

NEW BUTTER LAWS ANNOYED AT SHAW

Exactly What Congress Has Done to the Product.

London Globe Dislikes His Prediction of Saturday.

CHAS. Y. KNIGHT'S SUMMARY REGARDING LOSS OF TRADE

The Pressure on Renovated Butter Is Not So Severe as at First Represented.

That Paper Considers It Both a Threat and a Piece of Crude Vulgarity.

From The Journal Bureau, Room 45, Post Building, Washington.

Washington, April 28.—The oleo bill has finally passed both houses. The public will be interested in the language used, just what the new legislation means. Charles Y. Knight of Chicago, secretary of the National Dairy association, who has been in Washington for several months, representing the association in advocacy of the bill, said: "There has been a great deal of misapprehension regarding the provisions of the oleo bill, inasmuch as their original was not known. What are called the Harris amendments—the amendments made in the senate—were prepared by the oleo men. First, there was a demand upon the part of congress that while oleomargarin was being treated for fraud purposes, renovated butter, also accused of being fraudulently sold, should have some distinguishing mark. Renovated butter had been described by the opponents of the bill as being made of the most unwholesome material, and which worked over and melted, and deodorized by the use of chemicals and acids. So thoroughly had this idea become fixed in the minds of congress that we saw that in the very near future the same idea would pervade the public mind, and unless something were done to head it off, the public would be suspicious of oleomargarin to be sold in its uncolored state, and it could no longer masquerade as butter. The makers would use the arguments against butter that were advanced before congress and convince the public that the whole article would be through the purchase of oleomargarin, "made under the supervision of the government," an expression and claim which sugar-coated the tax which the government had imposed upon oleomargarin for regulatory purposes.

London, April 28.—The speech of the United States secretary of the treasury, Mr. Shaw, at Pittsburg at the banquet in celebration of the late General Grant's birthday, has thus far passed unnoticed by the London press with the exception of the Globe, which is exceedingly wrathful at such a presentation "tickling the ears of the groundlings with a speech full of menace to America's only friend among the powers of Europe." After quoting the speech the Globe continues: "We are not greatly concerned either for the threat or the crude vulgarity which causes Mr. Shaw to apply to a particular power; but what impresses us with a sense of American decadence is the manner in which the absurd speech was received. Were an English minister of Mr. Shaw's position to make a similar allusion to a foreign power all the chancelleries of Europe would be convulsed. But England heeds it not a whit, and the rest of the world shrugs its shoulders."

The part of the speech which is offensive to the London Globe is the following: "Start two ships of equal speed from Liverpool, going to our Pacific coast, one through the Suez canal and the other by Cape Horn, and two vessels of the same speed from New York, one going westward and the other eastward, and both English vessels will reach their destination before either of ours. Cut the isthmian canal and it is nearer from New York to Hongkong, via Nicaragua, than from Liverpool to the same point, via the Suez."

Gentlemen, we must have the largest merchant fleet ever kitted by ocean breezes, and these carriers of international commerce must be built of American material, in American yards, by American labor. They are to be manned by American sailors, fired by American coal, or more probably oil, and they are to front the stars and stripes, whether they will be accomplished through the direct aid or by American patriotism and by American energy, I cannot say. Whether this consummation shall be contributed to by statesmen or achieved by financiers is immaterial compared with the importance of the thing itself. American wealth, American energy, plus Hawaii, which is ours; plus the Philippine islands, for the purpose of getting the isthmian canal, which will surely construct; plus a merchant marine, which we will surely build, transfers the sovereignty of the Pacific from the union jack to the stars and stripes."

BOERS WILL NOT GIVE UP

PEACE BY NO MEANS IN SIGHT

Late Chaplain of the Transvaal Congress Addresses an Enthusiastic Milwaukee Meeting.

Special to The Journal. Milwaukee, April 28.—"All this talk about peace in South Africa is manufactured for the purpose of getting recruits and money in England. It will end with the Boers fighting harder than ever. We will fight on to the happy end for the liberty of all South Africa, and you will live to see it free under its own flag." So said the Rev. Herman D. Van Broekhusen, late chaplain of the Transvaal congress, in closing an address at the mass meeting held in the Exposition building, under the auspices of the Transvaal league. He denounced in numerous terms the adoption of the system of boycotting the Transvaal for the detention of women and children. The cruelties practiced upon women and children in these camps, he declared, had made it an impossibility in South Africa and he called upon those present to rise up and demand of congress and President Roosevelt that they notify Great Britain that this phase of the war must be discontinued under its own flag. When resolutions embodying this demand were presented by Rev. Reukena they were adopted without a dissenting voice.

JURY BRIBERS

Seven Men Indicted for Conspiracy in Chicago.

