AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

Yesterday's game at Nicollet park was decidedly a Gaston-Alphonse affair, in which the millers finally had to yield and accept the game.

It was "I beg of you to accept this game, my dear Alphonse," from Mr. Gaston Zalusky. To which, "Not at all; I insist that you take the game," responded Mr. Alphonse Robert Lynch. Alphonse Lynch was based on it his request by Lynch was backed up in his request by Alphonse Kelly, Alphonse Dillard, Alphonse Huggins, Alphonse Shannon, Alphonse Lumley, and last, but not least, Alphonse Alderman Cogan.

Against the protests of this formidable array of Alphonses, Gaston Zalusky was helpless, especially since Gastons Wilmot, M. Lynch, Phyle and all the rest of the Gaston family, strenuously objected to Zalusky's display of generosity. The millers scored only eight hits off Cogan's delivery, but the seven timely errors of the Alphonses, together with the eight passes issued by Cogan, counted for nine runs. The Alphonses bumped Gaston Katoll nine several and distinct times, but the big fellow pitched masterly ball at critical times, and on at least two occasions pulled himself out of tight places by superb displays of nerve and headwork. On one other occasion, with Dillard on the tertiary sack, Zalusky let the sphere slip through his fingers. Katoll covered the plate, and Zalusky had plenty of time to throw the ball in had plenty of time to throw the ball in to catch Dillard, but he tried to run to the plate himself, and the score was re-corded. Again, with two out and Shan-non on third, Katoll was guilty of a wild pitch, allowing another score. The other two marks on the tally sheet on the saints' side were the result of a four-sacker swat by little Bobbie Lynch, fol-lowing a one-base contribution by Hur-ley.

lowing a one-base contribution by Hurley.

That was all the saints got, but for a long time it looked as if it would be enough. Lynch managed to get around the circuit in the first, and that was the last doing on the millers' side until the fourth. Alphonse Kelly took a hand at this point, and politely but firmly refused to catch Perry Werden's dinky fly. Perry was forced by Quillin, and when Grant sent a blue-bottle to Lumley, it looked as if it was all over, but Zalusky redeemed himself by a corking Zalusky redeemed himself by a corking joit into the left garden. Chech hurried the sphere back to Huggins, and it was a pretty hard question whether Zalusky was caught at second, but Haskell said safe. Thereupon Alphonse Huggins, not to be outdone by his manager, hurled the ball home to catch Quillin, but the sphere went wild and Zalusky reached third, tallying shortly after on a double steal. That was all there was doing until the seventh. With the bases exhibiting the S. R. O. sign, and two men already deceased, it was up to Grant. He sent an innocent looking bounder to Bobbie Lynch, and the little shortstop did the prize Alphonse stunt of the day. He let the hit slide way through into the center garden, and there Shannon booted it for awhile. Meanwhile Phyle, Werden and Quillin all scampered like terriers in the direction of home and arrived in plenty of time. That put the millers two to the good, but just to make it certain, Alphonses Kelly and Lynch allowed them to make it three more in the eighth.

The bunting of Wilmot, Phyle and Quillin was a feature of the day. Wilmot got three sacrifices and one hit, while Phyle and Quillin both beat out bunts. One of the manager's martyrdoms scored Lynch with the first run.

The St. Paul management, in the opinion of most of the fans, showed poor judgment in putting Lumley who has been toold by president freedman nor McGraw will admit what the latter will receive for his services, it is said that the salary is $10,000 a year. prize Alphonse stunt of the day. He let Quillin appeared at short after a long absence, and there was a manifest increase in the speed of the infield in consequence. The little fellow covered all kinds of territory, and made several difficult stops. The inspiriting figures:

