

CITY NEWS

DOWN TO BUSINESS GUILTY OF NO CRIME "RED" TO COME GOE CO.'S ANSWER ANOTHER YEAR OF IT

WEATHER NOW AND THEN

Maximum Temperature To-day 85 Degrees; a Year Ago 78 Degrees.

Going to Photographers Meet—T. Leo, of Lee Brothers, and H. Kilmoller of the O. H. Peck company, leave to-morrow night for the national photographers convention at Buffalo, N. Y.

The Millwood Limited Robbed—H. F. Holt, a driver of a wood wagon, reported he was held up last night near Camden place and robbed of $2. The case is being investigated by Sergeant Kolenster of the North precinct.

Plans by Ernest Kennedy—Ernest Kennedy, architect in the Boston block, has drawn the plans for the new building of the Children's Home society on Dooley avenue. An error in giving the architect's name occurred in The Journal of yesterday.

Goes to Philippines—Rev. Paul Doeltz will preach in Oliver Presbyterian church to-morrow morning at evening. Mr. Doeltz will leave next week for Manila, P. I., where he will be installed as pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Mr. Doeltz is a graduate of the south high school.

Fruit Record Broken—Records in west coast fruit receipts for the season were broken this week, according to figures in the Commercial club. The total of thirty-six cars, however, had no influence on prices. Plums, peaches and pears constituted the bulk of fruit received.

Washburn Hill Sales—The deed transferring to John Crosby the lot on Washburn hill, next west of M. Pillsbury, at Stevens and Twenty-second street, was filed yesterday. This makes effective the sale of the first three lots in this new dwelling property developed by David P. Jones & Co. The price was $10,000.

Mid-week Half-Holidays—Three East Side firms on Fourth street will close a half-day each week this month. The first half holiday was given Thursday with good results and without injury to the business. Notices were sent to customers several days ahead of time. The three firms are Larrabee Brothers, M. F. Hinch and C. Eastman.

New Glass Company—The Pease-Stafford Glass company was incorporated yesterday at $1,400,000 with a liability limit of $300,000. The incorporators are made officers as follows: President, Roger S. Pease; vice president, Levi B. Pease; secretary and treasurer, Lac Stafford. The fourth incorporator is Oscar Stafford.

The Courthouse Picnic—The annual picnic of the courthouse colony will be held next Saturday at Spring Park. General Manager Christie visited the city hall to-day and extended a general invitation to the denizens to participate in the picnic, and issued a deft to meet on the baseball diamond in the time honored contest. Tickets for the picnic are to be had of Mr. Christie at the courthouse.

He Was Topheavy—John Hendrickson, a laborer, became intoxicated this afternoon and was being taken up the stairs at the Pioneer hotel, Second street and Nicollet. He was picked up by a balance and fell. He was picked up unconscious and taken to the city hospital in the patrol wagon from the central police station. He had a bad cut on the head and a possible fracture of the skull.

Charged With Embezzlement—Ernest Himeberger, a young man who was employed as cashier for the Malmstedt company, was arraigned in police court this morning charged with taking $800 of his employers' money. He waived examination and was granted a $10,000 bond under $1,000 cash. It is alleged that the amount was taken in small sums covering a period of nearly ten months.

Cream Not Up to Standard—The annual inspection of the milk supply of Minneapolis is giving some astonishing results, inasmuch as the cream delivered in the city is not up to the required standard while the milk test is excellent. The milk tests from 3.5 to 5 per cent butter fat, while a great deal of the cream does not test the required 20 per cent butter fat. Dairymen are at a loss to know how to explain this condition.

Booths Fined for Gambling—Louis Yager and Bennie Goldberg, two boothkeepers, were in police court this morning charged with gambling with dice. They were members of a gang of boys caught "shooting craps" in an alley yesterday by Detective Vain. The boys say they were simply watching the game and had no money to gamble with. Judge Dickinson fined them each $1 and warned them to keep away from such games in the future.

