GOT TO GO.

Men of Family Must Work, Sick or Well.

Good food and the right kind will carry a man through almost anything. Commenting on the power of Grape-Nuts, an Oakland writer writes of the experience of her husband.

"Two years ago my husband had the pneumonia, which left him in a sad condition, unable to work for several months. The doctor said he would have to be very careful or it would turn into consumption."

"We have a large family, and he must work, sick or well. Hearing that Grape-Nuts was the strongest nourishing food we could find, he began on the food with one egg, which would be all he could eat for breakfast."

"He left home at 4:30 every morning seven days in the week, and after two years' continued use of the food he is a well man. Even the cough has left him that troubled him so long after his sickness."

"Our youngest child, a boy of 4½, was a very delicate baby. As soon as he could eat anything started him on Grape-Nuts, and he has grown to be a large child, taking a suit for a boy 6 years old. He is a very bright, strong, intelligent boy." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The women were met at the end of the car line by carriages, which took them to the hospitable Robbins home.

The lowering skies forbade luncheon in the grove, as had been planned, and long tables were spread on the verandas and in the dining room. The affair was a rose fete and the house and tables were profusely decorated with the queenly blossoms and at each place was a rose. A delicious menu was served with the assistance of Misses Edith, Amy and Esther Robbins, Ethel Barnes and Clara Bailey. The afternoon was spent in looking over a fine collection of art photographs and on the lawn, where group pictures of the party were taken.

Inside will be a sketch of the fair with numerous half-tone illustrations besides a complete program of the events of the fair of 1902.

LIUET. FRANE'S COW

It Gets the Officer Into a Bit of Trouble.

Lieutenant Charles T. Frane of the mounted police force was in court this morning charged with allowing a cow to run at large. He pleaded not guilty and the case was continued until Tuesday. The complaint was sworn out by Clara E. Trask, 2525 Madison street N.E., who alleged that the cow got into her corn patch and did great damage. Lieutenant Frane says that the Trasks have mulcted a number of the neighbors because their cows got in the corn patch and he does not intend to pay any damages but will pay the fine imposed by the court.

"MY CURE WAS ALMOST A MIRACLE"

Says Mr. G. M. Hoy in Speaking of the Efficacy of Pe-ru-na for Catarrh.

Granville M. Hoy, Sheridan, Ind., is Past Grand, in the Order of Odd Fellows, Lodge 691. In a recent letter he says:

"I suffered for years with liver complaint, causing me severe pains and a peculiar weakness across the small of my back, so that it was hard to stoop, and sometimes very painful to walk about. I had used so much medicine without deriving any help that I just let it go, until a neighbor was cured by Peruna. That led to my using it, and before I had used ten bottles I was cured. I consider it almost miraculous."—Granville M. Hoy.

CATARRH is liable to attack any organ of the human body. Many cases of kidney, liver and bladder diseases which baffle the doctor's skill are but catarrh of one or both of these organs. That Peruna is a cure for such cases the accompanying letters show.

Mr. W. L. Butler, 1828 Bellevue Ave., Kansas City, Mo., Secretary and Treasurer of the O. R. C. of America, writes: "There is nothing like Peruna for liver and bladder trouble. A number of railroad men have used it when they were broken down from the constant strain which they are obliged to undergo, and were greatly benefited by its use. I have used it frequently for myself and family and would not be without it for the world."—W. L. Butler.

Mr. Wm. R. Lewis, 2133 H street, W. Washington, D. C., Assistant Steward of the Metropolitan Club, writes: "I began taking Peruna last summer for stomach trouble and catarrh of the bladder, and as it seemed to relieve me some I kept on taking it for two months and I consider myself cured. I rejoice that I gave this medicine a trial."—Wm. R. Lewis.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.
