FETE AND CONCERT

Given by the Women of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

GROVELAND AND LYNDALE AVES.

Novelties for Sale at Booths—Concert by Journal Newsboys' Band.

The grounds at Lyndale and Groveland avenue were the center of interest this afternoon and they presented a most attractive appearance for the fete and concert given by the women of St. Paul's Episcopal church. Booths of oak boughs hung with flags were scattered over the grounds and groups of women had articles for sale. Mmes. E. F. Osborne, H. N. Chadbourne and A. L. Fyline had charge of the fish pond, where packages of all sorts and sizes rewarded fishermen. Mmes. F. Jarvis, Dunnell and Ralph Wheeler sold lemonade and the candy and cigars were in charge of Mmes. Harry Pence, Jumper, Storer, Harding and J. D. McArthur. At a booth, above which floated the American flag and around which hung flags of all nations, were the guessing cakes and Mmes. H. B. Waite, A. A. Law and Helmh made a note of the guesses in regard to the weight of the cakes. In another cake were a ring and a thimble for the lucky purchaser. Miss Mildred Martin, Pray and Hedge sold fancy articles and coffee and chocolate were in charge of Mmes. Winkle and S. R. Kitchell. A little tent in which Mrs. Jacobs read the palms of the curious. Mmes. B. R. Coppage and M. H. Hedge had charge of the fortune telling. At the flower booth were Mrs. R. Rogers and a group of young girls, Misses Ruth Harding, Kittie Storer, Genevieve Griffith, Mary Storer and Marguerite Fisher. An amusing feature of the fete was the trading goose. An enormous goose's head was thrust through a sheet in a tent and kept up an interminable quacking. Those wishing to buy slipped a coin into the mouth of the creature and the head swung round to return in a second with a package hanging from the bill. Misses Lawton and Meader had charge of the goose. Mrs. David Fuller looked after the dolls and Misses Bessie Wyman, Marion Jarvis, Marion Chase and Mary Storer alternated as the Old Woman who Lived in a Shoe. In another tent Richard Newhall and Miss Evelyn Watts, two children, presented a device of their own. It was a play which was enacted by dolls before a screen while the lines were spoken by the authors from behind. It was really a very clever little play and the plot was always vigorous. In addition to the play, there were prizes for riding and driving and they were in charge of A. A. Rankin. The Journal Newsboys' band played a delightful program in the afternoon and will remain through the evening, when the grounds will be lighted with Japanese lanterns. Ice cream and cake will be served from the station to the homes of the guests. The affair is the first large outdoor fete of any pretensions this summer, and has aroused considerable interest. The officers of the guild are as follows: Miss Nellie Waite, president, Mmes. J. R. Morrison and P. Jarvis, vice presidents; Mrs. H. B. Waite, treasurer; Mrs. Ralph Hall, secretary. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Chase assisted Miss Waite in making the many arrangements.
