

A REFORMED FAITH

Report of the Presbyterian Committee on Revision.

OF THOSE WHO DIE IN INFANCY

Of the Love of God for All Men—Of Missions—Of the Holy Spirit—Of the Son of Man.

New York, May 15.—Following is an abstract of the report of the Presbyterian General Assembly's special committee on the revision of the confession of faith.

The report covers two divisions, the work assigned to the committee having been outlined by the assembly. In the first place, the committee says it was to prepare "a brief statement of the reformed faith," to be submitted to the assembly.

Additional statements are recommended concerning the love of God for all men, Missions and Holy Spirit, in the form of new chapters to be added to the confession.

The committee proposes the following: Chapter No. 2—Of the Confession of Faith, to be substituted for Chapter X, Section 4, of the Confession of Faith?

Second—With reference to Chapter X, Section 4, of the Confession of Faith, that it not be regarded as teaching that any who die in infancy are lost. We believe that all dying in infancy are included in the election of grace, and are regenerated and saved by Christ through the Spirit, who works when and how He pleases.

The committee says concerning the Brief Statement of the Reformed Faith that it was to be prepared "with a view to its being employed to give information and a better understanding of our doctrinal life, and to give a view to its becoming a substitute for, or an alternative to, our Confession of Faith."

The committee then presents "for such disposition as may be judged wisest" the following as a Brief Statement of the Reformed Faith.

ARTICLE I.—Of God.—We believe in the ever-living God, who is a spirit, and the Father of our spirits; infinite, eternal and unchangeable in His being and perfection; the Lord Almighty, the great First Cause, His ways, most glorious in holiness, unsearchable in wisdom and plenteous in mercy, full of love and compassion, and abundant in goodness and truth; who created man, His Son, and Holy Spirit, three persons in one Godhead, one in substance and equal in power and glory.

ARTICLE II.—Of Revelation.—We believe that God is revealed in nature, in history, and in the heart of man; that He has made gracious and clearer revelations of Himself to men of God who speak as they were moved by the Holy Spirit; and that Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh, is the brightness of His Father's glory and the express image of His person.

ARTICLE III.—Of the Eternal Purpose.—We believe that the God of grace embraces all events, so that while the freedom of man is not taken away nor is God the author of sin, yet in His providence He makes good of all that is done, and that He will bring to the fulfillment of His sovereign design and the manifestation of His glory; wherefore, humbly acknowledging the mystery of His truth, we trust in His protecting care and set our hearts to do His will.

ARTICLE IV.—Of the Creation.—We believe that God is the creator, upholder and governor of all things; that He is above all His works and in them all, and that He made man in His own image, meet for fellowship with Him, free and able to choose between good and evil, and forever responsible to His Maker and Lord.

ARTICLE V.—Of the Sin of Man.—We believe that our first parents, being tempted, chose evil, and, in disobedience to God, came under the power of sin, the penalty of which is eternal death; and we confess that, by reason of this disobedience, we and all men are born with a sinful nature; that we have broken God's law and that no man can be saved but by His grace.

ARTICLE VI.—Of the Grace of God.—We believe that God, out of His great love for the world, has given His only begotten Son, to be the Saviour of sinners, and in the gospel freely offers His all-sufficient salvation to all men who will believe in Him; that the unspeakable grace wherein He has provided a way of eternal life for all mankind.

ARTICLE VII.—Of Election.—We believe that God, from the beginning, in His own good pleasure, gave to His Son a people, an innumerable multitude, chosen in Christ unto eternal life, and saved by His blood; that we can receive this salvation only through faith and repentance, and we believe that all who are saved are saved by His grace.

ARTICLE VIII.—Of the Lord Jesus Christ.—We believe in and confess the Lord Jesus Christ, the only mediator between God and man, who being the eternal Son of God, for us men and for our salvation became truly man, being conceived by the Holy Ghost and born of the Virgin Mary, without sin; unto us He has revealed the Father, by His word and spirit making known the perfect will of God; for us He fulfilled all righteousness and satisfied eternal justice, offering Himself a perfect sacrifice upon the cross to take away the sin of the world; for us He rose from the dead and ascended into heaven, where He ever intercedes for us in our behalf, and to Him by faith, He abides forever as the Advocate, who hears our prayers and who will defend us to the end of the world.

ARTICLE IX.—Of Faith and Repentance.—We believe that God pardons our sins and accepts us as righteous, solely on the ground of the perfect obedience and sacrifice of Christ, received by faith alone; and that this saving faith is always accompanied by repentance, wherein we confess and forsake our sins with full purpose of, and endeavor after, a new obedience to God.

ARTICLE X.—Of the Holy Spirit.—We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life, who moves everywhere upon the hearts of men, to restrain them from evil and to invite them unto good; and when the Father is ever willing to give unto all who ask Him. We believe that He has spoken by holy men of God in making known His truth to the world; that He has revealed the Father, and that He abides with the church, dwelling in every believer as the spirit of truth, of holiness and of comfort.

ARTICLE XI.—Of the New Birth and the New Life.—We believe that the Holy Spirit only is the author and source of the new birth; that He regenerates us into the new life, wherein He is given unto us as the seal of sonship in Christ, and keeps loving fellowship with us, helps us in our infirmities, purges us from our faults, and ever continues His transforming work in us until we are perfected in the likeness of Christ, in the glory of the life to come.

ARTICLE XII.—Of the Resurrection and the Life to Come.—We believe that in the life to come the spirits of the just, at death made free from sin, enjoy immediate communion with God and the vision of His glory; and we confidently look for the general resurrection in the last day, when the bodies of those who

Special to The Journal. Des Moines, Iowa, May 15.—The jury in the case against ex-Policeman John Carter and Frank Pincus, charged with malicious threats to extort, found Carter guilty. Pincus was discharged. It is alleged the officers had extorted money from a girl from Marshalltown, Edith Carlson, by threatening her arrest unless she disgorged. The case has aroused the greatest interest because Carter and Pincus declared they were but following a system common among higher officers of the force.

Special to The Journal. New York, May 15.—Coroner Jackson has in his possession a human heart that is a puzzle to all who see it, for it has imbedded in it a fragment of a knife blade an inch and a half long, yet the body from which it was taken is without exterior puncture, and the history of the man does not show that he ever swallowed anything of the sort. The heart is that of William Barrett, 24 years old, a Bovey character, who died in the city hospital on Blackwell's island in Tuesday morning from what was supposed at the time to be pneumonia. Mrs. Elizabeth Barrett, mother of the patient, with whom he lived, said she did not believe he had ever been stabbed, and was sure he had never swallowed such a piece of steel during his infancy or childhood.

VICTIM OF A LIVE POKER. New York, May 15.—John Golden, an engineer, has been killed in New Rochelle by an electric light wire over which for nearly an hour he stood guard and from which he warned hundreds of school children. After the children had safely passed Golden took up his work. In handling a long poker, he dropped it on the ground. One end formed a contact with the wire. Golden, unaware of the danger, grasped the iron and fell dead.
