DR. HANCE REMOVES

He Goes to New York—Years of Usefulness in This City.

Many Minneapolitans will regret to learn that Dr. Samuel F. Hance has moved to Fairport, N. Y., one of the suburbs of Rochester. The doctor came to this city in 1872, when it had a population of only 25,000, and he has witnessed its growth to 225,000. He soon became one of the leading physicians and surgeons, and built up a large and successful practice, having for his patrons many of the oldest and best families of this city. He was always patriotic and public spirited, and did his share in helping to build up Minneapolis. The location of the Soldiers' Home at Minnehaha was due in a great measure to his untiring efforts. He was warm and generous in his nature, and in the year of 1881, he himself having been a surgeon in one of the Illinois regiments. The doctor has left many staunch friends who regret his leaving, but desire which he and Mrs. Hance have to be near their daughter, who was lately married.

The Minneapolis men present were A. C. Paul, W. J. Festlake, and W. D. Washburn, Jr. The members of the army commission were General Kline, Captain Hearn and Captain Moore.

HOW CITIES GROW

The Growth of Last Year the Biggest on Record.

BOTH TWINS BEAT MILWAUKEE

Minneapolis Led St. Paul in Number of Building Permits and Value of Buildings.

A report just issued by the geological survey shows that the calendar year 1901 was the greatest in the history of the country in city building. Inquiries were made of the local authorities of the fifty-five largest cities in the country, and forty-two reported on their building operations during the year. The number of building permits issued in these forty-two cities in 1901 was 85,571, as against 68,417 in 1900, a gain of 17,154, or 25.07 per cent. The value of the buildings erected on these permits in 1901 was $372,173,631, compared with $244,516,555 in 1900, a gain of $127,657,076, or 54 per cent.

Only a few of the northwestern cities reported on building operations. In Minneapolis 3,317 permits were issued in 1901, for buildings valued at $6,020,987, compared with 2,967 permits valued at $3,943,774 in 1900, an increase of 311 in the number of permits and of $2,076,193 in the value of buildings erected.

In St. Paul there were 1,373 permits issued in 1901, an increase of 334 over the previous year, for buildings valued at $1,261,400, an increase of $3,771,098 over 1900.

The city authorities of Milwaukee issued 1,484 permits for buildings valued at $5,024,695 in 1901, against 1,170 permits for buildings valued at $3,714,158 in 1900, an increase in the number of permits of 314 and of $1,310,537 in the value of buildings. At Detroit, Mich., 2,764 permits for buildings valued at $5,963,600, were issued in 1901, an increase of 800 in number and of $1,827,200 in the value of buildings, as compared with 1900.

The special entertainment committee of the real estate board lunched yesterday at the Minneapolis Club as guests of Chairman Edmund Walton. The following plan of entertaining the Kansas City men was adopted: After their arrival Sunday they will be taken to the West Hotel, where they will spend the afternoon. Dinner in the evening will be served at the Minnikahda Club, whence the party will proceed to Harriet to hear the Royal Italian band.

A meeting of the "Lodge" board will be held in the Guaranty Loan roof garden Monday at 10 a. m. The guests will then visit the mills and university. In the afternoon the physicians at the hospital will be entertained at the Lafayette Club.

A special car will take the party to the reservoir and Minnetonka Falls Tuesday morning. The Gracie Mower will be pressed into commission for the trip to St. Paul, where the St. Paul Real Estate Exchange will entertain.

SWAN TURNBLAD RETURNS

He Has Been Touring Europe With His Family.

Swan J. Turnblad, publisher of Svenska Amerikaniska Posten of this city, has returned from a four weeks' jaunt in Europe. He was accompanied by Mrs. Turnblad and their daughter Lillian. Leaving Boston four months ago, he landed first in Naples, Italy, and after proper attention to the metropolis of Italy, set out on a long tour, visiting in turn Rome, Venice, Athens, Constantinople, Moscow and St. Petersburg, and also in Finland, Stockholm, Sundsvall and Malmo in Sweden and Copenhagen, where they embarked for home.