NECROLOGICAL

MRS. CATHERINE BYRNES, wife of the late Thomas Byrnes, died this morning. Mrs. Byrnes has been a resident of Minneapolis since 1857. She leaves eight children to mourn her loss. Funeral from Church of Ascension parish, Monday at 9 a. m.

GUST HULTMAN—Funeral of Gust Hultman, who died Thursday at his residence, 2540 Fourteenth avenue S., Sunday, at 3 p. m., will be held at the Swedish Temple, Tenth avenue and Seventh street, Internment at Layman's cemetery.

FRANCES E. FISHER, aged 15, daughter of Mrs. Nellie L. Fisher, 1212 Eighth street S., died this morning of typhoid fever. Funeral notice later.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of B. P. Nord extends grateful thanks to the Brick-layers' union and all of his and our friends for their expressed sympathies in our recent bereavement. Mr. and Mrs. Nord.

PRIVILEGES IN DEMAND

A Big, Brisk Sale at the State Fair Grounds. Bright skies helped make the scene at the state fair grounds to-day a picturesque one. It was the occasion of the annual privilege sale. Spaces were for sale to be occupied by those who will provide refreshments or cater by some sort of amusement to the throngs attending the fair.

The demand for these spaces has been brisk of late years and to-day there was a large crowd assembled when the sale opened at 9 a. m. There were persons from every part of the state. The state lady president of the church society which sought the privilege of running a refreshment stand, to the Italian fakir who had a table of magic, and from which he had hopes of wealth. Under the management of Lyman D. Baird, superintendent of privileges, the sale progressed rapidly. Prices were 100 per cent above those paid last year. Bidding was lively and the auctioneer and his clerk were kept busy handling the offers. It was noticeable that the character of the concessionaires average much better than usual. The increased value of the privileges will tend to keep away all but the best class.

Long before the sale was closed it was estimated that the total receipts from privileges this year would reach at least $15,000. President Cosgrove, Vice President Smith and various members of the board of managers were on hand during the day.

Those in Charge of Employers and Employees' Convention.

MEETING OF GENERAL COMMITTEE Commercial Club Through Public Affairs Committee Expected to Take Hold.

Preparations for the convention of employers and employees to be held in Minneapolis early in September will probably be actively undertaken at a public meeting to be held at 7 o'clock to-morrow at the Commercial club. The club, through its public affairs committee, will be asked to lend active support to the project.

The great attention to be given to the lines that marked the recent educational association meeting. It was announced at a meeting of the general convention committee this morning that arrangements had progressed so far already that Minneapolis could not afford to withhold substantial backing without discredit to the city. This situation is due partly to the fact that every city of importance in the United States has already been notified that such a convention is to be held. The leading representatives of capital and labor are coming to Minneapolis on questions of vital interest to employer and employee have already been interested in the convention. Many of them have signed their willingness to contribute.

Railroad Rate Problem. George Rockwell, secretary of the general committee, explained that the question that demanded immediate settlement, as affecting the success of the convention, is that of the railroad rates. The railroads, he explained, were unwilling to make any definite concessions as to reduced rates until some satisfactory assurances could be given as to the probable attendance. He thought that a conservative estimate was 5,000, mostly from within a radius of from 500 to 700 miles.

It is felt that the Commercial club should take hold of the plans for the convention and look after the details necessary to its success.

SUCCESSFUL EXCURSION

First of Series of Twin City and N. W. Merchants' Association.

The first of the merchants' special fall excursion to the twin cities under the auspices of the Twin City and Northwestern Merchants' association, closed to-day. Frank H. Forbes, assistant secretary for Minneapolis, estimates that about 500 merchants from the five northwestern states have taken advantage of the one and one-half fare which has been in effect since July 21.

It is felt that the Commercial club should take hold of the plans for the convention and look after the details necessary to its success.

LOCAL POLITICS

A CHASKA CANDIDATE P. W. Morrison Would Like to Go to Congress.

