

A FROU-FROU WAIST OF CREPE DE CHINE. The most novel idea of the season is possibly the flounced and ruffled ideas which pervade the really newest gowns. The dainty edges of narrow velvet ribbon give the ruffles a bright and striking note and altogether enforce attention to the importance of such gowns in woman's wardrobe.

NEW DICTUMS OF FASHION

WHOLE COSTUMES ARE PREFERABLE TO SEPARATE WAISTS AND TUBBABLE GOWNS ARE THE SMARTEST THIS SUMMER.

The gorgeous separate evening and dinner waists are made of superb satin more silks, and some are like coats—that is to say, they have revers, tails and bottoms and are superbly arranged with artistic sleeves and applications of lace, and in many instances, additions of colored satin bands, embroidered flounces make wonderfully novel and becoming forms.

There has been a new introduction in the shirt-waist story that is most fascinating to the woman of this period of good taste, who has many opportunities to show it. Her civilization is a new civilization. It is one of many occasions. There is so much to do, so many places to go, so much traveling, so much visiting, so many occupations—golf, tennis, the summer season, visits, parties, evenings and multiplied conditions of life, into every one of which the question of clothes must enter.

DELICIOUS NEW VEGETABLES

Increased Supply of Home-Grown Snalds, Greens and Asparagous.

There is not much that is especially new in the market, but the array of home-grown vegetables is increasing fast, and this means that they are more abundant and cheap, and improved in quality. The new spinach is very nice, but it is still small, and it is quite an arduous task to pick it over. Both spinach and dandelion greens are 15 cents; best greens have just appeared this week and are the choicest offering of this kind, at 40 cents a peck. Tomatoes are coming down, and five-pound baskets of nice ones are selling for 50 cents; there are very large and fine-looking egg plants at 50 cents each and smaller ones at corresponding prices; leeks, which make a delicious and appetizing soup, are 25 cents a dozen; home-grown asparagus, 5 cents; wax and string beans, 15 cents a pound; peas, 5 cents a quart; cucumbers, 15 cents; chives, 5 cents; leaf lettuce, 2 cents; head lettuce, 5 cents; turnips, 6 cents; mushrooms, 4 cents; summer squash, 7 cents.

Rhubarb is abundant and cheap, selling in one shop for a cent a pound. Lemons are high, good ones bringing 20 cents a dozen; strawberries are fair at 15 cents a quart.

In fish and flesh there is little offered that is new, but many housewives are making valuable discoveries in their efforts to reduce their meat bills without interfering with the happiness of their families. Among the things that are inexpensive and make savory dishes are lamb's hearts and tongues at 25 cents a dozen; brains, 10 cents a pair; smoked egg, halibut, sturgeon, whitefish, hollers, herring, etc. Steaming veal at 5 cents a pound can be used to make a number of appetizing and nutritious dishes, and for cold meat a knuckle of veal will make a nice dish of jelly or pressed veal. Hamburg steak, veal and beef loaf are economical dishes, because there is no waste either in cooking or serving. Mink lamb has got down to a figure within the reach of ordinary pocketbooks, for use at least on special occasions, being 20 cents a pound for hindquarters and 15 cents for fore-quarters; turkeys are 18 cents; broilers, 25 cents; roasting chickens, 18 cents; whitefish and trout, 12 1/2 cents; roe shad, 70 cents; halibut, 19 cents; salmon, 20 cents.

Sunday Menu.
BREAKFAST
Broiled Yarmouth Bloaters, Creamed Potatoes, Dutch Pancakes, with Sugar or Maple Syrup, Coffee.

DINNER
Cream of Asparagus Soup, Roasted Chicken, Giblet Gravy, Currant Jelly, Stuffed Green Peppers, Tomato and Lettuce Salad, with Mayonnaise, Cheese Straws, Cake, Coffee.

SUPPER
Clams Newburg, or Creamed Salmon, California Chicken, Cold Chicken, Dutch Pancakes—Beat six eggs (whites and yolks) until very light. To this add one pint of sweet milk and a half-teaspoon of salt.

MEAN REMARK.
Somerville Journal.
Sometimes if the young man who has called for a girl who is going on upstairs while he is waiting for the young lady to come down, he would take his hat and go away at once.
