HIS FRIENDS THE "CONS"
Bloomington Car Line Conductors Give Rev. Charles Fox Davis a Hand-some Souvenir.

Rev. Charles Fox Davis of the Bloomington Avenue M. E. church, is known by his good works all along the Bloomington avenue car line. In his five years' service in that district he has met about every street car conductor on that line. He has been brought into such close contact and has cultivated such intimate relations with them that among all his friends none were more sorry to hear of his departure soon for Duluth, where he will take charge of a Lester Park church.

These conductors decided to give the pastor a substantial evidence of their high regard for him. When he responded to an invitation to meet a delegation of conductors at the Bloomington car barns, Bloomington avenue and Thirty-second street, last evening, he was presented a handsome gold watch, appropriately engraved. Mr. Davis was deeply affected by this sincere token of appreciation from his casual friends, and in responding assured them that he would always cherish the occasion a one of the pleasant incidents of his Minneapolis experience.

HE HAD A "FIT"
Traverse City, Mich., Oct. 2.—After being out 22 1/2 hours, a jury to-day found John A. Hargrave guilty of manslaughter. Hargrave last April choked his invalid wife and beat her to death in a bedroom in his house. His principal defense was that if he killed the woman he did it while having a fit, to which he was subject, and he remembered nothing of it.
