General S. B. M. Young is likely to succeed General Brooke, and General Chaffee's promotion will follow two years hence.

The United States enjoys more of Canadian custom than the rest of the world put together. In 1898 Great Britain lost to the United States her lead in the matter of goods sent into the Dominion, and from that year forward, with but a slight interval, this country has steadily lengthened the gap. Canada is the best customer the United States has, excepting only Great Britain and Germany, says Consul General Bittinger, at Montreal.
