

MOLINEUX WAS PUT ON THE STAND

Interesting Incident in a Now Famous New York Murder Case. He Tells of His Quarrel With Cornish at a New York Club.

He Declares His Absolute Innocence of an Attempt on Cornish's Life.

New York, Oct. 31.—The defense opened today in the trial of Edward J. Molineux, charged with the murder of Mrs. Katherine J. Adams.

The crowd which thronged the criminal courts building... As soon as the jury was polled, Former Governor Black began his opening address.

Replied to the first question of the lawyer, Molineux gave his age as 39 years, told the date of his arrest and the length of time he was in the Sing Sing prison.

His Trouble With Cornish. Molineux said he did not approve of Cornish's management of the bath or of the gymnasium.

The Poison Package. "Did you mail the poison package?" "No, sir."

The Cross-Examination. Assistant District Attorney Osborne conducted the cross-examination.

KING EDWARD WAS X-RAYED

A Rodent Ulcer at the Root of the Nose Treated by the Rays Last Spring. The King Recovered, but Physician Died of a Cancerous Growth Shortly After.

Interesting Facts Brought Out by the Death of Dr. Arthur Barry Blacker on Sept. 10.

New York, Oct. 31.—According to a medical periodical which will be issued here to-morrow, a letter has been received from the London correspondent of the paper to the effect that the death of Dr. Arthur Barry Blacker on Sept. 10, in London, disclosed for the first time the fact that King Edward was treated with x-rays sixteen times last spring for a rodent ulcer at the root of the nose.

Dr. Blacker, who was just 40 years of age, was one of the pioneers of the light treatment in this country and had for the last year or two held the post of superintendent of the x-ray department in a London hospital.

TO STOP STRIKES The Plan of the Philadelphia Builders' Association Outlined by Mr. Stevens.

No Fight on Organized Labor, but a Full Recognition and Agreement With It.

New York Sun Special Service. Philadelphia, Oct. 31.—John S. Stevens, who was elected president of the National Builders' Association during the convention here last week, returned to this city yesterday and discussed the work of the meeting.

Philadelphia, Oct. 31.—John S. Stevens, who was elected president of the National Builders' Association during the convention here last week, returned to this city yesterday and discussed the work of the meeting.

THE GROSS TAX FRAUDS

The Confession of Luke Wheeler Imlicates Many Prominent Chicago Men.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Luke Wheeler convinced that his accomplices in the tax-fraud scheme have been sacrificing him to save themselves, has revealed to State's Attorney Deneen the details of a conspiracy more extensive than even the prosecutor had expected.

Neither the living nor the dead are spared. President James H. Gormley, former secretary and treasurer of the Masonic Temple, and William J. Williams of the Masonic Temple; Justice Chancellor, attorney; Julius Salomon, the late North Town collector; the late Peter Storm, former assistant to Chief Clerk Becker of the county treasurer's office, and all the business men whose names appear on the notes Wheeler is alleged to have forged are included in the list.

THE REAL ISSUE Secretary Root Says It Is the Indorsement of the President.

New York, Oct. 31.—An immense crowd at Cooper Union was addressed by Secretary Root, who said in part: "The national issue in this political campaign, in its most important and practical aspects, is whether President Roosevelt shall be sustained in his administration of the national government."

TEACHERS IN AN ACCIDENT Miss Fanny Gearhart of the Anoka City Schools Seriously Hurt in a Runaway.

Anoka, Minn., Oct. 31.—Miss Blanche McKinstry and Miss Fanny Gearhart, school teachers of Anoka, were run into by a runaway team while they were driving in the country last night.

A BIBLIOPHILE SELLS New York, Oct. 31.—George B. DeForest of this city, a widely known bibliophile, has, it is announced, sold his library, valued at $75,000.

TABLOON VAN SANT

Sharp Watch in the Great Northern Shops That No Work Is Done for Him. Free Tickets Given Out at the "U" to Those Who Will Vote for Roaring.

Samuel R. Van Sant, republican candidate for governor, is laboring in the shops and yards of the Great Northern Railway company. The order has gone out to foremen to see to it that no work is done on the company's grounds for Van Sant.

MISS HOGE BETTER She Will Be Able to Start for Her Home in Evanston in a Short Time.

From The Journal Bureau, Room 45, Park Building, Washington. Washington, Oct. 31.—Miss Louise Hoge, wife of the late Shaw-Bogart wedding last Wednesday, whose illness prevented her from officiating, is improving rapidly, and her parents say she will be able to start for home in a short time.

CHARGE OF MANSLAUGHTER Result of the Christian Science Case in New York.

New York, Oct. 31.—John Carroll Lathrop, John Quimby and his wife, Georgiana, have been indicted by the grand jury of manslaughter in the second degree.

SANTA MARIA'S WORK The Volcano in Eruption, but Little Damage Done.

San Francisco, Oct. 31.—Felipe Galicia, consul at San Francisco for Ecuador and Guatemala, has received from the President of Guatemala the following cablegram relative to the eruption of the volcano of Santa Maria.

MISSIONARY PAPERS

Editors and Publishers Report the Splendid Support Given by the Methodist Women. The Publishing Department Is Self-Supporting and Helps Largely in Other Departments.

Owing to the necessity of all reports requiring action being presented at the morning meetings, some radical changes have been made in the M. E. Women's Foreign Missionary Society's program announced by the local committee.

MISS MARY B. LILLY. Missionary in Singapore Straits Settlements.

MISS FANNIE S. FISHER. Missionary in Kolar, South India.

MISS FRANCES CRAIG OF EVANSTON, ILL. Teacher in a Boys' School at Calcutta, India.

Friend, and so wide-spread was the circulation of the paper, it had been translated into five dialects.

Friend, and so wide-spread was the circulation of the paper, it had been translated into five dialects.

Friend, and so wide-spread was the circulation of the paper, it had been translated into five dialects.

Out of Sight... It is what is out of sight in a coat that preserves its shape and good appearance. The buyer has to take that on faith. We make the clothing we sell in our own factory, and we know what goes into it. It's right every time. Suits, $10 to $30. Overcoats, $10 to $40.

HATS... All that's new and novel, as well as the staple shapes, including the latest fashions of all the leading manufacturers, the Miller, the J. B. Stetson Co., the Guyer, the Crofut & Knapp, etc., etc. Everything from... $1 to $5 answered the argument that children already were overburdened by other ideas by saying that it is a mistake to allow worldly ideas to possess the whole child, and that she believed that missionary interest should have its place in the child's training to the exclusion of something else, if necessary.

Browning-King & Co. 415 to 419 Nicollet Ave. C. J. GUTZGELL, Manager.

Evening in India, conducted by Miss F. A. Perkins of Burma. The addresses will be made by Misses Lillian Marks of America, Marion Newton of Lucknow and Frances Craig of Calcutta.

HE WAS NEARLY KILLED An Alleged "Good Joke" on a Bridegroom at Evanston Last Night.

New York Sun Special Service. Chicago, Oct. 31.—Practical jokes played on a bridal couple at Evanston yesterday almost ended fatally.

GREETED THE WORKERS Missionaries from Foreign Fields Appear Before the Convention.

POSTOFFICE ROBBERY $1,600 in Cash and Stamps Secured at Reedsburg, Wis.

FELL 100 FEET Dead Body of John Simmons Found at Deadwood.

Reliable Shoes. Are the only kind you can get at the Home Trade. No matter how low the price, you can always depend upon them being absolutely all solid leather.