Semi-Finals at Glenview Played Over Flooded Course.

Byers and James are winners.

These Two Players Met in the Finals To-day—Byers a Slight Favorite.

E. B. Byers of the Allegheny club of Pittsburgh and Lou James of the Glenview club of Chicago won the swimming matches at Glenview yesterday and were declared eligible for the finals of the national golf tournament to be played with the U. S. Golf association officials say that the tournament must be finished. The players will wear life preservers, and the judges' launch will accompany them over the course.

If Byers and James play in the form they showed yesterday a game may not be decided until the home green is reached, though Byers, on account of the marvelous golf he played Tuesday, is perhaps a slight favorite.

The finals will be played to-day. The U. S. Golf association officials say that the tournament must be finished. The players will wear life preservers, and the judges' launch will accompany them over the course.

Plans are already being made by the management for a long season and a merry hour party of thirty young people will make the club their abiding place for the last week in August and the first days of September.

At the Minnetonka club interest centers just now in the approaching events of tennis week. The first event of the week will be a tennis match at the club on Sunday afternoon, July 27, when a large orchestra will render a program of excellent numbers.

On Monday evening both the Minnetonka club and the building formerly used by the Yacht club will be converted into spacious ballrooms, with an orchestra in each. Boats will ply between the two islands and it will be possible to vary the dances of a long program with trips upon the water from one floor to the other.

The German of Saturday evening will be the event of the week, which will be given in the pavilion. A display of fireworks is planned for Wednesday evening and many dinners and luncheons have already been arranged. Many of the players who will enter the tournament were guests at pleasant functions of the club last season and are anticipating renewing friendships and recapturing the delights of their former experience.

Hotel del Otero was the scene of a pretty dancing party last evening, when the guests of the hotel and the hotel guests gathered for the weekly hop. The del Otero is making a feature this year of particularly good music and the dancers appreciate the fact that the dances are given in screened verandas furnish cool retreats between numbers.

An exciting diversion which greatly interests the guests is the bowling which is provided in the pavilion. The alleys are excellent and are in constant use. The cool evenings have fostered the vigorous sport and weary-eyed guests have presented their made just after 12 or at 1 o'clock the previous night.

For the sake of preserving the health of the bowlers, the manager Hopkins has decided to establish a closing hour for the bowling room and will cruelly banish his guests to slumber at 11 p. m.