At the latter place Mrs. Turnblad and family of this city. The Smiths and Turnblads were entertained at dinner by J. S. Swenson, United States minister to Denmark. While in St. Petersburg, Turnblad addressed several correspondents to his staff and also put in effect his plan for establishing a reading room in this city for the benefit of his patrons by subscribing to a number of the leading papers of the old country.

THE SUPREME COURT A TIE

This Leaves Lower Court's Decision Unaltered.

The Minneapolis & St. Louis road must build a depot and maintain a station at the village of Emmons, on the main line of the road in Freeborn county. The supreme court stands a tie, which leaves the decision of the lower court against the road unaltered.

Chief Justice Stone and Justice Brown hold that the decision should be upheld, while Justices Collins and Lewis would reverse it. Justice Lovely was disqualified from sitting in the case. He was counsel for Emmons in a former proceeding. In this case a new trial was granted. Judges Start and Brown hold that there has since been a substantial growth in the village, which alters the showing made in the former case. The syllabus says: Minnesota ex. rel. Railroad and Warehouse Commissioners, respondent, vs. The Minneapolis & St. Louis Railroad Company, appellant. Per Curiam.

Judgment of the district court in mandamus proceedings requiring and compelling defendant railway company to erect and maintain a depot building in the incorporated village of Emmons, which was held by a divided court, one member being disqualified from taking part. Order affirmed.

Widow Gets Damages.

A verdict of $5,000 is sustained against John R. Johnson. It goes to the widow Jacobson, who was killed by the fall of a crane on a dredge boat, working in Lake Minnetonka.

James A. Jacobson, administrator of the estate of Mons E. Jacobson, deceased, respondent, vs. John R. Johnson, appellant. Order affirmed.

Foreclosure Was Valid.

Judgment is modified in a suit involving some tracts of real estate in Hennepin county, in which both sides appealed. Four mortgages were filed on these lots to the Northwestern Guaranty Loan company. They were foreclosed in 1894 and 1895, each lot being a distinct source of security. The plaintiffs at these lots was a proper procedure, but that the plaintiff is only entitled to costs for the procedure gone through.

Farnsworth Loan and Realty company, appellant, vs. Commonwealth Title Insurance & Trust company, respondent. Judgment reversed.

Other decisions filed to-day were as follows: The United States Fidelity and Guaranty company, appellant, vs. August Biegman, respondent. Order affirmed.

William F. Hunt as receiver of the Alleman bank, respondent, vs. Ella L. Grant, appellant. Order reversed.

HACKED WITH A RAZOR

H. HARRISON, COLORED WAITER

Forty Stitches Required to Keep Him Together—Other Fights of Last Night.

Fights seemed in order last night, and as a result two men were taken to the city hospital to have their broken bodies patched up. The victims were arrested and still others are fugitives. The fights were all over trivial matters, yet one or two of them developed alarming proportions.

Henry Harrison, a colored man employed as a waiter at the St. Louis hotel, Lake Minnetonka, received most painful injuries. The physicians at the hospital took over forty stitches in dressing the razor wounds in his body. He was picked up on the sidewalk near the courthouse.

He refused to let who his assailants were or what caused the trouble. Although he lost a great deal of blood, and was badly injured, the physicians say he will recover.

Miller, an expressman of 709 Jackson street NE, and John Thies of 763 Tyler street NE, met in an East Side saloon last evening and quarreled over paying for a drink. Miller was taken to the city hospital and Thies to his home. Miller had a cut on the nose, while Thies lost a portion of his left ear.

J. S. Bray, a colored man, was arrested in a hand-to-hand fight on Central avenue last night and was both arrested, charged with disturbing the peace. According to the story told by both men, Andreas bought a sandwich of Brown, who keeps a lunch wagon, and then refused to pay for it. When he refused to pay, Brown assaulted him.

LUMBER RATES

Freight Officials Go to Chicago to Adjust Them.

