CARRIED IN SKIFFS. Transfer Over Two Miles of Water at McKenzie. A MILLIONAIRE TURNS A TRICK. He Charters Special Trains and Takes to a Boat to Keep a Chicago Date.

Special to The Journal. Bismarck, N. D., March 28.—Northern Pacific officials are making a transfer of passengers across two miles of over-flooded tracks at McKenzie with small skiffs and the transfer will probably take the entire day. The water is still rising slightly and several bridges have been lifted up. Tracks are badly twisted and the road bed was washed out in many places.

A millionaire named Noonan from the Pacific coast chartered a special train last night and was transferred by skiff across the water and met by a special train on the east side of the overflooded lands. He had half a million dollar deal on at Chicago and Saturday was the day set for its consummation.

A passenger train with hundreds of eastbound passengers was taken to McKenzie this morning, and the passengers are being rowed across the slough, the boats returning with passengers from the westbound train.

HOMES ABANDONED. Portions of Minot Are in Danger of a Flood. Special to The Journal. Minot, N. D., March 28.—The ice on the Mouse river is breaking up and the water is now several feet above high water mark. The bridges are in danger of being washed away, and a few homes along the river bank have been abandoned. The water in the Mouse is higher than it has been for years, and a portion of the city is in danger of being flooded.

LOWLANDS FLOODED. Families Along Forest River Are Entirely Surrounded. Special to The Journal. Minot, N. D., March 28.—Minot people living on the east side adjacent to Forest river are experiencing a stage of high water. Several families living near the park are completely surrounded. The snow fall and the rain have caused the coles to fill up and owing to the river not being open the water has spread over the flats and low places.

GRAFTON INUNDATED. Northern and Eastern Part of Town Under Water. Special to The Journal. Grafton, N. D., March 28.—Park river is out of its banks and has risen three feet since last night. The entire northern and eastern part of the city is flooded. Coltruman's first residence is entirely surrounded. Many bridges have gone out and much suffering will result if the river rises much higher. The water is as high as in 1897.

HITS PIANO ON WAGER. PLAYS 27 HOURS CONTINUOUSLY. French Musician Undergoes an Unheard-of Strain, but Wins His Thousand Francs.

New York Sun Special Service. Marseilles, March 28.—M. Garnier, a pianist, undertakes to play a piano in a cafe for twenty-seven hours, with intervals not exceeding in the aggregate an hour and a half, for a wager of 1,000 francs. He began at 12 o'clock Monday night. He took his first rest at 2 o'clock yesterday, and thereafter had only three short rests until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, when his fingers became cramped. Massage and champagne were resorted to, and the pianist reactivated the keyboard. During the evening his face was drawn, his hands swollen, and his arms supported on cushions. When he stopped at midnight, having won the wager with fourteen minutes to spare, he collapsed from nervous prostration.

THE HOUSING PROBLEM. House Agent—Have you any children? House Hunter—Yes; but they are very quiet and well behaved. House Agent—Oh, but I mean have you any children living, mas'am?

COFFEE PHILOSOPHY. Don't Blame the Doctor. The most dangerous false friend is the one that under the guise of friendship, day by day insinuates himself into your good graces and takes advantage of the association to do you harm; that is exactly the point of coffee. It enters your system under the guise of a warm, close friend and slowly, day by day, works away at your destruction.

WHY THIS SHOULD BE NO ONE CAN SAY, BUT IT IS A FACT, NEVERTHELESS. Hundreds of thousands are testifying of the terrible straits that coffee drinking has led them into.

IN CLEARER MOMENTS we know that health, bounding, perfect health brings with it the pulse of nerve and clearness of mind that make us kings instead of slaves, and brings a heaven on earth to us.

Through the very perversity of mankind, showing the elements of a tangible demon, we persist in taking the poison and stomach the false friend even after we know it is working to throw us out of the peaceful heaven of health, and set up within us the condition of disease that the nerves show variously in dyspepsia, heart trouble, kidney trouble, etc., etc.

