ALL READY TO 'HOCH' BIG LAUNCH FLEET FEARFUL FOR COUSINS

A Mean Joke Perpetrated by Clemens Mengelkoeh's Neighbors. Some Handsome 1902 Additions to Minnetonka Boat List.

HE EXPECTED PRINCE HENRY SEVERAL FLYERS AMONG THEM

Decorated His Saloon in Honor of the Occasion and Entertained Henry Prinz.

A Generous Rivalry Among Owners as to Who Has Fastest Vessel.

Prinze Henry of Prussia was in Minneapolis "in disguise" last Friday. He was the guest of Clemens L. Mengelkoeh, proprietor of a "garten" at 329 Plymouth avenue, and great was the ovation which he received along the North Side thoroughfare.

The launch has come to stay at Minnetonka. Many new boats of this description were added to "Tonka's" list last year, but this year the number will be still more largely augmented.

The advent of the gasoline launch in Minnetonka waters has inspired a generous rivalry among the owners, and this is that of city pride.

When Albert Beyer, butcher, 316 Plymouth avenue, solemnly assured him that the Kaiser's brother would not be content with a visit to the city, he would also be "by the North Side," Mengelkoeh was equally glib.

Then he and his accessories before and after he had recovered from Henry Prinz, a teamster, who lives near by, and persuaded him to play the part of the distinguished visitor.

Friday morning, with a little German band at their head, the "prinze" and the reception he gave his royal highness head alighted from the boat and marched into Mengelkoeh's gaily decorated thir parlor.

"Allow me, Mr. Mengelkoeh," said Beyer, bowing low the royal highness, "to introduce my royal highness, Prinz Henry—I mean, Henry Prinz."

"I will sell you cheap," said Mengelkoeh, after he had recovered from the shock; "this is a sad blow to me, but the drinks go, anyway. What'll you have?"

Then the delegation repaired to a down town restaurant where the royal highness can to think he was the real thing, also "stood for the drinks"—that is, he remained standing, while other members of the party "purchased."

LEIGHTON NO CANDIDATE IT'S HOMESEEKERS' DAY

WON'T STAND FOR RENOMINATION OVER 2,000 PASS THROUGH CITY

Friends Say It's Because of Lack of Harmony in Party—Several Candidates Left.

They Are Being Distributed All Over Northwest—Extra Trains Are Put On.

Alderman H. N. Leighton of the third ward announces positively that he will not be a candidate for renomination this year, and the way is now clear for the republicans of the third ward to "get together" for harmonious effort.

No one in the council ranks higher in integrity, devotion to civic duty and intelligent and business-like service than Mr. Leighton. His enemies concede this, but insist that he is generally regarded as a considerable element in the ward bitterly opposed to his renomination, and but little prospect of his being able to effect a reconcentration of the given ward.

There is an interesting fact that no alderman of the third ward ever succeeded himself in office. Kitchell has had two terms, but they were not consecutive.

It is still agreed in the third ward that it is going to be difficult to select a candidate who can command the united strength of the party in the ward and wear away the necessary votes from the democratic candidate, who will undoubtedly be Kitchell.

There is a constantly increasing hostility between England and Germany, Mr. Washburn says.

The English people look with great suspicion upon the ovation which Prince Henry is receiving in this country, says E. C. Washburn, who returned yesterday morning from a trip through Europe, Egypt and England.

There is no end of dissenation and hard feeling in England over the war. Some think it should go on and others that it should be stopped. In the colonies, however, there is no feeling.

While in England Mr. Washburn inspected many of the English and French railroads, their equipment, shops and methods. He found many American locomotives in use on English railroads.

These do not give as good satisfaction as they should as they are not at all fairly treated. They are permitted to run down and are operated improperly and then any resulting difficulties are laid to their American construction.

BIDS ON FIREPROOFING

Opened by the State Capitol Commission—No Contracts Let.

THE STARVATION PLAN

Of Treating Dyspepsia and Stomach Troubles is Useless and Unscientific.

The almost certain failure of the starvation cure for dyspepsia has been proven time and again, but even now a course of dieting is generally the first remedy recommended in a case of indigestion or any stomach trouble.

All this is radically wrong. It is foolish and unscientific to recommend dieting to a man already suffering from starvation, because indigestion itself starves every organ, nerve and fiber in the body.

What people with poor digestion most need is abundant nutrition, plenty of good, wholesome, properly cooked food, and something to assist the weak stomach to digest it.

This is exactly the purpose for which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are adapted, and the true reason why they cure the worst cases of stomach trouble.

Eat a sufficient amount of wholesome food and after each meal take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to promptly digest it.

In this way the system is nourished and the overworked stomach rested, because the tablets will digest the food whether the stomach works or not, one grain of the active digestive principle of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets being sufficient to digest 3,000 grains of meat, eggs or other albuminous food.

Dr. Harlandson and Dr. Redwell recommend these tablets in all cases of defective digestion because the pepsin and diastase in them are absolutely free from animal matter and other impurities, and being pleasant to the taste are as safe and harmless for the child as for the adult.

All drug stores sell this excellent preparation, and the daily use of them after meals will be of great benefit, not only as an immediate relief, but to permanently build up and invigorate the digestive organs.

THREE EASY VICTIMS

"Big Mitt" Men Find Abundant Material to Work On.

Charles Helberg and Gustave Erickson, two Beltrami county farmers, who came to Minneapolis yesterday for the purpose of purchasing tickets to Sweden, were accosted to their own stories, the victims of "big mitt" men. They say they were looking for a steamship ticket office when they fell in with a stranger who offered them a ticket to Sweden for $300.

The stranger escorted them up Hennepin avenue to the Lumber Exchange building and took their money—$300 from each—and went inside to buy the tickets for them. The men waited outside for some time and the stranger failing to reappear, they started to search for him, but without success.

Another man was victimized in front of the Chamber of Commerce. A stranger borrowed $10 from him "to buy a ticket," and stepped inside the chamber, telling the man he would return immediately. After waiting some time the loafer of the $10 went in to find the borrower, but could not find George Lind, the manager of the Western Union Telegraph office in the building, had a difficult job making the countryman understand that he had been victimized.

WHISKERS ON IT

An 11-year-Old Money Order Presented for Payment.

Superintendent Fleu of the money order department of the postoffice had an experience this morning in being asked to cash a money order for $300 eleven years old. It was issued in 1891, and has since been held by order of the judge of an Iowa court pending the settlement of litigation.

The department allows the payment of money orders over the local counter within a year of issue; at a later date it is necessary to make application for a warrant on the order department at Washington, D. C. This action was taken today in the case mentioned. Although it is specified that orders are payable only within a year, the fact is that they are always good upon application for warrant if claim is proved.

NEW THING FOR BUFFALO

The Patrol Limit System in Use Here.

The ministers and police of Buffalo have reached an amicable understanding, by which disorderly houses are to be restricted to certain limits and all thoroughfares kept free from the vicious element.

The New York papers call the plan the war in the streets. This William Wilkinson of this city, in a letter to the New York Evening Post, sets them right, declaring that Minneapolis has had the same plan in effect for twenty years.

Under the name of the patrol limits, Mr. Wilkinson says a man can walk the streets a year and have no solicitations to evil if he is not looking for it. This, however, would hardly apply to the conditions there, though, of course, this is not the fault of the system.
