In Social Circles

Miss Estelle Hayward of 83 Spruce place entertained this afternoon at luncheon for Miss Ella King, a bride of the month. Covers were laid for twelve, and the decorations and appointments were in red and green. Carnations were in the center of the table and smilax and narrow ribbon strung with hearts were festooned from the chandelier to the corners. At Miss King's place was a doll dressed as a bride holding her name card. After luncheon Miss King was given a kitchen shower.

Last evening Curtis Broom gave a tallyho party for Miss King and Mr. Broom. After a drive around the city supper was served at the Berkeley. Pink carnations decked the table and clusters of the flowers designated the places of Miss King and Mr. Broom, while single blossoms were at the other covers. There were fifteen guests, and the name cards were embellished with sprigs.

Saturday evening the members of the bridal party will be entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Broom of Second avenue S. and next Tuesday afternoon Mrs. South Hennepin avenue will give a package shower.

Miss Stella McIntyre gave a dinner last evening for the Adams-Tennant bridal party at her home on the East Side. A large basket filled with Easter lilies and white carnations was in the center of the table, and white and pink ribbons fell from the chandelier to the handle of the basket, where they were caught in a floating bow. White carnations marked the bride's place and single flowers marked the places of the bridesmaids. The name cards bore portraits of Miss Tennant with her initials in gold, American Beauty roses were in the parlors. The guests were: Miss and Mrs. W. A. Broom, Mrs. J. E. Blackwell, the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, Misses Lela Clough and Florence Graham, Mr. Adams, his best man, Clarence Miller, Fred Erb, Ralph Boardman, W. H. M. Adams and John Marshall.

Mrs. Mary Adams Peckham of Boston and Mrs. Donald Gray Colp and son of Fargo, N. D., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Adams for the wedding.

Invitations were issued yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. George H. Miller for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Sara Miller, and Frederick S. G. Wilmayne. The ceremony will take place at their home, 980 First avenue S., Wednesday, May 28. Mrs. C. C. Matteson of Seattle, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Miller's daughter, has already arrived to remain until after the wedding.

The wedding of Miss Hilda Bohlin and August Johnson, which was celebrated at 10:30 in St. Ansgarius church, Nineteenth avenue S. and Fifth street.

Mrs. A. R. Rogers of 923 Summit avenue entertained at luncheon yesterday for Mrs. C. P. Brantner of Waterloo, Iowa. Covers were laid for twelve.

BRAIN WORKERS LEAGUE

IT STARTS OUT IN NEW YORK

Broken Down Journalists, Artists and Artists May Get a Home Yet.

New York Sun Special Service.

New York, May 14.—The brain workers league launched itself at Carnegie hall last night according to the spokesmen of the meeting the object of the league is to establish a fund out of which Bohemians who fall to eat their own living can live a weekly beef and beans allowance. It is to be a charity for attending to "broken down journalists, artists, sculptors and authors."

Only two representatives of the class to whom the brain workers are supposed to minister were on the platform. One was a famous newspaper reporter. When he got forty feet out on the stage and saw what company he was in he ran. The other was Julia Ward Howe.

Edwin M. C. Wood, the California Whitman, came to the front, waving his beard and hair at the ceiling and said he had been persuaded to say a few words about "the power of the ideal."

He broke his promise to the management, however, and talked for half an hour. Mrs. Julia Ward Howe read a carefully prepared paper on "The Topics of the Drama." The address was spirited and of the clearest reasoning. A collection was taken up. Also blank applications for membership in the Brain Workers league were circulated. Those who are not authors, "journalists," artists or sculptors may come in and associate with the "real Bohemians."

BEFORE THE PUBLIC EYE

A concert was given last evening in Park Avenue Congregational church by the Orpheus male quartet of St. Paul, assisted by Dean Fletcher, organist. The program included solos by E. J. McCaffery, H. C. Geddes, E. H. Westerbe and Mr. Fletcher.