The patient physician who has, for years, been explaining to different people under his care the powerful effects of coffee on highly organized persons, finally becomes a bit careless and feels that he can only point out the facts and then let patients go their own path. Their very perversity will make of them slaves, and they follow the habit with the blind, dogged fatalism that cannot be understood.

Coffee "soaks" them certain and sure, and when they are hit hard enough they finally come around to the point where they are forced to give it up, then Postum Food Coffee comes as a relief in the time of desperate trouble. It requires no effort to slip off coffee drinking for Postum Food Coffee, and the change in health is something miraculous in many cases.

HENDERSON'S OPPONENT FOR NOMINATION

C. B. COURTWRIGHT

State Senator O. B. Courtwright, of Waterloo, Iowa, has begun a campaign for the republican nomination for congress in Speaker Henderson's district. He is making his fight on the speaker's tariff policy, and believes the unpopularity of Henderson's position is wide enough in the district to deprive him of re-nomination. It is the first time since he was first elected in 1882 that Henderson has had any opposition in his own party.

MAJORITY AGAINST

Iowa Railway Bill Recommended for Indefinite Postponement

THE REFORM FORCES SCATTER

No Effort Likely to be Made to Over-ride Governor's Veto of the Merger Bill.

Special to The Journal. Des Moines, Iowa, March 28.—The house today passed a bill to amend the act of 1897 to provide for the railroad assessment bill for indefinite postponement. The railroad lobby was busy up to the moment of the meeting of the committee in the efforts to force hesitating members into line against the bill. There will be a minority report in favor of it, however, and thus the test of strength on the floor of the house. Covles of Kosuth, Larrabee of Fayette, Hughes of Iowa, Whiting of Monona and Kendall of Monroe will sign the minority report. Several members elected on reform platforms in the Cummins movement voted against the bill.

The house pardon committee has voted 11 to 8 against granting a pardon to Wesley Elkins, the Clayton county boy, now in Anamosa prison for the murder of his parents. It was a minority report in favor of a pardon.

The house has passed the bill providing for the commitment, detention and care of inebriates, dipomaniacs and those addicted to the excessive use of narcotics in one or more of the state institutions for the insane.

Tax Ferrets Escape. The anti-tax ferret bill has been passed by the house but in a form so much amended as to take the life out of it. It will modify the law but little and restrict the tax ferrets in no great degree. The most important provisions of the bill are none provided for twenty days' notice to persons on whom demand is made for taxes on property withheld from assessment and for appeal to the district court.

WORK OF CHRISTMAS

Danish Commissioner, Not Santa Claus, Referred To. FULL NAME MOST FORMIDABLE

Note of Identification From Secretary Hay That Netted Us the Danish West Indies.

New York Sun Special Service. Washington, March 28.—In view of the action of the house in directing an inquiry into the statements made in the reports of Walter Christmas to the Danish government, officials of the state department declined to make any comment. The department will at once begin the collection of all communications relating to Christmas and the Danish West Indian transfer negotiations and will have copies prepared for the investigating committee.

Christmas, whose full name is Walter Christmas-Direcknick-Holmfeldt, was an officer of the Danish navy, who, according to his own admissions, was dismissed in disgrace from that service. He came to Washington in October, 1899, and it was announced at the time that his purpose was to negotiate with the Danish Antilles to the United States. His statement that he called on Secretary Hay and endeavored to interest him in his mission is true. He told Mr. Hay that he had no official connection with the Danish government, but was in a position through a friend in the ministry at Copenhagen to bring about the resumption of negotiations and the ultimate sale of the islands to the United States. Mr. Hay declined to deal with any person not an accredited representative of Denmark.

Subsequently Christmas, secured from Mr. Hay a note of identification to the American embassy in London and on the 17th of the month he sailed for London. The first secretary of the embassy, was sent to Copenhagen by Secretary Hay to make inquiries as to whether Christmas was the representative of the Danish government. According to the information obtained here Mr. White was met in Copenhagen by Christmas, who accompanied him to the Danish ministry, but was not present at Mr. White's interview with the minister of foreign affairs.