Chicago, April 28.—Indictments for conspiracy in relation to the jury bribery scandal in the transfer warfare in Justice Woods' court against the Union Traction company and against James T. Brady, his law partner. The other men indicted are: John O'Donnell, brother to P. P. O'Donnell and special agent in the traction cases; Sam T. Lawrence, member of the jury which decided a transfer in favor of the traction company in three minutes; Herbert Rothery, ventrimean, called for jury service in Justice Woods' court and excused; William Gallagher, promoter; Cyrus Simon, an alleged "go-between" in the selection of jurors. Bills were also returned against the following named men for conspiracy, although they are not named as defendants and will only serve as state's witnesses: Homer Michaels, juror; W. F. Sheridan, juror; Clark Rolfe, juror; Walter C. Jones, constable.

RIOTOUS RUSSIANS

About 15,000 Peasants Are Causing No End of Trouble.

St. Petersburg, April 28.—The peasants in the Paltava and Kharkov provinces, where 15,000 are reported to be participating in riots, have already sacked eighty estates, where they destroyed everything they could not carry off. The whole region is terrorized and land owners and stewards are fleeing for safety. The fear is increasing that Kharkov and other towns will be attacked. Some of the authorities are showing weakness and pusillanimity, while others are cruelly vigorous and are causing wholesale floggings of persons arrested. The agitation at Moscow is so serious that the czar has relinquished his intention of attending the Russian Easter there.

MINNESOTA POLITICS

PANIC IN THE EDDY CAMP. Panic has struck the followers of Frank M. Eddy. There are rumors of withdrawal in favor of the traction company in three minutes; Herbert Rothery, ventrimean, called for jury service in Justice Woods' court and excused; William Gallagher, promoter; Cyrus Simon, an alleged "go-between" in the selection of jurors. Bills were also returned against the following named men for conspiracy, although they are not named as defendants and will only serve as state's witnesses: Homer Michaels, juror; W. F. some strong statements concerning the character of the contract under which Eddy was getting settlers. The Pope county man took up these charges and gave them general circulation among his people in the district by this letter. The charges are to the effect that Mr. Eddy has been engaging men for the industries at the Canadian "Soo" on terms that would not be permitted under our contract labor law. It is said that the men brought over by him are under contract at low wages and long hours for three years, and that of the arrangement was denounced by the Christiania papers as little better than a condition of slavery during the life of the contract. The charges are probably somewhat exaggerated, as Mr. Eddy seems to have had no difficulty in getting all the men wanted. Five hundred have arrived and it is understood that 2,000 more are coming. The people of Scandinavia are not so ignorant of conditions in this country nor so impelled by necessity to emigrate that they can be expected to accept particularly unfavorable terms of settlement in Canada.

C. C. McCarthy. An attempt was made to bring Carl E. Taylor, but that gentleman declined in the interests of party harmony. Whatever plot is hatched to cut Fred C. Stevens from congress, the people of Stillwater will have to be reckoned with. Since the congressman got $50,000 for Stillwater's federal building, there is nothing too good for him in the prison city. The Gazette suggests that the people of the city signify their gratitude in some way while Mr. Stevens is home this week. Colonel G. B. Ward of Alexandria, who was one of the strongest and most respected members of the late house, will probably succeed C. P. Reeves of Greenwood in the senate. The senator is understood not to be a candidate for another term, which gives the senatorship to Douglas county, and the republicans of that county seem disposed to honor Colonel Ward. While in the city Saturday he said he had not definitely made up his mind to be a candidate.

BLOW TO GOVERNMENT

Paris Did Not Elect a Single Ministerialist Yesterday. Paris, April 28.—Yesterday the first ballot of the French national elections took place. For 600 vacancies 2,500 candidates came forward. Reports last night showed that 147 ministerialists and 147 anti-ministerialists have been elected to the chamber, and that rebalots will occur in 118 districts. Paris did not elect a single ministerialist to the chamber of deputies. Eight nationalists, six anti-ministerialist socialists, four anti-ministerialist republicans and three conservatives were returned. It was the worst defeat the government has ever sustained in Paris. The ministerialists lost four seats and another new constituency was won by the nationalists. The nationalist, however, received a severe check in Algiers, where M. Drumont, anti-Semite, was turned out by a majority of 900. Among the prominent deputies re-elected to the chamber are Count Boni de Castellane (progressist), M. Ribot (republican), M. Meligne (progressist), and M. De Lanessan (radical). M. Millerand (radical socialist), who stood for re-election in one of the districts of the first ballot, his nationalist opponent running him close throughout. If the votes recorded by the anti-ministerialists and the socialists are transferred to M.