P. W. Morrison of Chaska, county attorney of Carver county, was in St. Paul to-day. He is a full fledged candidate for the republican congressional nomination in the Bemidji district on the merger platform. Ed Haly of Red Lake Falls is mentioned as candidate against him. Dr. N. M. Watson of Red Lake Falls and L. H. Bailey of Bemidji are thinking about it.

COMMITTEES MUST HUSTLE

To Get Lists of Election Judges into City Clerk's Hands. City Clerk Lydard started a panic in the republican and democratic county committees to-day. He notified George L. Matchen, chairman of the republican committee, and Ed Haly, chairman of the democratic committee, that lists of election judges must be in his hands in time for the council meeting next Friday night.

MANAGERS NOT WORRIED

Local Heads for Packing Houses Not Anxious About Changes. Managers of local branches of the big meat packers are not worrying about their positions. They admit that they know nothing more about the plans of the head men than does the general public.

BACK TO UNION STATION

Change of the Northern Pacific is Definitely Announced. G. W. McNeill, local passenger agent of the Northern Pacific, announced this morning commencing with Wednesday, Sept. 1, 1902, all Northern Pacific trains on the main line will arrive and depart from the Minneapolis union station instead of from the Milwaukee station as at present. This change will not affect the Northern Pacific's Duluth short line trains, which will continue to use the Milwaukee station as heretofore.

MR. HASTINGS MISQUOTED

His View of Philippine Leadership as Stated by Himself. An interview in Thursday's Journal contained a misquotation of A. W. Hastings' remarks on the future leadership in the Philippines. Mr. Hastings' view of this subject is as follows: "I met many highly educated natives in the supreme court and other places of honor, but these men are not the leaders of the masses. I believe that if the people were given self-government at this time, such men as Aguinaldo would have the governing power rather than the highly educated men."

AL J. SMITH RETIRES

The Gardner Appeal Will Be His Last Work. Al J. Smith, first assistant county attorney since January, 1901, severed his connection with the office yesterday in accordance with the arrangements between himself and County Attorney Boardman. He does not, however, withdraw entirely from the county service, as he will look after the county's interests in the appeal of Irwin A. Gardner to the supreme court.

Judge Harvey Objects to Treatment of Insane as Criminals.

STONG TALK TO COUNTY BOARD No Place of Detention for Insane Pending Examination by Court.

Hot under the collar because no accommodations have been provided for his wards, Judge F. C. Harvey of the probate court made a vigorous talk to the county commissioners last night. The law says expressly that suitable quarters for the detention of insane people must be provided in county jails. The Hennepin county commissioners have never provided such quarters. There is a room called the insane ward, but it is a place of bars, bolts and locks, and is exactly like the big cell room except in size. It is a jail and does not comply with the law.

Months ago Judge Harvey began to urge the commissioners in the cause of humanity to provide a proper place for the unfortunate who come to him every day, but not a single move has been made.

To-day a young man from La O. Wis., who was suffering from an insane melancholia, was brought to jail. There was nothing that the jailer could do except to put him behind the bars in a cell. Then the jailer, who was angry and angry, became violent, and tossed and struggled about his iron barred cell like a madman.

When taken before Judge Harvey the poor fellow became quite rational again under the soothing influence of kind treatment and ordinary surroundings.

It was issued by Chief of Police and Looked Like a "Stall." A beautifully exact and execrably precise manner way of doing official business prevailed under the Fred W. Ames' administration of police affairs, even if the results did not speak volumes for the man. Thomas Lowry expressed an interesting sample copy to light the other day as former assistant county attorney Al J. Smith was cleaning up his desk preparatory to leaving the county attorney's office for his new position in the United States district attorney.

GOING TO SHANGHAI

John E. Rollins to Manage an American Plant There. John E. Rollins of the Gilmore-Rollins Machinery Manufacturing company leaves Minneapolis to-night for Shanghai, China, where he will make his residence. Mr. Rollins will take charge of the new mechanical plant which the Crane Manufacturing company of Chicago is about to install in Shanghai to enter into active competition with European manufacturers for the trade of the orient.

