In Social Circles

Olivet Baptist church was the scene of a brilliant wedding last evening when Miss Grace Tennant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Tennant, and Charles Edward Adams of Diamond were married. A profusion of apple blossoms and hydrangea blossoms were used with palms through the church to carry out a color scheme of white and green. The ushers were Clarence Hill, Fred E. Adams, Fred Erb, Ralph Boardman and John Marshall, and as the guests arrived Newton Stuart played a program of appropriate selections. The bride was escorted by her father, announced the entrance of the bride and her maids and as they came down the aisle the bridegroom and his best man, W. H. Adams, came to the vestry. The bride wore white carnations. The bride entered with her father. She wore white chiffon over white tulle. Medallions of pearl lace with a tracery of white patterned silk. The bride's bouquet was of apple blossoms. The maid of honor, Miss Lois Tennant, was in white point d'esprit, over a slip of apple green tulle, fashioned with lace and insertion, and her flowers were white carnations. The bride entered with her father. She wore white chiffon over white tulle. Medallions of pearl lace with a tracery of white patterned silk. The bride's bouquet was of apple blossoms. The maid of honor, Miss Lois Tennant, was in white point d'esprit, over a slip of apple green tulle, fashioned with lace and insertion, and her flowers were white carnations.

The service was followed by a small reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tennant on Sixth street. E. Adams, the bridegroom, glowed in the parlor among the palms and ferns, while the lights were shaded in the American room. In the library were fragrant sweet peas and white carnations, while the dining-room was brilliant with red tulips and carnations. A basket of tulips and carnations was placed on the table. The bride and groom were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Tennant and Mr. and Mrs. Adams. The bride's train was white and black foulard trimmed with point lace, and Mrs. Adams wore black grenadine. The young women of the bridal party and Mrs. Margaret Cribb, Helen Cribb, Miss Edna A. Gilkerson played the bridal music, using the Lohengrin chorus for the processional and the Mendelssohn Wedding March for the recessional. The bride and groom were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tennant, Lake City; F. J. Liewellyn, Chicago; Mrs. May Adams of Duluth and Mrs. Donald Gray Colp of Fargo, N. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams left for Duluth on the evening train and they will receive after June 30 at 1109 E. Adams street. The bride's traveling gown was of dark blue cloth. A pretty wedding of last evening was that of Miss Florence Lee, daughter of Mrs. M. B. Lee, and Rev. Benjamin Remington Weld of Northwood, N. D. Mr. Weld is the son of the late Rev. Benjamin Remington Weld, who resided in the city. The service was read in Highland Park Presbyterian church, which was attractively decorated with palms to form an archway over the altar. The bride, Miss Edna A. Gilkerson played the bridal music, using the Lohengrin chorus for the processional and the Mendelssohn Wedding March for the recessional. The bride and groom were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tennant, Lake City; F. J. Liewellyn, Chicago; Mrs. May Adams of Duluth and Mrs. Donald Gray Colp of Fargo, N. D.

AN APRIL BRACER.

Teachers require nourishing food more than the average person, for their work is nerve destroying, and unless the food taken will surely rebuild the lost gray matter nervous prostration will set in. A lady teacher writes: "For the benefit of my fellow teachers and all brain workers who expend daily an amount of nerve energy I want to tell just what I know personally about 'Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food.'"

"When I was teaching in a boarding school at P—, in '98, one of the day teachers ate Grape-Nuts regularly for breakfast and supper and appeared so well and strong in all her work."

"Miss R— used to beg me to join her and give the food a trial, but for some reason I never would try it until the spring of the present year. Then one day in April when I was very much run down, but this year June found me well and strong after a most trying month of work, with never a thought about tonics other than the nourishment received from Grape-Nuts. Naturally I believe heartily in the merits of the food."

"Since leaving that boarding school, I learn that nearly every teacher in the school, from the principal down, uses Grape-Nuts." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
