HORRID AND YULGAR

Crusade Against "Hello" as 'Phone Conversation Opener.

APPLETON, WIS., WOMEN LED OFF

Now Evanston Would Steat Their Thunder - "Yes" and "Good Morning" as Substitutes.

Special to The Journal.

Appleton, Wis., March 31.—Several prominent women of Appleton have decreed tha the word "hello," which has been universally used as a conversation opener over the tele phone since that instrument was invented, i vulgar, and a crusade for its abolition wa quietly begun several weeks ago. Since that time the same idea has occurred to the women of Evanston, Ill. The Appleton movement, however, was on foot first, and the efforts of Evanston in the same direction, commendable as they may be, must not be permitted to vershadow the fact that Appleton ladies are the pioneers.

The only difference in opinion between Appleton and Evanston ladies is as to the proper substitute for the word "hello," which both agree is horrid and vulgar. The Appleton agree is horrid and vulgar. The Appleton studio on Sixth street was attended by about ladies prefer "Good morning," or "How do fifty members and their friends and the oc-

Sioux City, Iowa, March 31.—A telegram from Marion, Ind., to-day announced the wedding at 10 o'clock this morning of W. Roy Ronald of this city, and Miss Ethel Ione Bowman of Mraion. Mr. Ronald is a member of the repretorial staff of the Sioux City Tribune and a well-known newspaper correspondent. His bride is the daughter of Professor S. S. Bowman, one of the eminent educators of Indiana. Leading periodicals have published poems from her pen and she is on the program of the annual meeting at Winona Lake, Ind., of the Western Writers' association, of which she is a member. Finley, N.