The Crane company has long contemplated an active invasion of the extreme east, and with growing American supremacy in the Orient, China, it is now felt that the company will be in a much better position to handle the business direct than from American factories.

LOCAL POLITICS

A CHASKA CANDIDATE

P. W. Morrison Would Like to Go to Congress.

P. W. Morrison of Chaska, county attorney of Carver county, was in St. Paul to-day. He is a full fledged candidate for the republican congressional nomination in the Bemidji district on the merger platform. Ed Haly of Red Lake Falls is mentioned as candidate against him. Dr. N. M. Watson of Red Lake Falls and L. H. Bailey of Bemidji are thinking about it.

COMMITTEES MUST HUSTLE

To Get Lists of Election Judges into City Clerk's Hands. City Clerk Lydard started a panic in the republican and democratic county committees to-day. He notified George L. Matchen, chairman of the republican committee, and Ed Haly, chairman of the democratic committee, that lists of election judges must be in his hands in time for the council meeting next Friday night.

MANAGERS NOT WORRIED

Local Heads for Packing Houses Not Anxious About Changes. Managers of local branches of the big meat packers are not worrying about their positions. They admit that they know nothing more about the plans of the head men than does the general public.

BACK TO UNION STATION

Change of the Northern Pacific is Definitely Announced. G. W. McNeill, local passenger agent of the Northern Pacific, announced this morning commencing with Wednesday, Sept. 1, 1902, all Northern Pacific trains on the main line will arrive and depart from the Minneapolis union station instead of from the Milwaukee station as at present. This change will not affect the Northern Pacific's Duluth short line trains, which will continue to use the Milwaukee station as heretofore.

MR. HASTINGS MISQUOTED

His View of Philippine Leadership as Stated by Himself. An interview in Thursday's Journal contained a misquotation of A. W. Hastings' remarks on the future leadership in the Philippines. Mr. Hastings' view of this subject is as follows: "I met many highly educated natives in the supreme court and other places of honor, but these men are not the leaders of the masses. I believe that if the people were given self-government at this time, such men as Aguinaldo would have the governing power rather than the highly educated men."

AL J. SMITH RETIRES

The Gardner Appeal Will Be His Last Work. Al J. Smith, first assistant county attorney since January, 1901, severed his connection with the office yesterday in accordance with the arrangements between himself and County Attorney Boardman. He does not, however, withdraw entirely from the county service, as he will look after the county's interests in the appeal of Irwin A. Gardner to the supreme court.

Chief Ames Says Cohen Will Testify in His Defense.

AN ORDER AND INDOREMENTS It Was Issued by Chief of Police and Looked Like a "Stall."

An important affidavit was served on the county attorney this afternoon in support of Colonel Ames' motion for a continuance of the cases against him until the September term of court.

As a principal reason for the delay it is stated that Joseph (Red) Cohen is one of Colonel Ames' chief witnesses, that Cohen has gone east and will not return until about Sept. 15, and that he will testify to the effect that Addie Mills never gave him (Cohen) money for the amount for protection. Editorials from The Journal and The Times are quoted to show an alleged inflated state of public sentiment.

If Cohen testifies as it is said in the affidavit he will, Irwin A. Gardner may have something to say on the other side.

RED TAPE METHODS

Sample of Way Things Were Done Under Col. Ames.

AN ORDER AND INDOREMENTS It Was Issued by Chief of Police and Looked Like a "Stall."

A beautifully exact and execrably precise manner way of doing official business prevailed under the Fred W. Ames' administration of police affairs, even if the results did not speak volumes for the man. Thomas Lowry expressed an interesting sample copy to light the other day as former assistant county attorney Al J. Smith was cleaning up his desk preparatory to leaving the county attorney's office for his new position in the United States district attorney.

HAL MEN HARD HIT

1902 an Off Year for About All the Companies.

Storms More Numerous and Much More Destructive Than in the Good Year 1901.

