No Argument Needed.

Every Sufferer From Catarrh Knows That Salves, Lotions, Washes, Sprays and Ointments Do Not Cure. Powders, lozenges, sprays and inhalers cannot really cure. Catarrh of the bladder is a blood disease, and local appli-catarrh, if they accomplish anything at all, simply give transient relief. The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and trachea tries to relieve the system by secreting large quantities of mucus, the discharge into the throat, causing the system to drop into the catarrhal tubes and after a time causing catarrh of stomach or serious throat and lung troubles. A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the blood from congestion from the mucous membrane. The best and most modern remedy for this purpose are antiseptics scientifically known as Eucalyptol, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin, and while each of these have been successfully used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form. The manufacturers of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, have succeeded admirably in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant-tasting lozenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat and finally of the stomach. Unlike many catarrh remedies, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, opiate or any injurious drug whatever, and are equally beneficial for little children and adults. Mr. C. R. Renbrandt of Rochester, N. Y., says: "I know of few people who have suffered as much as I from catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, inhalers and powders for months at a time with only slight relief, and had no hope of cure, until I read the means to make a change of climate, which seemed my only chance of cure. Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and promptly bought a 60-cent box. Tablets were promptly obtained such that I consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh; my head is clear, my digestion all I could ask, and my hearing, which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, has greatly improved, until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family." Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 20 cents for complete treatment, and for convenience, safety and prompt results they are undoubtedly the long-lost-for-cure catarrh cure.

AN E. S. RECEPTION

Given by Mrs. J. S. Todd at Her Home.

FLOWERS USED IN PROFUSION About 300 Friends Call Between the Hours of Two and Six p. m. -Personal and Social.

Mrs. J. S. Todd gave a large reception this afternoon at her home on the East Side, entertaining about 300 women from 2 until 6 o'clock. Flowers were used in profusion throughout the room, and the decorations made an effective background for the fragrant blossoms. The mantels were banded with green and smilax wreathed the chandeliers. Daffodils furnished bright spots of color in the hall and red carnations were in the library and den. The parlor was in pink with carnations. In the dining-room a great cluster of pink roses was in the center of the table which was lighted with pink tapers in silver candelabra. The tea and refreshments were in carrying out a color scheme of pink and green. Mrs. M. K. Minton of William, Minn., received with Mrs. Todd and assisting through the rooms and alternating in the dining-room were Meses, Henry Higgins, Charles Copelin, Charles Westler, A. A. Wynum, Hiram Smith, St. P. F. and Mrs. Armstrong and Henry Seeley. This evening Mrs. and Mrs. Todd will give a dinner for the visiting women who will be joined by their husbands. Covers will be laid for eighteen.

The Plymouth Fur Co. advertisement featuring a woman in a fur coat and text: 'Established 1882. Further Offerings of Fine Furs. What woman does not love furs? Yet many careful women resist the temptation for possession because of the cost. For good furs are necessarily expensive. But a good fur garment gives luxurious service for many years. Styles do not change so radically as in cloth garments; so that in the end the more elegant fur garments are the more economical. This February offering brings such decisive concessions in price that shrewd women are taking advantage of the chance to secure the longed-for luxury while the cost is so small.'

My work is very hard on the eyes and affects the head. I have been troubled with my head so that when I would rise out of my bed in the morning I feel like being on a merry-go-round. Ripans Tabules cured me entirely. At druggists. The five-cent packet is enough for an ordinary occasion. The family bottle, 60 cents, contains a supply for a year.'

CASCARETS advertisement featuring an image of a man and text: 'The Health of a Manly Man. Why will not all men insist upon having it, when it is so easy to get and to keep. Some men are eaten alive by tape-worms, others wander hopelessly for years dying slow deaths from bowel disease. "After taking two Cascarets, there came on the scene a very unexpected visitor in the shape of a tape-worm eighteen feet in length, which I am sure caused me bad health for three years." "Cascarets cured me of the piles, with