"The Brownies in Fairyland" will be presented Friday and Saturday afternoons and Friday night in the Y. M. C. A. hall by 160 boys and girls. The principal characters will be taken as follows: Ruler of the Brownie band, Sam Dunn; Buttoner, the duke, George Robinson; Chauncey Quoter, Howard Freeman; Major Felloff, Victor Westberg; Patrolman Moven, Frank Nay; Queen Flora, Gertrude Masoel; Aesthetica, Helen Brown.

A French entertainment will be given Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by the pupils of Mile. Dreyfus in the Minneapolis Classical school. Recitations will be given by Ella Sage, Darlington Davenport and Ann Talbot Day. A little comedy in five acts will be given by Celia Haskell, Katherine Whitsey, Ella Sage, Katherine King, Evelyn Come and Mile. Dreyfus. Mrs. Charles W. Gardner will assist with songs.

WIFE OF CUBA'S PRESIDENT

Mrs. Palma Was a Native of Honduras.

Mrs. Tomas Estrada Palma, wife of the president-elect of Cuba, will have her first glimpse of Havana during President Palma's inauguration ceremonies.

For, oddly as it may strike the uninformed, Mrs. Palma has never yet seen Cuba. She is a native of Honduras, whether President Palma went when first exiled from Cuba, thirty years ago. There he met and married her, bringing her to this country at the time he became the head of the American system.

Mrs. Palma has an American governor for her young children. She is Miss Cars of Newburg, N. Y., and has accompanied Mrs. Palma to Cuba. Her oldest son, is at present a student in Columbia university. He has gone on to Cuba with a party of college friends to witness the ceremonies of inauguration.

One thing in which Mrs. Palma believes firmly is in the education of Cubans by Cubans.

"It is far easier to receive instruction from one's own people," she says, "than to take it from a foreigner, be he ever so sympathetic. That is why I am rejoiced to see that so many of our young men and women are continually coming over to America to study in the normal schools and colleges of this country. They are forty or fifty now doing and to give the best that is in them. These are the young men and women upon whom a large part of the hopes of Cuba as a republic are centered. If they prove true to their trust we shall succeed in realizing some of our fondest dreams."

Accompanying Mrs. Palma to Cuba is quite a group of American friends.

HUSBAND OR A FORTUNE

MISS MCCUNE CHOOSES FORMER

Twice Prevented From Marrying Phil Green, She is Now His Bride.

New York Sun Special Service.

Salt Lake City, May 14.—Miss JACKETTA McCune, young daughter of A. W. McCune, a millionaire mining man of Salt Lake City, had the choice of a fortune of the man she loved, Captain W. C. Green of Salt Lake City, and that the bridal pair were preparing to take a European trip.

Twice they have been foiled in their attempts to wed. Once an elder brother interfered and took the prospective bride off the trail. Another time the father packed his daughter off to Peru, where he is engaged in developing the famous Cerro de Pasco mine with J. B. Haggin of New York and other capitalists.

It was upon her return from Peru that Miss McCune was met by her sweetheart and the wedding resulted. Mr. McCune is a former partner of Marcus Daly and is largely interested in mines in Utah and Montana; besides owning heavily in the Cerro de Pasco mine in Peru and having large interests of other kinds.

Green is a youthful mining stock broker.

DIED FOR OTHERS

Heroic Death of Blaine John Green at Butte.

Special to the Journal.

Butte, Mont., May 14.—John Green, a mine engineer, met with a heroic death last night. He ran the cage into the shafts at the Gem mine by accident, and then climbed down the shaft to warn the miners. An hour afterward his dead body was found in the 100 station. Steam was exhausting into the shaft, and it is believed he was suffocated by it. He was 35 and leaves a wife and five children.

PLAQUE AT HONGKONG

Victoria, B. C., May 14.—Reports from Hongkong indicate that health conditions are in a threatening condition. The India left there on April 22. During the two previous days three fresh cases of plague were reported, two of the victims being Chinese. News was also brought that Macao had been declared an infected port.