From a Staff Correspondent. Huron, S. D., Aug. 2.—This is an "off year" for hall insurance companies doing business in the northwest. Hall storms have been so numerous and so destructive that the balance sheet for many companies at the end of the year will lack the fat showing of 1901.

Hall companies have big forces of adjusters in all parts of the northwest making the final round-up on damaged grain. This has necessitated the drafting into service of about every available man capable of adjusting a hall loss.

No part of the three states in the central northwest has been exempt from hail this season. While the recent storm appears to have spared the ribbon for the largest hail swept district, every section has been visited. Comparatively small storms which sweep down and demolish out a few bushes and acres have been numerous, more so than in any recent years. These have occasioned much loss in South Dakota and southern Minnesota.

The aggregate loss to the insurance companies and the farmer is large. There are communities which seem to have a faithful hoodoo coaxing the hail their way. The recent storms in northern Minnesota and North Dakota swept through grain districts which have been frequently visited in the past six years and at the same time fearlessly skipping over the ribbon which has been a rarity. On the other hand, communities in southern Minnesota have lost grain from hail this season for the first time in a portion of the crop.

First Indorsement—Headquarters Minneapolis Police Department, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to his honor, Mayor A. A. Ames.

Second Indorsement—Mayor's office, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to Fred W. Ames, superintendent of police, with instructions to have the enclosed information laid before the grand jury by A. L. Gardner, license inspector.

Third Indorsement—Headquarters Minneapolis Police Department, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to A. L. Gardner, license inspector, with instructions to lay the enclosed information before the grand jury of Hennepin county.

Fourth Indorsement—Office License Inspector, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to A. L. Gardner, license inspector.

Fifth Indorsement—Mayor's office, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to Fred W. Ames, superintendent of police, with instructions to have the enclosed information laid before the grand jury by A. L. Gardner, license inspector.

Sixth Indorsement—Office License Inspector, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to A. L. Gardner, license inspector.

Seventh Indorsement—Office License Inspector, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to A. L. Gardner, license inspector.

Eighth Indorsement—Office License Inspector, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to A. L. Gardner, license inspector.

ORE BARGES ON MICHIGAN.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—An extensive line of ore barges, operating from the iron mines of northern Michigan and Wisconsin, are being sent south to Chicago and their terminals for ore consigned through lower lake ports. It is not a new venture, but simply an enlargement of cars without breaking bulk. From South Chicago the ore will go east over the big trunk lines for distribution to Pennsylvania and Ohio.

The Wisconsin & Michigan railway is furthering the project, and has recently decided to spend $2,000,000 in carrying out its plans.

FORGOT WHERE HE WAS AT.

Philadelphia Times. Joseph Jefferson has a fund of stories concerning the late William F. Florence, who for years was a prominent actor in the theater as a distinctive trait. He never could resist the appeal of the audience and would make the mistake of going on that he say something, either before or after the "tag." When he and Jefferson were co-stars and were playing through New England, they appeared one evening in a Connecticut town that gave them a large and very friendly audience. The performance was received with favor from beginning to end, and, as both stars bowed their good-nights, there came a cry of "Speech! Speech!" from the audience. Florence stepped forward and began: "It is to you I owe all the success I have attained in my profession. It was the early evening of the 1st of August, here I was a boy. I know you all. I can never forget the kindness that has been showered upon me by the people of Hartford."

"This, Mr. Florence, is New Haven, if you please!" just here came from a man in the audience.

NOT ONLY FARMERS.

Remember, Johnny, it is the farmers who pray for rain. "Not always. When we go out 'see de water' we pray for rain so we'll have a chance to get a rain check an' see a decent game."

RESTING EASIER

No Hope Held Out for Recovery of Dr. Beardshair. Special to The Journal. Iowa Aug. 2.—Dr. Beardshair, president of the Iowa State college, passed a more comfortable night than he has for some time and is resting easier to-day. His physicians are hopeful that his system is filled with uric acid, caused by inaction of the kidneys owing to weak action of the heart, which may result in convulsions and death.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

BUGGY AT A BARGAIN. FINE BANGOR buggy, newly painted, in first condition, for $75; can be seen at DeWanna's Carriage Co., 215 5th st.

