In Social Circles

The largest affair of the afternoon was the reception given by Mrs. Charles H. Dickinson, W. S. Jenkins, Adeline Barber and Miss Robinson at their home on Portland avenue. About 100 women had been invited in two groups from 2 until 4 and 4 until 6 o'clock. The rooms were handsomely decorated and the refreshments were of the most excellent. In the reception-rooms the tables were among the palms and dainty pink azaleas were in the parlor. The tea-room, which was furnished in oriental fashion, was bright with sunny jonquils in the quaint bamboo holders. In the dining-room a great basket of Prosperity carriages was in the center of the table and a bowl of tulle was tied to the hands. The tables were draped with white through the room and under the big stained glass window was a tall bank of palms. Mrs. J. M. Johnson, Mrs. F. W. Gray, T. J. Smith, S. P. Swift and DeWitt Cronin assisted through the rooms, and Misses Frank Commons, Edward W. Backus, H. M. Smith and Richard Patrick acted as waitresses. They were assisted by a group of young girls, Misses Mabel Stevenson, Florence Johnson, Elsie Hughes and McVoy. Mrs. W. F. Stinson, Mrs. A. C. Johnson, Mrs. H. S. Randall, of Waterville, Vt., were at the frappe table, and Misses Rena Merrick, Samuel Morse and Miss Stone were in the tea-room.

The assisting women will be entertained at a buffet supper this evening and later a group of guests has been invited for cards. Six-hand euchre will be played at eight tables.

Mrs. Carlotta L. Wallace entertained forty women at a luncheon at her home in Keewauk. A color scheme of pink and green was carried out in the decorations of the parlors and a profusion of early spring flowers, tulips and hyacinths were used with ferns and palms. The dining room was in red and roses and carnations furnished the brighter color. Mrs. Wallace was assisted by Misses John S. McLean, Arthur Hopwood, J. K. Wetherby and H. B. Merrick. Miss Spicer of Wilmar presided at the punch bowl, which was arranged by Mrs. Wallace. Six-hand euchre was played and the score cards represented Brownies on hearts, clubs, spades and diamonds.

This evening Mr. and Mrs. Wallace will entertain a second group of guests at cards. They will be assisted by Messrs. and Misses Frank B. Howell, John L. Smith and Benjamin R. Coppage.

Mrs. Leonard Kimball of Girard avenue 8 had a group of women for cards this afternoon. Cards were played at eight tables and the palms through the rooms and the appointments were all in pink and red. Six-hand euchre was played and the score cards were dainty ribbon girls. About sixty women were present.

Miss Beulah Cook gave a luncheon of eight covers yesterday afternoon at her home in Sunnyside. The guest of honor was Miss Gertrude Sherman, whose marriage to Roy Cleveland will be an event of the late spring, and the affair was arranged as a surprise for her. The parlors and reception hall was decorated with a wealth of red and white carnations, intermingled with southern smilax and palms. In the dining-room the color scheme was in pink and white. A shower bouquet of bride roses and southern smilax was carried in by the bride, who was at Miss Sherman's place. The guests and the hostess were charmingly effective against the ferns and palms. Six-hand euchre was played and there were sixty guests.

Mrs. Leonard Kimball of Girard avenue 8 had a group of women for cards this afternoon. Cards were played at eight tables and the palms through the rooms and the appointments were all in pink and red. MONUMENT CHAPTERS WORK

School Children Express Choice of Revolutionary Hero.

The second annual meeting of Monument chapter, D. A. R., was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. B. Leach, 1366 Spruce place. In the absence of the regent Mrs. O. C. Wyman, the vice regent, Mrs. M. E. Partridge, Mrs. O. S. Chapman, chairman of the board of management, presided. The officers re-elected for the ensuing year are: Mrs. O. C. Wyman, regent; Mrs. M. E. Partridge, recording secretary; Mrs. J. E. Bell, registrar; Frank Stone, historian; Miss Mary Shove, treasurer; Mrs. O. H. Peck, auditor; Mrs. O. S. Chapman, supervisor. The new officers are Mrs. W. B. Leach, vice regent, and Mrs. Clarence Swift, corresponding secretary.

A literary and musical program followed. Miss Frances Horgan sang "My Country 'Tis of Thee," accompanied by Miss Houle, also "The Boy of the Old Brigade"; Mrs. J. K. Wetherby read an interesting account of her visit to the Paris exposition in 1901 and described the imposing ceremonies attending the unveiling of the Washington monument, the gift to France of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and of the Lafayette monument, the gift of the school children of the United States to France. Mrs. T. K. Gray read a paper descriptive of the famous patriotic monuments of America, especially of the Washington monument, Baltimore, Bunker Hill monument, and the Washington monument, Washington, D. C., and the circumstances attending their erection, dedication, etc.

Light refreshments were served in the dining-room. The decorations were a profusion of hyacinths, the gift of Mrs. E. W. Backus, and two handsome bunting flags. Mrs. George Leach and Miss Leona Pelton poured chocolate. The chapter now numbers twenty-six members, which includes other women invited to join, when papers are verified at Washington. Eight of the charter members being out of the city, several had sent messages of congratulatory messages to the regent, and messages were sent in turn to them.