The understanding here is that Christmas merely the door-keeper of the minister's office with Mr. White. The inquiries which Mr. White made resulted in the initiation of official negotiations with the Danish government. The negotiations culminated in the treaty signed in Washington by which Denmark agreed to sell the islands for $5,000,000.

REPUTATED. Christmas' Attorney Washes His Hands of the Whole Affair. New York, March 28.—Carl Fischer-Hansen of the city, who was attorney for Walter Christmas, the representative of the Danish government in the overtures for the purchase of the Danish West Indian islands in 1900, was indignant at the conduct of his client shown in his secret report to the Danish ministry.

"Ordinarily, legal etiquette," said he, "would prevent my speaking of this report, but I feel that it is my duty to do so. I feel justified in washing my hands of the whole affair."

Mr. Fischer-Hansen described the course of his Danish representative as it appeared to him. Christmas conducted Secretary White of the American embassy to London and to Copenhagen. The lawyer at that point his services ended. The negotiations from then on were carried forward by the Danish minister and the Danish minister at Washington. This report was evidently made with the belief that it could never see the light, but its publication has shown its absurdity. It is a waste of money to put up an expensive building. It is a waste of money when it is to be used such a short time."

Mr. Bernard knows whereof he speaks, for he caught the Danish minister at Buffalo, including Minnesota. He bought them for speculation, selling the lumber after tearing them down. The Ohio building, which was bought for $450,000. He endorsed a suggestion made by the Dairy Commissioner McConnell this morning, that a Minnesota architect and a crew of Minnesota workmen be sent down to build a new building for the dairy. This will obviate paying extortionate prices for the work, and make the building in a double sense, "Minnesota."

The hot news of St. Louis are not going to make the mistake they did at Buffalo," said Mr. Bernard. "I talked with them, and they said there had been no suggestion of raising their prices. They realize that it keeps people away."

TRAINED NURSE CURED BY SWAMP-ROOT.

Used by Hospitals—Prescribed by Doctors. To Prove What this Wonderful Remedy will do for YOU, Every Reader of The Minneapolis Journal May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Free by Mail.

MISS ALICE BROWN.

Miss Alice Brown, the well-known trained nurse, is in a position to speak with knowledge. She was formerly with the St. Louis Baptist Hospital and has had many trying experiences in her arduous vocation. She adds her valuable testimony to the thousands already received by Swamp-Root. She said in a signed interview with a Reporter of the St. Louis Star: "Although a woman in my position can receive plenty of prescriptions from physicians without cost, it was upon the advice of a well-known West End Doctor that I began to take Swamp-Root. No, I will not tell you his name, for he might not like it. But all the same, I took it when I was run down from night work in the sick room. I was thin and yellow and tired even when I rose from my sleep. Swamp-Root gave me a relish for my food and cleared my blood from its stagnant impurities. Of course I do not praise Swamp-Root as a cure for all troubles, but it is splendid for the kidneys, stomach and bowels and relieves female disorders when all other remedies have failed to give relief. I know of many cases in the hospital cured by this wonderful remedy."

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, therefore, when through neglect or other causes, kidney trouble is permitted to continue, fatal results are sure to follow.

We often see a relative, a friend, or an acquaintance apparently well, but in a few days they may be gripped to learn of their severe illness, or sudden death, caused by that fatal type of kidney trouble—Bright's Disease.

This mild and extraordinary effect of the great kidney and bladder remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Hospitals use it with wonderful success in both slight and severe cases. Doctors recommend it to their patients and use it in their own families, because they recognize in Swamp-Root the greatest and most successful remedy. A trial will convince anyone—and you may have a sample bottle sent free, by mail.

SPECIAL NOTE—If you have the slightest symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble, or if there is a trace of it in your family history, send at once to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., who will gladly send you by mail, immediately, without cost to you, a sample bottle of Swamp-Root and a book telling about Swamp-Root and containing many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured. In writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to say that you read this generous offer in The Minneapolis Journal.

If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at the drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