A number of local freight officials left last evening for Chicago, where they are now in attendance upon a meeting of the Western Freight association lines called to discuss lumber rates. A recent proposal to advance lumber rates was defeated. Since then, however, trouble has resulted, and it is not unlikely that a lumber rate war may result, as no two roads are expected to submit the same report at to-day's meeting.

JOHN LIND'S PLATFORM

IT MAY BE HELD IN ABEYANCE

His Campaign Methods Will Depend Largely on Who Is His Opponent.

Hennepin county democrats who have talked with John Lind since his return from the country are satisfied. They are no longer impatient, for the period of uncertainty is past. They are sure that Mr. Lind will be an announced candidate for congress before to-morrow night as they are that the sun will rise to-morrow morning.

They do not know the reason for today's delay, but are satisfied to wait. The best guess is that the announcement will come in the form of a letter or an address to the democrats who have been beseeching him to run. This document will be in the nature of a personal platform, and therefore requires time and care in its preparation.

It would not surprise them, however, if the answer was couched in two words, the famous motto of Chicago. Governor Lind is a man of few words until he takes the platform. He would have an excellent reason, too, for postponing a declaration of principles till after the primaries. He is diametrically opposed to the principles and policy of Congressman Fletcher. If Mr. Fletcher is nominated, he will wage an aggressive warfare on tariff and reciprocity lines. Governor Lind's campaign would have to take a different tack. For that reason it may seem best to him to defer opening up on the issues till he is the nominee of his party, and knows the name of his opponent.

Prohibition Convention.

The prohibition mass convention for Hennepin county will be held Monday at 2:30 p. m. in the Portland hall, Wednesday evening, Aug. 6. Nominations for county and city and legislative offices will be made. In the evening there will be a rally and petitions of the different candidates will be circulated. There will be music, an address by Rev. Charles Scanlon, candidate for governor, and short talks by other speakers.

Political Notes.

Thomas H. Girling, candidate for the legislature, has issued invitations for a social gathering of party workers at his home in Robbdale, Wednesday evening, Aug. 6. A meeting of the Ninth Ward Republican club will be held next Tuesday evening at G. A. R. hall, Central and Twenty-fourth avenues NE. The meeting is arranged specially for the candidates before the republican primaries.

The friends of Professor J. S. Carlson of the state university are urging him to consent to become a candidate for a place on the board of education. He has not given an answer to the proposition as yet.

Secretary Thomas H. Girling of the campaign committee asks that the ward committeemen supply him with a complete list of the republican precinct committees, with the names of the chairmen, secretaries and the address of each. No dates have been set. The campaign committee must have all this information in time in order to be in position to do efficient work.

The Seventh Ward Republican club will be held on Tuesday evening, August 5, at 8 o'clock in the hall of the house on Sept. 18. It has been decided to set aside one night each to Congressman Fletcher, James A. Peterson, and one to the candidates for congress, one night for the county ticket, one for the legislative ticket and one for the gubernatorial ticket.

Thomas H. Girling, candidate for the house from the forty-fourth district, has invited his friends to a political reception to be held at home in Robbdale, Wednesday evening.

MAKING NEW VOTERS

To-morrow the Last Day to Qualify for Primaries.

The office of the clerk of the district court will be kept open to-morrow evening for the benefit of those who wish to take out their citizenship papers. Judge Brooks, Clerk Dickey and Deputy Clerk Switzer will be on hand at 7 o'clock and remain at the courthouse as long as there is anyone waiting to be naturalized. In order to vote at the primary election, foreign born citizens who are not supplied with their second papers must procure them this week. In other words, to-morrow will be the last day. The district court has been making citizens at a lively rate lately, but expects a big boom to-morrow.

Grain Company Incorporates.

The incorporation of the William Dalrymple company of Minneapolis for Grain Commission business was formally organized and launched for business to-day.

William Dalrymple, Duluth, president; Oliver Dalrymple, vice president; Frank L. Carey, secretary and treasurer. The stockholders of this corporation are wealthy men, and its president has been known as a responsible, conservative and successful grain trader for many years in Duluth and Minneapolis.
