attendant horrors, humiliation and suffering. This is a strange legacy to leave to posterity; a heavy burden to place upon the shoulders of the young.

This treacherous disease dwarfs the body and hinders the growth and development of the faculties, and the child born of blood poison, or scrofula-tainted parentage, is poorly equipped for life's duties. Scrofula is a disease with numerous and varied symptoms; enlarged glands or tumors about the neck and armpits, catarrh of the head, weak eyes and dreadful skin eruptions upon different parts of the body show the presence of tubercular or scrofulous matter in the blood. This dangerous and stealthy disease entrenches itself securely in the system and attacks the bones and tissues, destroys the red corpuscles of the blood, resulting in white swelling, a pallid, waxy appearance of the skin, loss of strength and a gradual wasting away of the body.

S. S. S. combines both purifying and tonic properties, and is guaranteed entirely vegetable, making it the ideal remedy in all scrofulous affections. It purifies the deteriorated blood, makes it rich and strong and a complete and permanent cure is soon effected. S. S. S. improves the digestion and assimilation of food, restores the lost properties to the blood and quickens the circulation, bringing a healthy color to the skin and vigor to the weak and emaciated body.

CIVIL SERVICE QUERY

ABOUT SOCIAL SECRETARIES

Should the Government Compensat Clerks for Services for Wives of Cabinet Members?

New York Sun Special Service

Washington, March 26.—Civil service re-ormers have discovered what they believe to oe a flagrant evasion of the law Miss Isahe partment as a clerk at $840 per annum. She s detailed away from her desk to serve as the social private secretary for Mrs. Roose velt and Mrs. Root.

The reformers to whose attention this case has been called say that it might be proper and legal to detail Miss Hagner as the secretary to Mrs. Roosevelt, but they ask what warrant of law exists to supply her services in a similar capacity for the wife of the sec etary of war. This has been a delicate point for the other wives of the cabinet members for some time past. These women compensate their per sonal secretaries from their private income and there is a disposition to question why Mrs. Root does not do likewise.

The women who have recently joined the cabinet set have been asking embarrassing questions as to whether a clerk from the departments presided over by their husbands could not attend to their correspondence and other social matters. It is reliably state that the secretary of war will soon be approached on this subject by several legislators who desire to fulfil the letter of the law along civil service reform.

The art of successfully fulfilling the duties of private secretary is one that appeals to many women who have incurred co expense fitting themselves for this work These women resent the fact that Miss Hag-ner fills two such important posts on such a meager salary, and they have brought their grisvances to the attention of some senator and representatives who will investigate.

OVERZEAL IN PUBLIC EFFORT

This Should Be Avoided, Likewise the Other Extreme. Mrs. James K. Hosmer of Minneapolis ad-

in answer to the question, "How far is public "Spare yourselves," said Mrs. Hosmer, "from over zeal in public work. The most able among us are too heavily laden and are showing signs of too great stress in life. We must remember our duty to our families. Every child born into the world has a right to a good home.

"There is no moral law more stringent tha this, and there is no more evident duty than that which causes women to refuse to allow themselves to become nervous wrecks through over zeal in public effort. On the other hand, capable women must not confine themselves to their own firesides.

find themselves equal to deciding all civic questions; they need our council and ask it. Let us accept the situation that a large proportion of men are absorbed in the immense competition for business existence and that we must know something of the grave problems that confront the country."

Mrs. Hosmer urged the women present to take up the servant guirl question and throttle it, not by scolding or blaming Bridget or Olga because she knows little, but, by helping her to know better, gaining ultimate peace and happiness.

Mrs. James E. Woodford of Minneapolis discussed "The Early Christian and Modern Liberals," showing the direct evolution of one from the other and the similarity between the teachings of Jesus and the teachings of modern liberalism. Mrs. Marion D. Shutter of Minneapolis presided and the following ladies reported from their respective churches: Mrs. James K. Hosmer, First Unitarian, Minneapolis; Mrs James C. Function for Mrs. Burdette. After fuller consideration, the women interested in the luncheon planned for Mrs. Robert J. Burdette on Saturday have decided that it is wiser to abandon this plan. In order to prevent it interfering with the district meeting arranged for 2:30 in the afternoon, it would be necessary to have it very early, and, with the district meeting and re-ception to follow, it was felt this would make too long and arduous a day both for the guest of honor and the club presidents, several of whom are busily occupied with the arrangements for the reception.

Had Mrs. Burdette's visit fallen at any other time than during Holy Week, it would have been possible to arrange social func-tions for Friday; but Good Friday being a day generally observed by church people, it was thought unbecoming to entertain on that day. and Mrs. Burdette will arrive in the city Friday morning and will be at the West hotel, where Mrs. Burdette will undoubtedly be glad to receive club women who may wish
