MINNETONKA

Social interest at the lake centers in tennis week. No private parties are planned until the visiting tennis enthusiasts have come and gone, although a busy social season is promised thereafter by the words on either side, "when tennis week is over."

Until tennis week is over the Minnetonka club will be the point toward which all launches turn and about which all festivities will center. Beginning with the concert to-morrow by Pankoff's orchestra, the week will be filled with all the pleasures which can be crowded into the hours between games. Those who have already arrived at the lake shared the annual sail of the club to-day and enjoyed most heartily their share of the delicious luncheon which was conveyed to Shady island in generous hamper.

The pretty German and handsome dancing party which is to be the guests of the novel pleasure of sailing from one club to the other between dances, are naturally the center of interest for the young women, who are freshening up and creating filmy costumes of lace and lawn to ensnare the hearts of men. As brilliant red is to be the accepted color of tennis affairs, there will be a life and gaiety about the assemblies which will be a pleasant novelty. No matter how sunburned or deeply tanned the men and maidens have become, regardless of the disastrous effect of rays upon their complexions, all are avowedly loyal to their scarlet colors.

In the matter of tan, the present summer has been no exception to the rule. Long cloudy days upon the lake have left but little trace of sunburn and that trace has been steamed from their faces by the hot, moist hours when storms are imminent.

At the Lafayette club the week has been gay with dinners and luncheons and after tennis week; several interesting events will be arranged. The first of these will be the contest with Minnetonka club for golf honors and the attendant dinners to the winners. The date of the game has been set as Aug. 5, and the players are laboring valiantly through heat and rain to acquire proficiency in their sport.

Interest in ping-pong has continued unabated and with the final so soon to be played many aspirations will be satisfied and many fond hopes dashed to the ground.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Will Shull entertained at the club with an informal dancing party for their niece, who are their guests for several weeks.

The dramatic and musical entertainment to be arranged by Mr. Brooks will be given soon after the Minnetonka game and elaborate preparations are being made to ensure a great success. A stage will be erected in the dining-room and nearly 200 chairs will be arranged in a semicircle about the platform. Many of those who attained fame in the performance given by the Vikings will repeat their triumphs at the club.

A number of pretty entertainments have been given at the del Otero this week. The handsome hostelry is a very convenient place to drive to as an objective point for a long cruise of the lake. On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Loring entertained with a party luncheon at the hotel. Their guests were Misses Kate Modjeski, Susanna Fletcher, Altha Miller, Riverdale, Cal.; Katherine Carla, Grace E. Ames, New York; M. J. Addresses were made by Dr. Telander and Mr. Hoberg, the doctor speaking in English and Mr. Hoberg addressing the company in the Swedish tongue.

In the afternoon there was a program of music by the band, and addresses by Dr. J. Felten and Rev. P. Peterson of Galesburg, Ill. The latter's address was in Swedish. A game of ball was played between North and South Minneapolis. The Puritan and several smaller boats were chartered for the afternoon and evening. Rev. J. G. Hutkrans was in charge of the arrangements.

A band of thirty young ladies of Riverside chapel, who have been camping at the Baptist Assembly grounds at Mound since July 1, closed their camp yesterday and returned to the city. The party, which was chaperoned by Miss Eva McCord, Mrs. W. B. McCord and Miss Mary Hirth, had had a most enjoyable outing. The Baptist Assembly building and several tents were used. The Milliquata was chartered and took the crowd for a ride Tuesday. Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Pabody spent several days at camp as guests. Through the attentions of the chaperones, the parents and friends of the campers spent Wednesday on the grounds. There were twenty-five guests.

Noerenberg's beautiful launch, "Winlorah," was one of the loveliest boats on the lake last Sunday, when Miss Winifred Noerenberg entertained about thirty of her friends. Refreshments were served on the boat and later at the Noerenberg home, Crystal Bay. The ladies of the Excelsior Methodist church are planning for a fête to be given on the lawn of George Butcher Wednesday evening. The Excelsior military band has been engaged for the evening.