To Complaint of the Chicago Board of Trade.

Company Says Board Has No Exclusive Control—Other Lines of Defense.

From a Staff Correspondent. Huron, S. D., Aug. 2.—Crop results have practically assured another year of activity in southern Minnesota and South Dakota lands. There is every indication that values on good lands will be supported, if they do not go some higher in the next twelve months. This, assuming that general prosperity holds somewhere near its present satisfactory level.

While northwestern people have been marveling at immigration results and the rapid advance in cheap lands in the newer sections, many of them have lost sight of the fact that in southern Minnesota and the older sections of South Dakota much high grade land has changed hands at steadily increasing prices. One of the present boasts of business men and farmers in the southern Minnesota counties is the high price being paid for their land.

While some of this is for speculation, most of it is purchased by people intending to make southern Minnesota their home.

In about all of the southern counties transfers have been made with the consideration as high as $60 an acre. Many sales have been made at $40. A large percentage of the buyers have been rich farmers from Illinois. Southern Minnesota lands are in such high favor with Illinois farmers that Illinois real estate men are locating in southern Minnesota towns and are doing a thriving business.

Lands are selling equally as high in the two southern tiers of counties in South Dakota. But a few days ago a sale was made in Yankton county at $82 an acre. Most of the good land in that part of the state is held at an average of from $40 to $45. The newcomers in that region are from Iowa. In conversation with eleven farmers at Yankton there was no hint from any that their land could possibly be worth less than $45 an acre. One man said he would sell his farm, which he had for $50 an acre. He homesteaded 160 acres years ago and bought the other forty at $8 an acre. This land is paying from $1,800 to $2,200 a year over living expenses for the farmer and his family. It is worth $50 an acre to the Iowa farmer who wants to settle in South Dakota. It promises no big things to the speculator.

A good farmer living fifteen miles west of Woonsocket has just sold his 1,000-acre farm for $20,000. The Iowa buyer wants a stock ranch. Many of the lands in the Company Says Board Has No Exclusive Control—Other Lines of Defense.

Answer in the case of the Board of Trade of Chicago against the Coe Commission company of this city, an alleged "bucket shop" concern, another wage has been filed with the clerk of the federal court.

The defendants deny that the selling or disposing of quotations made in the usual course of business upon change has ever been a part of the business of any Board of Trade or Chamber of Commerce or that the Chicago board is exclusive in its right to have special or exclusive rights to quotations offered upon the floor. It is alleged that these are public property and that the greatest publicity and always has been given such quotations. The defendants expressly deny that the complainant has the charter right to suppress quotations publicly made, or to deny any person the right to buy or sell such quotations as he may see fit.

The Commission company, although still denying the right of the Chicago board to sell these quotations, stated that it has offered to pay the complainant and the Western Union company for the service and has been refused.

The answer contains the defendant's definition of the term "bucket-shop." A desire to secure to its members a monopoly of the business of placing and accepting orders as to the purchase and sale of modified deals in the alleged reason for the activity of the complainant in seeking to suppress competitors designated in the "red list" of the board.

It is further alleged that the business of the Coe company is absolutely identical with the majority of the transactions on the floor of the board of Trade. It is further alleged that 85 per cent of these exchange transactions are for future delivery and that 98 per cent of all said transactions in future are "made" orders. The regular defense is the denial of the Coe company that it acquires its partial quotations through theft or in a surreptitious manner.

HAL MEN HARD HIT

1902 an Off Year for About All the Companies.

Storms More Numerous and Much More Destructive Than in the Good Year 1901.

From a Staff Correspondent. Huron, S. D., Aug. 2.—This is an "off year" for hall insurance companies doing business in the northwest. Hall storms have been so numerous and so destructive that the balance sheet for many companies at the end of the year will lack the fat showing of 1901.

