmed that the men who would be called upon to testify are busy cutting ice and cannot be withdrawn from their occupations without loss to the company. His request was refused on the ground that the hole in the ice was dangerous and that the case was set for Jan. 23.

BEFORE THE PUBLIC EYE
 Ben Johnson and Lewis Shaw of St. Paul and Emil Ober-Hoffer of Minneapolis will enter a plea of guilty to the charge of "Enoch Arden," which was given last week in the chapel, will be repeated Saturday afternoon in the Central hall school, St. Paul, under the auspices of the Teachers' Federation.

The University Glee club will give its first concert at the home of Mrs. J. H. P. Superior, leaving Minneapolis Feb. 5. Later the club will appear in New Richmond, and it is probable that concerts will also be given in Crookston, Fargo and Fergus Falls.

FEDERATION LUNCHEON PLANS
Club Presidents Are Now Supplied With Tickets.

The tickets for the annual midwinter breakfast of the Minnesota Federation of Women's clubs are now in the hands of the club presidents in Minneapolis and presumably throughout the state, and they can be obtained only through the club presidents. The Minnesota committee before the luncheon on Feb. 12. This is a necessary provision in order that the necessary arrangements can be made for the entertainment of the hundreds of guests expected and for whom preparations are being made.

The luncheon will be held in the university armory and the menu will be in charge of a thoroughly competent caterer, who has engaged to give satisfactory service to 1,000 guests, about so many desire to attend. The armory is an interesting building and is not only roomy but attractive. No definite plans for the decorations have yet been announced, but these will be more elaborate hereafter and the musical program will be an important contribution to the aesthetic pleasures of the occasion. During the reception and luncheon Miss Hope's string orchestra will play and vocal solos will be interspersed in the program of toasts, sung by Mrs. Maud Virginia Jones, Mrs. Louis Marchand and Miss Alberta Fisher.

The luncheon at 12:30 will be preceded by a meeting of the executive board of the federation at the home of Mrs. H. S. Hendrix, 2022 Blaisdell avenue. Rev. G. L. Morrill, who has given much time to the study of works of art at home and abroad, will speak on "Art, Its Influence and Limitation." This will be followed with a talk upon "Sculpture," by Mrs. Vinnie Ream Hoxie, the sculptress, who has the distinction of being the only woman ever receiving a government award. About seventy-five invitations have been issued by the members of the club.

Neighborhood Club Social.

The Neighborhood Current Events club held its first open social meeting of the year Tuesday evening with Mrs. H. S. Riley, 2922 Aldrich avenue S. The first hour was spent in listening to a program and in guessing games. Mabel Hildebrand gave a piano solo and Edith Peet and Eva Crawford a piano duet. Lou Aldrich recited several humorous pieces very effectively. H. A. Sweet sang "That Happy Land," and Frank Morehouse gave several piano selections, after which the evening was spent in progressive club games. Games were given to Mrs. Walters, Mrs. Merrill, Mr. Abrams and Mr. Hoemer. The president of the club, Mrs. K. D. McKinnis, left to-day for an extended visit in the north, and in her absence Mrs. J. A. Walter's will fill her place. The next afternoon meeting of the club will be with Mrs. E. S. McClure, 2729 Bryant avenue S, Feb. 6, at 2:30 o'clock.

Club Notes.

The Central Prohibition Club entertained its friends at a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Potts, 1601 Chicago avenue, Monday evening. The program consisted of short speeches by Rev. C. J. Tannar, T. J. Gaspell, A. E. Major, and a recitation by Miss Blanche Kincaid. Prohibition songs were given by J. W. Lansing, accompanied by Mrs. Lansing. Refreshments were served.

A special meeting of the Territorial Progressives' Women's Club was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. S. Hendrix, 2022 Blaisdell avenue. Mrs. H. S. Hendrix, president of the club, Mrs. K. D. McKinnis, and Mrs. J. A. Walter, were delegates to the federation breakfast. Arrangements were made for a meeting to be held Feb. 22 in the West Hotel, Minneapolis.

The Frances Neal W. C. T. U. will meet to-morrow at 3 p. m. with Mrs. Bartlett at Graham hall, 224 Stevens avenue. There will be short addresses by Mrs. Russell and Miss Roberts on social purity and Sabbath observance. There will also be a social hour.

TRIBUTE TO MME. URSO
 Beautiful Enlogies by the Ladies' Thursday Musical.

Mrs. G. A. Simpson paid a beautiful tribute to the memory of Mme. Camilla Urso, who died recently in New York, before the Ladies' Thursday Musical this morning. Mrs. Simpson presented the musical notes and referred to Mme. Urso as the mother of violin players. She spoke of her energy, her lovely womanly nature, and said: "We must reverse the order of the words, but as a woman, Mrs. Urso was not only a mother of violin players, but she was also a mother of the human race." The tribute was a beautiful one.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery
 I suffered for four years with pain in my stomach so that at times I could not eat. I have made a poor bargain. In the case of the dollar people are too eager to take time to eat regularly or choose proper food, the stomach becomes disordered or diseased, the food eaten ceases to nourish, and physical breakdown comes.
