IN SUPREME COURT

One Phase of Robinson Will Case Argued To-day.

COMES FROM DODGE ON APPEAL Mrs. Raymond Won a Point Before Court Commissioner and Seeks to Retain It.

Special to The Journal. Mantorville, Minn., May 12.--Before the supreme court in St. Paul to-day is being argued the appeal from a decision of a Dodge county court commissioner in the widely celebrated Robinson will case.

The action started from the attempt of the guardians of Mrs. Robinson, who is a helpless paralytic, to remove her from this jurisdiction to the home of the adopted daughter, Mrs. Percy, at Galesburg, Ill., on Dec. 21, 1901. The intention of the guardians was kept secret and was not known to Mrs. Raymond, a daughter of Mrs. Robinson, until a few hours before the start for Illinois. Mrs. Raymond promptly advised her attorney and by sheer good luck in finding the necessary officials she managed to serve a writ of habeas corpus on the carry at the station at Kasson and prevent the removal of her mother.

At the first hearing before the court commissioner it was decided that Mrs. Robinson should be discharged from the custody of her guardians and that Mrs. Raymond should be permitted to see her and exercise a daughter's right in caring for her. This was appealed for, and in behalf of Mrs. Percy and an additional hearing was had before H. E. Leach, as referee at Mantorville for the purpose of taking and preserving evidence to submit at the hearing before the supreme court.

Senator Lord of Kasson, represents Mrs. Percy, and J. J. McCaughey, of this county and Edgerton, Charles & Wickwire of St. Paul appear for Mrs. Raymond.

GRIDIRON IN S. DAKOTA

THE MILWAUKEE IS HUSTLING Soo Extensions in Same Territory Will Help Twin Cities Against Chicago.

President Earling, of the Milwaukee road, inspected the lines in South Dakota last week and it is announced as a result of his visit that Milwaukee plans for gridironing the country along the Missouri river will be pushed to completion this year. The Tripp-Forming branch is to be extended to Platte, forming a junction with the Yorkton-Platte line. A new north and south line will be constructed by the extension of the Eureka-Orient line from the latter town south to Platte. This will complete the Milwaukee's network of lines in the cattle country of western South Dakota and the building of the Eureka line north will insure the Milwaukee of a fair share of the traffic in southern North Dakota near the Missouri river.

This activity by the Milwaukee system favors the Chicago market as against the twin cities. The Soo by its extension to the Missouri river will insure a portion of the cattle and distributing trade of that region for the twin city market. The Milwaukee's efforts in cattle traffic are in the interests of Chicago and the long haul for the Milwaukee road. The new line will parallel the river and run through the heart of the range country east of the Missouri.

Canadian Wheat Taxed.

England has found it necessary in order to raise more money for carrying on the war with the Boers to lay an import tax on wheat and flour that comes from her colonies. This hurts Canadian shippers for the time being, but it is predicted that when the tax is withdrawn from Canadian wheat it will be left on that coming from the United States, thus giving Canada a decided advantage. Of course the United States will still have the advantage derived from a regular use of Golden Grain Belt beer, which, though it may not raise the price of wheat, induces perfect health. As health is better than wealth we will still have the advantage over the Canadians.

Report on the Charges Against Major Bingenheimer.

IRRIGATION BILL STATUS

The Bill to Pay the Public Land States 5 Per Cent to Be Favorably Reported.

From The Journal Bureau, Room 45, Post Building, Washington.

Washington, May 13.--Inspector Nestor's report on the investigation of charges against Major Bingenheimer at Standing Rock has been received. As has been predicted by Major Bingenheimer's friends, Inspector Nestor reports that there was no proof to support the charges. The secretary is expected to issue the commission in a short time.

Howard Eaton of Madison, N. D., is in Washington on his annual visit. The senate committee on public lands to-day favorably reported the nomination of John Nelson to be receiver of land office at Wahpeton, N. D.

Friends of the irrigation bill in the house are making a canvass of the members preparatory to asking Speaker Henderson for a time for its consideration. Up to this time 136 members have expressed their intention of voting for it. It is expected that enough votes will be pledged to secure its passage.

The sub-committee in charge of the bill to pay the public land states five per cent of the proceeds of the sales of public lands to-day reported the bill favorably to the full senate committee on public lands. It is expected that the bill will be reported to the session of the committee and will probably be disposed of next Tuesday. There is little doubt that it will be reported favorably. The democratic party of the senate of its passage is remote. Eastern senators generally are opposed to it. The committee on the bill consists of Minnesota--Wright, Carlton county, D. C. Behrens. South Dakota--Vodnany, Bonhomme county, J. F. Janda. Wisconsin--Crosk, Eau Claire county, George McLellan. W. W. Jernama.

B.