Hall companies have big forces of adjusters in all parts of the northwest making the final round-up on damaged grain. This has necessitated the drafting into service of about every available man capable of adjusting a hall loss.

No part of the three states in the central northwest has been exempt from hail this season. While the recent storm appears to have spared the ribbon for the largest hail swept district, every section has been visited. Comparatively small storms which sweep down and demolish out a few bushes and acres have been numerous, more so than in any recent years. These have occasioned much loss in South Dakota and southern Minnesota.

The aggregate loss to the insurance companies and the farmer is large. There are communities which seem to have a faithful hoodoo coaxing the hail their way. The recent storms in northern Minnesota and North Dakota swept through grain districts which have been frequently visited in the past six years and at the same time fearlessly skipping over the ribbon which has been a rarity. On the other hand, communities in southern Minnesota have lost grain from hail this season for the first time in a portion of the crop.

First Indorsement—Headquarters Minneapolis Police Department, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to his honor, Mayor A. A. Ames.

Second Indorsement—Mayor's office, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to Fred W. Ames, superintendent of police, with instructions to have the enclosed information laid before the grand jury by A. L. Gardner, license inspector.

Third Indorsement—Headquarters Minneapolis Police Department, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to A. L. Gardner, license inspector, with instructions to lay the enclosed information before the grand jury of Hennepin county.

Fourth Indorsement—Office License Inspector, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to A. L. Gardner, license inspector.

Fifth Indorsement—Mayor's office, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to Fred W. Ames, superintendent of police, with instructions to have the enclosed information laid before the grand jury by A. L. Gardner, license inspector.

Sixth Indorsement—Office License Inspector, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to A. L. Gardner, license inspector.

Seventh Indorsement—Office License Inspector, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to A. L. Gardner, license inspector.

Eighth Indorsement—Office License Inspector, Minneapolis, Minn., May 6, 1901.—Respectfully referred to A. L. Gardner, license inspector.

Activity in Lands Assured in Southern Minn. and S. D.

SOME OF THE FANCY PRICES PAID Danger of Disappointments in the General Speculation in the Poorer Lands.

From a Staff Correspondent. Huron, S. D., Aug. 2.—Crop results have practically assured another year of activity in southern Minnesota and South Dakota lands. There is every indication that values on good lands will be supported, if they do not go some higher in the next twelve months. This, assuming that general prosperity holds somewhere near its present satisfactory level.

While northwestern people have been marveling at immigration results and the rapid advance in cheap lands in the newer sections, many of them have lost sight of the fact that in southern Minnesota and the older sections of South Dakota much high grade land has changed hands at steadily increasing prices. One of the present boasts of business men and farmers in the southern Minnesota counties is the high price being paid for their land.

While some of this is for speculation, most of it is purchased by people intending to make southern Minnesota their home.

In about all of the southern counties transfers have been made with the consideration as high as $60 an acre. Many sales have been made at $40. A large percentage of the buyers have been rich farmers from Illinois. Southern Minnesota lands are in such high favor with Illinois farmers that Illinois real estate men are locating in southern Minnesota towns and are doing a thriving business.

Lands are selling equally as high in the two southern tiers of counties in South Dakota. But a few days ago a sale was made in Yankton county at $82 an acre. Most of the good land in that part of the state is held at an average of from $40 to $45. The newcomers in that region are from Iowa. In conversation with eleven farmers at Yankton there was no hint from any that their land could possibly be worth less than $45 an acre. One man said he would sell his farm, which he had for $50 an acre. He homesteaded 160 acres years ago and bought the other forty at $8 an acre. This land is paying from $1,800 to $2,200 a year over living expenses for the farmer and his family. It is worth $50 an acre to the Iowa farmer who wants to settle in South Dakota. It promises no big things to the speculator.

A good farmer living fifteen miles west of Woonsocket has just sold his 1,000-acre farm for $20,000. The Iowa buyer wants a stock ranch. Many of the lands in the Company Says Board Has No Exclusive Control—Other Lines of Defense.