

FOOTBALL STILL IN THE DARK

Football Men Can Clean Little Information From Scores Made During Last Week.

Case's Score Against Michigan Indicates a Weakness in Defense of the Wolverine Eleven.

Little information was gleaned from last Saturday's football games in the west. True, the two favorites for championship honors, Michigan and Wisconsin, were scored by their respective teams, but Michigan showed her usual speed in scoring, while Wisconsin demonstrated that her team had made considerable advance in offensive work.

In both cases the scores made against these teams seem to have the merit of mere news, and in neither instance any fundamental weakness evinced. It often happens that the strongest teams of the west are defeated by weaker opponents, and the cause is generally a fault of which the opposing eleven takes quick advantage, or possibly a tackle by the back who guards the goal.

Gopher Athletes All Turn Down the Proposition—A Grave Breach of Etiquette.

Nothing is more to be regretted than the injection of professional tactics into an supposedly amateur sport. Of all outdoor games one of the cleanest has always been that of college and high school football. The scrambling and blocking over promising athletes, in which the Universities of Chicago and Michigan have indulged this fall, is almost entirely devoid of the nobility of all sports.

American HULLED BEANS

"All the Bean but the Armor Plate"

Are just selected white beans with the hulls removed, retaining all the nutritious and digestible portions, eliminating the woody, fibrous outer covering, which is non-digestible and causes fermentation.

The Result is a food that is a revelation to the house-keeper and the lover of good things to eat.

They are cooked in two hours, less than half the time of ordinary beans, thus saving fuel and delay.

AMERICAN HULLED BEANS—A REVELATION IN FOOD

are prepared ONLY by us from choicest, hand-picked white beans, by means of specially patented machinery, which removes the tough, leathery hulls and leaves the meat of the bean intact.

DAN PATCH IS TOO SLOW

Unbeaten Pacer Fails by Nearly Four Seconds to Lower the World's Record.

Dan Patch, with McHenry up, failed yesterday to lower his record on the Oakley track, at Lincoln, when he was asked to make the pacer go a mile in 2:05 on a dry, soft track in the raw atmosphere.

The Ohio pacer for 2:11 trotters, and the 2:06 pace, postponed from Saturday, went to Anselma and Fannie Dillard, respectively.

Major Delmar, a 2:08 pacer, was first in the 2:11 trotting event of the grand circuit meeting, which came to a close with yesterday's racing. Major Delmar won the first mile in 2:08, and was beaten in a nose finish by Rhythmic. Anselma took the three last heats in clever fashion.

First Race.—The Ohio pacer for 2:11 trotters; best three in five heats; value $10,000. Anselma, b. m., by Antrim-Hazel (Kirby-Sander), 2 4 7 1 1 1. Major Delmar, b. g. (S. McDonnell), 2 1 2 1 2 3. Rhythmic, b. h. (S. Hudson), 8 1 4 7 9 3. The King, b. g. (S. J. Curry), 8 3 2 3 8 9. (Grandstand.) Best three in five heats; value $10,000. Special against time (world's pacer record), 1:58 1/4. Dan Patch, 1:59 1/4, blk. h., by Joe Patch-on-Ham (McHenry). Time by quarter: .31, 1.00 1/4, 1.31 1/4, 2.02. Second Race.—2:06 pace, purse $10,000; best three in five heats; value $10,000. Fannie Dillard, b. m., by Hal Dillard; Ella M. (S. Shaw), 3 1 1 1. Little Sober, b. m. (S. Curtis), 1 3 2 1 2. Powell, b. g. (S. McDonnell), 5 2 3 3 3. Nathan Starn, b. m. (S. McDonnell), 2 1 1 1. The Bishop, Don Riley and Lottie Smart also started.

The entire racing establishment of Charles and A. J. Reed was sold at auction at Sheepshead Bay yesterday. The stable included many well-known turf performers and the prices realized were fair.

When the great stallion, Imp. Knight of the Thistle, was led into the ring, Colonel Chinn started the bidding at $5,000 and Miller Young offered $11,000. Wheelock, the well-known bookmaker, bid $15,000. Young came back with a bid of $16,000, and R. H. McCarter Potter, owner of the Pequest stud, bid $18,000 and secured the horse. E. J. Rees, the business manager of Rosebery-The Empress Stud, bid $20,000. The horse was sold to the latter by Rosebery-The Empress Stud. He imported chestnut horse St. Blaise, 22. He died after a few feeble efforts to stand a defeat. Temple, easily crossed his right to the leg again and Beauchoite was counted out.

In the preliminary, George Monroe, of Chicago, won the decision over Billy Finnucan, after six rounds of fast fighting. It was a close referee.

"Kid" Farmer obtained the decision over Charles Forbes in six rounds. Farmer is a lightweight and Forbes a feather-weight.

BOWLING

Last night the All-American bowling team arrived in Racine, Wis., and was given an ovation. They played against four of the best bowlers in Racine and defeated them by a score of 2:16 to 2:18, in five games. The Racines tied in only one frame. The All-Americans who played were Selbach, Peterson, Wolfe and Voorhes. For Racine, Geunther, Thomas, Steele and Rerriberger.
