THE WEATHER

The Predictions.

Minnesota—Generally fair to-night and Friday; warmer to-night in west and south portions; variable winds. Upper Michigan—Generally fair to-night and Friday; variable winds, mostly westerly. Wisconsin and Iowa—Generally fair to-night and Friday; warmer Friday and in west portion to-night; variable winds. South Dakota and Montana—Generally fair to-night and Friday; southerly winds. North Dakota—Fair to-night; Friday, increasing cloudiness with possibly showers in west portion; warmer; southerly winds.

DISPOSAL OF GARBAGE

It is costing the City about $2 Per Ton.

It is costing the city approximately $2 per ton to collect and dispose of its garbage. For June the city has expended more than $2,000, the total collections being 1,028 tons. The cost of collection, Health Commissioner Halls puts at $1.52 per ton, and its disposal at the crematory at 45 cents per ton. The balance of one-third of which is charged to fuel account, the balance to salaries of the crematory force.

Fully one-half of the cost of the collection can be saved, Dr. Hall estimates, by the removal of the crematory to the Plymouth avenue island.

TRUST MEETS TRUST

A Suit Involving U. S. Steel Company and Standard Oil.

It is the steel trust against the oil trust in the suit which appears on the calendar of the United States court of appeals as "Brown vs. Lanyon Zinc company." It is an important action, as the defendant has a motion to dissolve the injunction closing its immense zinc works at Iola, Kansas, where 800 men are usually employed and which produce one-third of the refined zinc output of the United States. The Lanyon Zinc company is one of the numerous side ventures of the Standard Oil company and it uses the Brown patent smelting furnace.

The United States Steel corporation is behind Brown, who has secured an injunction in Kansas restraining the company from using the Brown furnace.

This closes the zinc smelter and the United States Steel corporation is much gratified thereof for it also in the zinc smelting business and will have a monopoly with its only formidable rival out of the way. Since the injunction has been granted the price of zinc has steadily increased and every industry using this metal will be affected.

Judge Sanborn has, however, made an order suspending the injunction until Sept. 7, when the appeal from the original order will be heard.

I admit having "competitors," but will not admit "competition" in this July Shirt Sale—Hoff.

In connection with our regular line of negligee shirts, "which we cut deep," we have made a "special" line of negligee shirts, sizes for all. Every shirt a genuine effect. "It's an ad for us," Hoffman's Toggery Shop, 34 Fourth street S.

MCKENZIE IS BACK

North Dakota Political Chief to Open St. Paul Headquarters.

HANSBROUGH IS ENCOURAGED

Joseph M. Devine Looking After His Place as Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Alexander McKenzie, the big chief in North Dakota republican councils, will arrive from the east in a few days and reopen his headquarters at the Merchants hotel in St. Paul. McKenzie has been in the east for many weeks getting his connections with eastern politicians and some of the politicians at Washington in old time form. His friends in the North Dakota political machine say he has been successful and will be in just as good shape as ever to make a winning fight in the North Dakota contest this year. There have been many calls for him at the Merchants by North Dakota politicians. With his return the campaign will be well on and much of it will be directed from McKenzie's St. Paul base. Senator H. C. Hansbrough passed through the twin cities yesterday on his way home to fight for votes in the legislature. He is feeling much encouraged over the outlook in spite of the fact that two counties in his part of the state are said to be against him. The senator will take a hand in the state convention at St. Paul, which will be the first time in many years will be a delegate from Burleigh county.

Little Still in Race.

Another North Dakota politician who paid the twin cities a flying visit this week enroute home was Senator C. B. Little of Bismarck, who has been conferring with McKenzie in the east. Little has had some rapid planning to do since Judge Cowan failed to tackle Hansbrough successfully in the Devils Lake convention. Contrary to reports recently circulated, it is said he will remain in the senatorial race.

Lieutenant Governor David Bartlett, who is at the Nicollet, is on record as favoring the renomination of Governor White. He is a candidate for re-election and is reasonably confident of rounding up in the winning combination.

Ex-Governor Joseph M. Devine, now superintendent of public instruction, has been attending the N. E. A. convention as a member of the North Dakota delegation. Mr. Devine failed to secure a delegate from his home county and, in North Dakota political conventions, a man without a county is like a lost sheep without a bell. Mr. Devine's friends say that he will go into the convention, notwithstanding. It is said that Bottineau county has offered him its delegation for use in combine making and Devine will have the support of the state administration. No candidate has yet appeared against him.

Lamoureux's Hatchet.

Jud Lamoureux is said to have his hatchet ground for use on Devine and there is some talk that the Welsh county delegation failing to disagree on either Libby or Brown for a place on the state ticket, will unite in pushing Stockwell or Woods of Grafton for Devine's place. Woods is now advocating the nomination of Devine. Stockwell is chairman of the Welsh county delegation, now divided between two aspirants for the nomination, a poor position to do much for himself.

NOVELTIES AT HARRIET

The Italian Band Has Three in Store To-night.

To-night's Royal Italian program at Lake Harriet presents several novelties. The opening number will be a march called "Royal," dedicated by the composer, W. B. Fasbinder, to Ellery's Royal Italian band. It is said to be a most sprightly and pleasing composition. The second number is a waltz, "The Puccini," composed by Puccini, will be played for the first time in Minneapolis. Jean Fontelle's new march, "Fadama," is a third novel. Just to add to the things the ever popular favorite, "Blue Danube" waltz will be played. Here is the full program and that of to-morrow afternoon:

FACTS ON 'THE MAID'

Interesting Statistics Compiled by the State Labor Commissioner.

693 DOMESTICS REPORTED ON

Of These 264 Were "Poor" or Worse—Men Better Servants Than Girls.

Labor Commissioner O'Donnell to-day made the results of one side of his investigation of the servant girl problem. He received answers from 157 householders. They had employed in all 693 domestics. Of these numbers the mistresses pronounced 170 excellent, 182 good, 77 satisfactory, 224 poor, 15 unsatisfactory and 26 "most unsatisfactory." Fifty-one had employed male as well as female help, and the consensus was that the men found the work more congenial and were less restless than female help. The principal objections made to employees were "ignorance," "stupidity," "untidiness" and "shiftlessness."

Forty-six thought domestic service improved from a few years ago, but 31 thought it growing more unsatisfactory. Sixty favored schools for teaching domestic economy to the girls, though one thought householders needed it more. Some favored a six months' summer school course at the state agricultural school. The great complaint was that after spending a year in training a green girl she would pick up and hunt a place where she could get more wages. Some favored an apprentice system to remedy this.

The eight-hour day is allowed by 35 of the householders. Twelve want their domestics nine hours, 31 ten hours, 20 eleven hours, four fourteen hours. The men only give six hours' work and two only four hours' work.

A DOG ROUGH-RIDER

Scout's Stunt at Gentry's Show—How to Train Animals.

The Gentry dog and pony show is entertaining large audiences daily at Nicollet avenue and Thirteenth street. While the nature of the show is such as to appeal particularly to children, the amusement features are so strong as to command a liberal attendance of older folk. All boys and girls who see the big free show, which takes place every morning at 10:30, when dogs, ponies, elephants, monkeys, camels and zebras parade the downtown street at once get their hearts on seeing the performance beneath the snowy canvas, and the majority of them manage to attend.

"Scout," a golden retriever, purchased from an old colored woman in an Indiana town a few years ago, is the most valuable dog in the show. He was a tramp dog and his education had been neglected, but he took advantage of the opportunities to improve himself, and is the star performer. His principal trick is that of riding a vicious horse, leaping from an old colored woman in an Indiana town a few years ago, is the most valuable dog in the show.
