STUDY CLUBS ELECT

Officers Chosen in Three Leading Literary Clubs.

END OF SEASON APPROACHING

Social Occasions Mixed With Business by Columbian and Chicago Avenue Clubs.

The club elected its officers for the coming year at a meeting held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. S. Mathewson on Portland avenue. Mrs. Mathewson was chosen president; Mrs. F. B. Kremer, vice-president; Mrs. J. A. Crosby, secretary; Mrs. Charles Cottrell, treasurer; Mrs. H. C. Dudley, historian; Mrs. H. O. Durkee, Mrs. C. J. Traxler, critics; Mrs. C. A. Buckman, Charles G. Van Wert and Miss Shove, literary directors. The reports of the year's work were read by the officers and Mrs. T. K. Gray, historian, gave a witty resume of the social affairs of the year. Light refreshments were served and a social hour followed the transaction of business. The annual Anaphoretic will be held Friday evening, May 9, at the home of Mrs. C. M. Pond.

The annual meeting of the Columbian club was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. L. W. Gannon on Girard avenue. The club has been studying United States history the past year and will continue the study for another season, and the decorations and appointments were all in red, white and blue. Flags were hung through the rooms and in the dining-room red and white tulips were in the center of the table, which was crossed by blue satin ribbons. The buffet luncheon at 12 o'clock was followed by a social hour. Later the annual business was transacted. Mrs. E. W. Gould was chosen president; Mrs. W. P. Shattuck, vice-president; Mrs. W. O. Timmerman, secretary; Mrs. C. B. Austin, treasurer; Mrs. G. B. Willett, federation secretary; delegates to the federation, Mrs. Willett and Shattuck; social committee, Mrs. J. N. Elson, Landers and Hanke.

The Chicago Avenue literary club held its annual meeting yesterday with Mrs. F. A. Knight of Chicago avenue. A picnic luncheon preceded the transaction of the annual business. The rooms were bright with clusters of pink and white carnations presented by a former member of the club. The officers were laid for twenty and after luncheon Mrs. Eugenia Wheeler Goff read an original poem by Henry Slade Goff. Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Yara Bates; vice-presidents, Mrs. Lizette Canterbury and Lillian Watson; secretary, Mrs. Ranney; treasurer, Mrs. Atwood; critics, Mrs. May Lee Blye and Lizzie Hubbell; program committee,

MORNING NUPTIALS

Farr-Scallen Wedding Solemnized in Holy Rosary Church.

LUNCHEON FOR A COLONIAL DAME

Mrs. Craven, President of the N. J. Society, is Receiving Many Social Attentions.

The marriage of Miss Beatrice Scallen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scallen, and Dr. Robert Emmet Farr, was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock this morning in Holy Rosary church. Pals and Easter lilies were arranged about the altar. Mr. Babcock was at the organ and played the "Lohengrin" bridal chorus and processional. The Mendelssohn march as the bridal couple left the church. Mrs. Nellie Monahan sang Gounod's "Adore and Be Still" during the service, and the second couple was bright with pink and white carnations and ferns. White tulips were in the library, palms in the hall and American Beauty roses in the dining-room.

This afternoon a reception was held from 2 until 4 o'clock and there were 200 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Farr were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Scallen and Mr. and Mrs. William Farr of Milwaukee, parents of the bridegroom. Mrs. Scallen wore black grenadine trimmed with lace. Frappe was served by Miss Courtney and Miss Nora Murphy and Mrs. John McLaughlin, Mrs. J. R. McLain presided in the dining-room.

Dr. and Mrs. Farr will leave on the evening train for the east. They will be at home after June 15 at 2821 Fourth avenue S. Mrs. Farr's traveling gown is of blue canvas cloth and she will wear a white and black hat. The guests from out of town are Mr. and Mrs. William Farr of Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Wray, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pratt of Montello, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Edmond of Chicago, Mr. Smith of Green Bay, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. Stockwell of Hudson, Wis.

Mrs. A. W. Hastings of Ninth avenue S. entertained informally at luncheon this afternoon for Mrs. Thomas J. Cravens of Salem, N. J. covers were white.

Mrs. Cravens is the state president of the Colonial Dames of New Jersey, and yesterday afternoon Mrs. James S. Bell of Park avenue gave an informal tea from 3 to 5 o'clock for the Colonial Dames of the Pink American Beauty roses, daffodils and jonquils decked the parlors and in the dining-room a low basket of daffodils, with a bow of white ribbon on the table, formed the centerpiece. Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Cravens were assisted in receiving by Mrs. George B. Young of St. Paul, state president. Assisting at the dinner were Mrs. Charles Letour, J. W. A. W. Hastings, W. H. Durkee, Mrs. J. W. Christian. There were forty guests.

Later in the week Mrs. George Porter will give a dinner for Mrs. Cravens, who is the guest of Mrs. Bell.

Mrs. W. C. Shull of Harmon place entertained eighty women at a buffet luncheon this afternoon. The hours were from 12:30 until 2 o'clock. The color scheme was red and American Beauty roses were used exclusively, with the palms and ferns through the rooms and on the table. Mrs. Shull was assisted by Mrs. Charles Letour, J. W. Griffin, Fowler, Morris, Bowman and Miss Carolyn Bailey.
