Did You Ever See Iron Pyrites?

It looks like gold, so like it that its other name is "Fool's Gold."

Not one test given gold, though, will iron pyrites stand.

Much the same way with other malt extracts.

They resemble Johann Hoff's. Look like it, but there is one difference—a great difference—none of them will do what Johann Hoff's will.

One dozen bottles of the genuine give as much strength and nourishment as a cask of ale, without being intoxicating.

JOHANN HOFF'S EXTRACT

Insist on JOHANN HOFF'S or you will be imposed upon. No other is "just as good."

Confidence of Youth

The thing that breaks self-confidence is failure under early trials. With boys and girls early trials are almost wholly matters of strength, physical strength or brain power. If you would preserve that precious self-reliance with which your boy and girl should grow up to face life's duties, see that you make them first of all sound and healthy. Most weaknesses start in poor blood, and indigestion. The griddle and frying pan leave their marks on thousands of men and women who are struggling far from success and happiness.

Be fair to your children, who can not choose for themselves. Give them Apitezo, a food which makes growth and strength, pure blood and strong brains—sound health and light hearts.

Apitezo, the new biscuit cereal, the only food that gives plant iron enough to make rich, red blood.

Grocers sell Apitezo—for 15 cents a package. Substitution is impossible. You must get Apitezo to get the Apitezo goodness.

E. J. JAMES IS PRESIDENT

Formal exercises of Installation Take Place at Evanston

To-day.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Northwestern university to-day installed Edmund James as president of that institution, and the installation ceremonies were witnessed by a large number of the most prominent educators of the United States, while leading men from all parts of the world were present.

The exercises began with a formal reception of delegates and official guests in the hall at 10 o'clock. Dr. James gave a welcome to the delegates on behalf of the university corporation. By Oliver Harvey Horton, LL. D., first vice president of the board of trustees; Nathan Smith Davis, M. D., M. D., dean of the medical school, welcomed the visitors on behalf of the faculties, while Mayor Patten of Evanston, on behalf of the city, extended the hospitality of the municipality to the guests.

Responses were made by Dr. Gunsaulus of Armour Institute; President John W. Cook of the Northern Illinois State Normal school; Simon Newcomb, Ph. D., of the University of Pennsylvania; President James Roscoe Day of Syracuse university; President Richard Henry Jesso of the University of Missouri; John Huston Finley, LL. D., of Princeton; and President Leo Stanton Rowe of the American Academy of Political and Social Science.

At noon luncheon was served the official guests and other visitors in the assembly room of Orrington Hall.

At 2 o'clock the faculty, students and guests, attired in caps and gowns, assembled in front of Lunt library and marched to the First Methodist Episcopal church, where the formal exercises of installation took place. The services at the church opened with a prayer by Bishop Stephen M. Merrill, after which Judge Horton delivered an address and performed the solemn inaugural services. President James stood with bowed head while the words which were to make him president of Northwestern university were being spoken, and a moment later he took the oath of office and the ceremonies were over.

Responses were made by Professor Daniel Bonbright of the college of liberal arts; Rev. Frank M. Bristol, pastor of the Metropolitan M. E. church, Washington, D. C., and Eddy S. Brandt, who spoke for the senior class of the college of liberal arts.

At the close of the formal ceremonies President James delivered his inaugural address, in which he reviewed at length the history of Northwestern university, its present needs, and outlined the policy of his administration.

A reception at the university building will be given this evening to the visiting delegates by President and Mrs. James.

RED SEA PIRATES

Italian Gunboats Chase Them to Cover.

Constantinople, Oct. 21.—Red sea pirates have been raiding the island of Dahlak, in the group belonging to Massowah capital of the Italian colony of Eritrea. Two Italian gunboats which were sent in pursuit of them cornered the pirates at the island of Midra, off the Lohela (Arabia) coast, which the Italians had bombarded. The gunboats afterward proceeded to Hodeida (the most flourishing seaport of Yemen) and demanded reparation. The port has promised the officials of the Italian embassy to take measures to arrest the culprits. In the meanwhile the commander of the Italian gunboats threatens, unless prompt reparation is accorded, that he will himself take the action necessary to obtain it.

SHAVING ON SUNDAY

Conviction at La Crosse Where It Is Held Not a Necessity.

La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 21.—In a decision handed down to-day, Judge Fruit of the circuit court decided that shaving on Sunday was not a necessity if it was done in a public shop.

In the case of the state vs. Rice, the defendant was charged with violating the state laws, which provides that none but necessary work be done. Rice shaved a man in his shop on Sunday, and was arrested for it. The attorney for the defense argued that it was necessary for a man to be shaved on Sunday in order to make himself presentable to go to church.

HE RAMMED A TREE

Story of Mr. Spencer's Airship Trip Yesterday.

London, Oct. 21.—Mr. Spencer, the aeronaut, made another trip yesterday, largely with the wind. He traveled twenty-six miles, and descended near Preston. There was a good breeze when he ascended. When he was about a thousand feet high he made several evolutions against the wind, and finally sailed off in the direction the wind was blowing. When he was descending he found that he was over a railroad, with his trailing rope dangling among the telegraph lines along the line. An express train was approaching and Mr. Spencer shouted for the engineer to stop. The latter shouted in reply: "Stop your air ship." Mr. Spencer rammed a tree, but no serious damage was done.

BROKEN HEART PATCHED

Very Delicate Operation Performed in New York.

New York, Oct. 21.—One of the rarest operations known to surgery—the sewing up a severed ventricle of a human heart—has been performed at Bellevue hospital. The patient was Annie Kingsley, who was stabbed by her husband during a quarrel on the street. She was thought to be dying when the ambulance reached the hospital. The blood was pouring from a long wound in the left ventricle which supplies the body with blood, while the right pumps to the lungs. The surgeons knew the flow must be checked at once if the woman was to be saved.

The operation was decided upon. It was performed by two surgeons, with fifteen more looking on. The heart was laid bare and the surgeons saw that the wound was very severe. It would require six stitches. During intervals between the beats of the heart the needle was inserted six times and the flow of blood was stopped. The wound was carefully dressed and the surgeons waited to see the result. The patient rallied rapidly and the surgeons expressed the belief that she will recover. Mrs. Kingsley left her husband three months ago. When her husband met her for the first time he appealed to her to return to their home. She says it was her intention to do so, but she did not reply at once and her husband stabbed her. She was carried to the hospital and the husband ran away. He was captured a few hours later.

THE CHURCH CRITICIZED

President Harper Tells What Is the Matter With It.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Civilians in connection with the inauguration of the Rev. Joseph M. George, D. D., as president of the Chicago Theological seminary, began yesterday.

President Harper in his address arraigned the present day church on the charge of ultraneity and asserted that the ordinary theological seminary creates in the student a spirit of superior exclusiveness which is reflected in his character.

"The mass of the laboring people feel kindly toward Jesus Christ," said Dr. Harper, "but hate the church. We may say that they are not justified in this. We must, however, deal with the facts. The church has alienated alike the poor and wealthy classes, and is alienating what may be called the intellectual class. Jesus' working and teachings were for all classes."

Many failures have been prevented by the constant use of Journal want ads. Try them, read them and you will learn this is no idle boast.