The principal work of Monument chapter for the past year has been an effort to interest the children of the eight grades in the choice of their favorite revolutionary hero. A circular letter was sent through the courtesy of the school board to the principal, superintendent, to each school containing eighth grade rooms, inviting the pupils to compete for two prizes and ten honorable mentions, by writing letters to the regent, D. A. R., stating their choice, from a list of ten revolutionary heroes, Greene, Putnam, Revere, Warren, Adams, Marion, Hamilton, Franklin, Lafayette and Washington. The names of the chosen to receive honorable mention, will be printed in the Journal Junior of Saturday, Feb. 22, through the courtesy of The Journal management and Miss Mae Anson, editor of the Junior, and will be appropriately illustrated. The plans of the chapter for the coming year are to be published but will probably be work along the same lines.

Club Notes.

Professor Maria L. Sanford will speak before the Young Ladies' Philanthropic Bible Class of the First Baptist church Sunday. The occasion is the regular rally day exercises and the subject of the talk will be "Lord, What Wilt Thou Have Me Do?" The class meets in the church parlors, at 12:30 o'clock, and any young women who would like to hear Professor Sanford cordially welcome.

The Neighborhood Current Events Club met yesterday with Mrs. E. S. McClure, 279 Bryn Mawr, as hostess. The program for the afternoon was "Wireless Telegraphy," and papers were read by Misses Colburn, Cooke, Moorehouse and others. The club will meet again on Feb. 14, at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Abrams, 3213 Aldrich avenue S. All members of the club will be invited to Mrs. George W. Cooley, 3029 Lyndale avenue S. Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, to attend the federation breakfast in a body.

RECEPTION BY INDIANS

Robinson Liked at Berthold

New Agent Will Take His Office on March 1—Mandan's State Reform School.

Special to The Journal.

Bismarck, N. D., Feb. 7.—George L. Bismarck, the new Indian agent at Fort Berthold, will take his office on the 1st of March. He is a member of the agency March 1, succeeding Thomas Richards, who had held the office for four years.

The Indians have passed resolutions indorsing the appointment of Robinson, and are preparing to give him a cordial reception. A request for his appointment was made by the representative of the Indians some time ago, and they were promised a voice in the selection of an agent by the republican county convention in McCook county last year.

Robinson is an old timer at Coal Harbor, where he has been in the general merchandise business for years, and he is said to have the confidence of the entire Indian population.

Trustees of the state reform school at Mandan expect to begin building as soon as the spring opens. They have forty acres of land that has been offered them south of Mandan. They have a building fund of $20,000. The state board of university and school lands. The permanent school fund of the state has been invested in bonds of various institutions to enable them to build necessary buildings. The bonds are secured by the lands of the several institutions.

LONG CALENDAR OF CASES

Deadwood Term Will Be the Heaviest in Many Years.

Special to The Journal.

Deadwood, S. D., Feb. 7.—The circuit court calendar for the term which commences in Deadwood Feb. 11, is the largest in the history of the court since 1895. There are 134 cases, of which seventy-eight are jury cases and fifty-six are bench cases. It is expected that twenty or other cases will be added before the beginning of the term.

John Lund, charged with administering knockout drops to Andrew Owens of Omaha and robbing him of $130, has been held to the grand jury. William St. Clair and Charles Meyers, arrested with Lund, have been discharged for lack of evidence.

HE WAS LOOKING FOR LAND

Incidentally He Picked Up a Mass of Evidence Against Blindpigs.

Special to The Journal.

Fergus Falls, Feb. 7.—The hearing in the Pelecan Rapids blindpig cases came on today at 10 o'clock. The prosecuting attorney, Norman Herman Grenowold, John Olson, John King, F. Iverson, A. Halvorson and John Vaala pleaded guilty. Note was filed $50 and costs and the others $25 and costs each. A Minneapolis detective disguised as a farmer looking for land secured the evidence and caused the arrests. Halvorson and Iverson will go to jail.

CURBING RUSSIA

United States Joins Hands With Great Britain and Japan.

Washington, Feb. 7.—There is confirmation of the report from Peking that the United States government is acting with Japan and Great Britain in resisting any action by Russia and China in the shape of a Manchurian treaty that would threaten the interests of the United States in that important section.

The state department has made perfectly clear to Russia its purpose to retain whatever trade advantages it has in Manchuria and its determined attitude in that matter probably has prevented the summary closing of Manchurian ports to any but Russian trade. The questions now involved, the relating to mining concessions and the right to construct railroads in Manchuria, are regarded as secondary in importance only to the question of the "open door," and our diplomatic representatives consequently are acting under conservative but firm instructions on those points.

BACK TO SIOUX CITY

Buchanan and Family May Return to Their Old Home.

Special to The Journal.

Sioux City, Iowa, Feb. 7.—It is not probable that I. W. Buchanan, recently director-general of the Pan-American exposition, will return to Sioux City to live. Mrs. Buchanan and her daughter and son arrived yesterday from the City of Mexico, where Mr. Buchanan was one of the prominent delegates from the United States to the Pan-American congress.

"Mr. Buchanan was very busy during the Pan-American exposition," said Mr. Buchanan, "and as soon as that was over I planned to go to Mexico for a long time as though nothing would come of the exposition. One of the great questions was compulsory arbitration. Some of the countries favored this method of settling differences and others opposed it resolutely. Finally it was decided that arbitration was all right, but compulsory arbitration was not."