The guests at Maple Heights had a dramatic club, a musical club and a dramatic club, and these vie with each other in providing interesting entertainment. Two weeks ago the musical club gave an entertainment of a really high order, and ever since the members of the dramatic club have been charged with an air of mystery calculated to arouse the curiosity of those "outside the pale" to a high pitch. Thursday evening was the date announced for the great event, and at the appointed hour the hall was filled with eager listeners. Those having the evening's program in charge were good-naturedly hissed by the music club members. The first part of the entertainment consisted of a game of names. Each person present had a name named to his back which he must guess from questions put to him by others. This furnished ample amusement and put everyone in a pleasant frame of mind. Then followed fourteen characters on book titles, which were well conceived and admirably executed. Latent talent was discovered everywhere, and many difficult parts were enacted with surprising ease and grace. Masters Fred Gates and Ted Kopper made a pair of fine fencers with light short swords, representing "The Battle of the Strong," by Gilbert Parker, and Miss Abbie Greer, a little maid of 7 summers, was simply bewitching as "The Spy." Among others taking part were Messrs. and Mrs. E. P. Smith, George W. Beach, W. B. Chamberlain, James Bryant, William Kirk, E. Kopper, Miss Mamie Howard, St. Paul; Mrs. E. U. Fren and daughter, both of Chicago; those in the audience were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sharp, St. Paul; Mrs. H. Avery, Minneapolis; Miss Estelle G. Mozart, Washington, D. MOTHERS MUST GUIDE

Should Watch the Physical Development of Their Daughters. Earnest Words From Mrs. Pinkham to Mothers.

Every mother possesses information of vital value to her young daughter. That daughter is a precious legacy, and the responsibility for her future is largely in the hands of the mother. The mysterious change that develops the thoughtless girl into the thoughtful woman should find the mother on the watch day and night. As she cares for the physical well-being of her daughter, so will the woman be, and her children also.

When the young girl's thoughts become sluggish, when she experiences headaches, dizziness, faintness, and exhibits an abnormal disposition to sleep, pain in the back and lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude, and a dislike for the society of other girls, when she is a mystery to herself and friends, then the mother should go to her aid promptly. At such a time the greatest aid to nature is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It prepares the young system for the coming change, and is the surest reliance in this hour of trial.

The following letters from Mrs. Southard are practical proof of Mrs. Pinkham's efficient advice to young women.

Mothers Who Allow Their Daughters to Suffer are Cruel When Relief is Easily Obtained. Read This Mother's Experience.

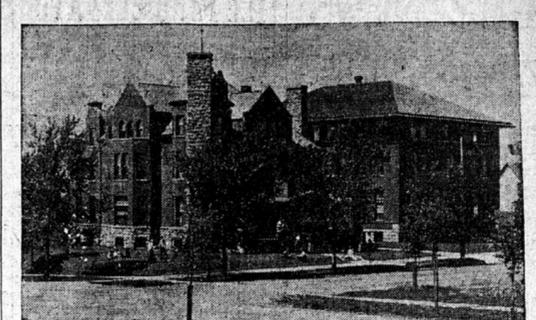

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish advice in regard to my daughter. She is thirteen years old and never menstruated. We have had the doctor for her and he said she did not have enough blood. She has been taking iron for three months but it is no better. In the morning she vomits, some days she cannot keep anything on her stomach until twelve o'clock. If she tries to do anything she gets faint. Has headache all the time, is as white as marble with great dark rings under her eyes. Please write and tell me what to do as I am discouraged with the doctor."—MRS. CHAS. SOUTHARD, Phoenix Mills, N.Y. (Jan. 19, 1900.)

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Last January I wrote you about my daughter, and told you what our family doctor said about her. I saw another doctor and he said she had quick consumption. After receiving your letter, I began giving her your remedies, and after taking four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and four of Blood Purifier, she is now well and strong as ever. Menstrues have appeared and are regular. I can never praise your remedies enough for they saved my daughter's life."—MRS. CHAS. SOUTHARD, Phoenix Mills, N.Y. (Dec. 16, 1900.)

Any young girl or any mother is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice in regard to her sickness. No one has had greater experience or success in guiding mothers and their daughters to health. Thousands have trusted her and are glad. She charges nothing for advice. Write to-day.

REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $2000, which will be paid to any person who can find the above testimonial letters are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