TENNIS

Two exceptionally fine tennis matches were played yesterday in the continuation of the round robin series of doubles on the courts of the Country club of Westchester, N. Y. Ward and Davis, the national and inter-national champions, found it necessary to play five hard sets before they defeated Clothier and Ogden. Darkness caused the match between Whitman and Ware vs. the Wrenn brothers to remain unfinished. The Wrenns took the first set, captured the second and were evenly balanced and stronger in the fourth, when the match was stopped. Both teams lobbed with exceptional brilliancy and made many clever shots. Summary: Round Robin Doubles—Holcombe Ward and Dwight F. Davis defeated William T. Clothier and Montgomery Ogden, 6-4, 8-19, And the state of t

AUTO IS TOO FAST

Thomas H. Shevlin, politician and lumberman, has an automobile which runs so fast that he cannot use it in the city limits. The machine is of the latest French racing pattern, and its cost is given as $3,800. N.

E. Brown took the vehicle out for a trial spin this week, and while running at the lowest rate of speed possible for the auto, he was arrested on the Harriet boulevard for fast driving and fined $10 in municipal court the next morning. Now Mr. Shevlin court the next morning. Now Mr. Shevlin is wondering how he can make use of his machine. He cannot drive it about the city and he cannot take it out of the city limits without danger of a collision with a bluecoat.

CYCLING

Great interest is being taken in the coast ing contest which will be held Saturday afternoon on Kenwood hill under the auspicer of the Minneapolis Cycle Trade association The entry lists are already well filled and it is expected that several scores of cyclists will take part in the contests, for which will take part in the contests, for which prizes aggregating in value about $350 have been offered.

The program includes three events—a coasting contest for wheels equipped with coaster brakes; a contest among wheels without brakes, and a braking contest. The prize in the two former will be awarded to the coaster covering the greatest distance and coaster covering the greatest distance, and in the latter the rider who stops his whee within the shortest distance after crossing the tape will be declared the winner. This form of bicycle contest is new in Minneapolis, although it has for some time been popular in the east, and local riders are evincing great interest.

Hugh McLean was thrown from his wheel in the last lap of his twenty-five-mile race with Howard Freeman at the Coliseum at Providence last night, but trundled his bi-cycle over the tape and was declared winner by seven laps. He was badly bruised, but no bones were broken. In the first mile McLean reduced the world's record from 1:231-5 to 1:224-5. The twenty-five miles was made in 36:16 1-5.

Winnie O'Connor, the premier ockey of the Featherstone racing stables, and Terry Mc-Govern, the featherweight pugilist, have been matched to ride an unpaced bicycle race at one mile, best two out of three heats. The contest will take place at Manhattan Beach

John Larson, the cyclist, has left for Springfield, Ohio, to join the Jabour troupe. He has been engaged to loop the loop.

BILLIARDS

George Spears of this city has made arrangements for a billiard match with Charles Peterson of Fargo, to be played during the next two weeks. The contest will be for $200 a side, and will be at 1,800 points balk line, two shots in.

Three hundred points will be played each night, and the games will open next Tues-day at Fargo, play continuing Wednesday and Thursday nights in that city.

The last half of the match will be played in this city Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, July 22, 23 and 24. Peterson is the cham-pion of North Dakota, and is believed to be practically invincible by the citizens of that place. Spears has been playing in better form recently than he showed in the two tournaments held in this city and St. Paul this summer. His friends are confident that he will defeat the Fargo man, or, at least, give the latter a hard run for his money. The three-cornered tie in the billiard tour settled by dividing second and third money Ferris won the contest, being victorious in all three of his games, while Spears, Charlet Clow and Joe Carney were tied for second with one win and two losses each.

TENNIS

Harry I. Belden and Ralph Gillette will leave this evening for Cincinnati, where they will represent the Minnetonka club in the which opens Saturday in that city. From trace. Hoodlum last Friday beat Circe by only Cincinnati the two players will g o to Chi-45 seconds, and Wizard has proven her ability cago, to take part in the western championship tournament. They are entered in singles and doubles in both contests. Belden is expected to do great work at A large turnout of the first and second-class sloops and the one design cat boats is expected Saturday, and with a good wind the regatta promises to be very interesting.
