THE WIDELY KNOWN SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE IN THE CLEVELAND CABINET WHO DIED YESTERDAY

SOL SMITH RUSSELL DEAD The Famous Actor, So Well Known Locally, Passes Away To-day.

Special to The Journal. Washington, April 28.—Sol Smith Russell, so well known everywhere as an actor, died here at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

HIS HOME HERE Mr. Russell a Large Owner of Minneapolis Realty.

Sol Smith Russell was a brother of the late Judge Robert D. Russell of this city. His own home, so far as a man in his profession can be said to have a home, was on First avenue S., adjoining his brother's residence, at Sixteenth street.

An extensive owner of Minneapolis real estate, Mr. Russell always expressed faith in its value, even during the hard times when property could be bought almost for a song.

Recently he was in Minneapolis a complimentary banquet was tendered to Mr. Russell by a number of his friends at the Minneapolis club.

Mr. Russell's illness first became serious more than two years ago. He was playing "The Hon. John Grigsby" in Chicago, when he began to mumble and hesitate in his lines. It was obvious that something was wrong and the curtain was rung down just in time to conceal from the audience the fact that the star had fainted dead away.

Robert Russell, his son, left Minneapolis for Washington yesterday.

Success Came Only After Years of Hard Work.

One of the latest extended interviews with Mr. Russell was published shortly before the appearance of the protracted malady which finally resulted in his death. This interview is republished here

NAVAL STATION Cities on the Great Lakes After the New Location to Be Selected Soon.

From The Journal Bureau, Room 45, Post Building, Washington.

Washington, April 28.—The naval appropriation bill, reported to the house today, provides for the location of a naval station on the great lakes. It authorizes the secretary of the navy to appoint a board composed of naval officers, whose duty it shall be to recommend a suitable site for a naval training station on the shores of the great lakes, or waters connected therewith, and having recommended a site, if upon private lands, to estimate its value and ascertain as nearly as practicable the cost for which it can be acquired.

Rivalry for a location of this training station is already very vigorous. Buffalo, Cleveland, Toledo and other cities on Lake Erie, and Chicago and other cities on Lake Michigan have already begun to agitate the question. It seems to be settled that the board will choose a site on one of these lakes, near a large city.

Dr. Potter Wins Out. Representative Burke has secured the appointment of Dr. George W. Potter as pension examining surgeon at Renfield, S. D. He recommended Dr. Potter some time ago, but the appointment was held up because he had not had five years practice. Mr. Burke then had the entire delegation endorse Dr. Potter and, after a personal interview with Commissioner Evans, the commission was made out.

A LABOR WAR The Shaffer-Gompers Affair in the Amalgamated Is Smouldering.

Wheeling, W. Va., April 28.—The Amalgamated association got down to real business today. The wage committee was the first to report. The opponents of the new policy of signing scales will express disapproval and this is where the minority report of the wage committee will come in. The report will probably be endorsed.

The argument in favor of the scales of the scales is that it removes the possibility of strife for another year. The scales were signed by the regularly organized committees and that the mill-owners were fully informed that it was a recognition of the scales depended upon by the convention. At the same time it seems that the faith of the conference committee is pledged to the manufacturers that the scales will be endorsed.

One reason for the advance signing of the scales is that it removes the possibility of strife for another year. The scales were signed by the regularly organized committees and that the mill-owners were fully informed that it was a recognition of the scales depended upon by the convention. At the same time it seems that the faith of the conference committee is pledged to the manufacturers that the scales will be endorsed.

The Shaffer-Gompers Quarrel. The imminence of another quarrel between the two foremost giants of labor—Shaffer and Gompers—continues to be the topic of conversation. More startling developments are expected this week, and it is possible that the matter may assume proportions that will make it the sensation of the convention.

Local Federation of Labor leaders and the anti-Shaffer faction are rallying around the Gompers standard. If Gompers demands a personal hearing before the Amalgamation it will probably be the most exciting incident in the history of the organization.

President Shaffer's adherents are not mincing words in their denunciation of National Organizer Flynn's coming and the Gompers action in sending him here. They say Gompers had no right to depend on unofficial newspaper reports of Shaffer's address, and that Flynn is imprudent in thinking he could get a hearing.
