WED IN WASHINGTON

Miss Ethel Bogan of the Capital and John Elliott Shaw of This City.

Ceremony Performed at High Noon To-day in Church of the Ascension.

Special to The Journal. Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—The Church of the Ascension was thronged with guests at high noon to-day to witness the marriage of Miss Ethel Bogan, daughter of Dr. S. W. Bogan, and John Elliott Shaw of Minneapolis. The church was handsomely decorated and furnished an effective background for one of the prettiest weddings of the season. The ushers were Harry S. Barber of Minneapolis, R. Jeffery Grant, Syracuse, N. Y., Robert D. Stewart, St. Paul, D. L. Whittlesey, New York, Sam Bogan and Dr. Fred Bogan of the United States navy, brothers of the bride. Philip B. Winston of Minneapolis was best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Edith Woodward of Sparrows Point, Md., Miss Frances Miller, Cumberland, Md., Miss Floy Smith, Evanston, Ill., and Miss Blanche Polkingham and Miss May Joyce of Washington. Miss Louise Hoge of Evanston, Ill., was unable to be present owing to a slight indisposition. The service was read by Right Rev. Henry Y. Satterlee, bishop of Washington, and was followed by a wedding breakfast at the home of Dr. Bogan. It was thought yesterday that the breakfast would have to be postponed on account of the illness of Miss Hoge but she was so much better to-day that the original plans were carried out.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw left in the afternoon for Atlantic City. Later they will go to New York and other eastern points and they will be at home in the Wisconsin, 1700 Portland avenue, Minneapolis, receiving after Jan. 1.

Among the Minneapolis guests at the wedding were the bridegroom's brother and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Cavour Langdon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Blakeley, as well as Mrs. R. B. Langdon and Mrs. H. C. Truesdale of Minneapolis.

Mr. Shaw gave a box party at the New National theater Monday night to the bridal party, and after the play there was a supper at the New Willard hotel. There was to have been a house party over Sunday in Virginia, but this was postponed at the last moment on account of the illness of Miss Hoge.

Mr. Winston and Mr. Stewart will go from here to New York to sail for Europe, where they will spend the winter, returning the latter part of March.

—W. W. Jermaine.

A pretty home wedding took place at 8 o'clock this morning when Miss Villa Maud Butters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Butters of 215 Groveland avenue, and Alfred Vernon Willoughby of Seattle, Wash., were married. The service was read by Rev. James S. Montgomery and was followed by a wedding breakfast for which covers were laid for ten. The bride wore a dainty gown of silk mill trimmed with satin ribbon and lace applique. Her going away gown was of modish kersey trimmed with silk braid and Persian bands. Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby will be at home after Dec. 1 at 2616 Madison street, Seattle, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. F. Conrad have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter Caribel and James Ledy of Minneapolis, which will take place in the Presbyterian chapel in St. Paul Wednesday evening, Nov. 12. The service will be followed by a reception at their home, 886 Aurora avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Ledy will be at home after Dec. 1 at 124 Laurel avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Fox of Revere, Wis., have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter Susan to W. P. Hannon of Minneapolis, which will take place next Wednesday morning in the Catholic church at Elba, Wis. Rev. Father Murphy will officiate at the nuptial mass. Miss Kelly of Revere will be bridesmaid and Joseph Hannon of Maple Lake, Minn., will be best man. Mr. and Mrs. Hannon will take a trip east for two weeks and they will be at home in Minneapolis after Dec. 1.

Mrs. Charles S. Brackett will give a reception next Wednesday afternoon at her home, 1818 Kenwood parkway, to introduce Miss Nell Brackett.

Mrs. Lucian B. Colby and Mrs. Hedley V. Carrington will give a tea Thursday afternoon, Nov. 6, at their home on Second avenue S. The guests of honor will be Mrs. Jacob Kline and Miss Kline and Thomas Francis Dwyer, all of Fort Snelling. General Kline is a brother of Mrs. Colby and is in command of the Twenty-first infantry which is stationed at the fort. Mrs. Dwyer is Mrs. Colby niece.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Henning of 2514 Elliott avenue will celebrate their golden wedding Tuesday, Nov. 11.

Mrs. Howard A. Turner and Miss Armstrong will give an informal musicale tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Turner, 303 Ridgewood avenue.

Miss Jean Wakeman will give a Halloween party Friday evening at the home of Dr. W. F. Leonard, 2121 Blaisdell avenue, for the members of her class, the Euterpean study club.

The East High School club will give the second of a series of informal dances Friday evening at Mrs. Noble's hall, 315 Fourteenth avenue SE. The program will consist of fifteen numbers and will begin at 8:45 o'clock.

The date of the St. Paul charity ball has been announced for Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 28, and it will be given in Masonic temple. The men will assume the responsibility of the affair and the women will assist in the pleasant duties of receiving.

Miss Alma Hoegh is visiting friends in Indianapolis. Miss Hoegh spent several days with Dr. and Mrs. Francis S. Dorsey at their cottage at Lake Maxinkuckee, Ind., and accompanied by Miss Mary Sayles, Arthur T. Smith and F. M. Ayres of Indianapolis returned to that city in Mr. Ayres' automobile.

Miss Proctor will give an informal dance this evening at the Minneapolis Classical school, 224 Nicollet avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Dennison of 54 Bradford avenue, Prospect Park, celebrated the fifth anniversary of their marriage last evening. The guests at the wedding included thirty-five young people from the university and the parents of both Mr. and Mrs. Dennison. Games and music were the diversions and a light supper was served.

Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Graves were guests of honor at a reception given last evening by the people of Franklin Avenue M. E. church. Autumn leaves and flowers brightened the parlors. An informal program was given and light refreshments were served. Mrs. Graves and her daughter have recently come from California to join Mr. Graves.

A birthday supper was given Sunday at the home of Thomas Lyons, 1231 Fourth avenue S. Covers were laid for twelve and chrysanthemums and similar were the decorations. The gifts were hung with ribbon above the center of the table. Mrs. Lyons presented the young women with souvenir spoons. Music and games were the amusements and Mrs. Lyons gave selections on the violin, viola and piano.

An informal dinner was given Saturday evening by Sigma Chi fraternity at the chapter-house on Fifth street SE. Mrs. William E. Crossette was chaperone.

A Decided Success

Our Great Coat Sale is proving a wonderful success—and deceptively so—equal values in mid-season have never been offered in the Twin Cities—during the warm spell in October we were fortunate in securing hundreds of Coats at prices which enable us to sell the coats today for about what other stores paid for similar values. A visit to our coat department will convince every intending purchaser.
