

THE "OLEO" LAW

Its Definitions Not Sufficiently Explicit to Prevent Oleo From Passing as Genuine Butter.

Friends of the Bogus Article Active in the Late Election in Trying to Defeat Its Enemies.

From The Journal Bureau, Room 45, Post Building, Washington.

Washington, Nov. 28.—It is very probable that congress will be called upon before a great while by the dairy interests of the country, which secured enactment by the last session of the so-called oleo law, to amend the definition of oleo as contained in that law. At the time the bill was passed the dairymen were fearful that the definition was not sufficiently clear to protect their industry; subsequent developments have made them certain that this is the case.

Under the oleo law the manufacturers of bogus butter are planning systematically to continue their work of deception, and apparently there will be no way of reaching them, except through an amendment to the law which will make the definition of oleo more stringent. This amendment will be discussed in the fifty-eighth congress, although action may be deferred until some later time.

This condition of affairs makes interesting the alleged fact that the oleo interests were back of the candidacy for congress this year of William Lorimer of Chicago, who in the fifty-sixth congress, as a member of the committee on agriculture, rendered them valuable service. These interests are also under suspicion of having placed as many obstacles as possible in the pathway of Representative Tawney of Minnesota, this year in his campaigns for re-election and re-election.

Briefly, the oleo program of evading the new law consists in the introduction of coloring matter into palm oil, and mixing that oil with cottonseed oil, so as to give oleo a yellow color. It is said that palm oil will take color easily, and that it will be possible to use it in the manufacture of oleo under the loosely drawn definition of oleo in the new law.

It is very certain that the old struggle is to be renewed before a great while, and that congress is again to be the scene of action. Naturally, the dairy interests desire to have as many of their friends in the two houses as possible, and as few of their enemies.

Mr. Tawney when asked by The Journal man regarding the efforts of the oleo interests to influence sentiment against him in his district, refused to talk. He said that the people of his district were familiar with all the facts connected with his campaign this year, and that anything he might say would not add to their enlightenment. He agreed with the statement in this article, however, that it is evidently the intention of the oleo manufacturers to evade the present law, and that in time that law must be made more strict, so far as its definition of oleo is concerned.

THE KRUPP CASE

The Vorwaerts Reaffirms Its Charges Against the Deceased Millionaire.

Berlin, Nov. 28.—The Vorwaerts commenting on Emperor William's speech on the day of the funeral of Herr Krupp at Essen says:

"While prosecution is still pending against us and the truth is not judicially ascertained, the emperor anticipates our court's findings by pronouncing our guilt out of hand. It is allowed that the crown at the initial stage of a pending case utter a verdict and thereby place the judges in the painful dilemma of either contradicting his majesty or subjecting themselves to the reproach that their judgment was influenced by him. Justice stands above everybody, even above the emperor, and the freedom of the courts is the life and nerve of every state."

The paper adds: "The monarchy is constitutionally irresponsible. An adequate answer to the emperor's speech is prevented through the less majestic paragraphs."

The Vorwaerts in two columns, reaffirms in moderate language the truth of its original charges against the late Herr Krupp and alleges that the evidence rests on the testimony of persons quite above party passion, personal interest or political hate.

UNION OF TWO TRAGEDIES.

New York, Nov. 28.—It was known to-day that Florence Burns, who was acquitted of the murder of Walter Brooks in a room at the Glen Island Hotel, after he had been married to Charles W. Wilbur, who has also had a love affair with her, was arrested a year ago for passing worthless checks, and that she was later found to have been a victim of a confidence man who had seduced her.

POOR COMFORT.

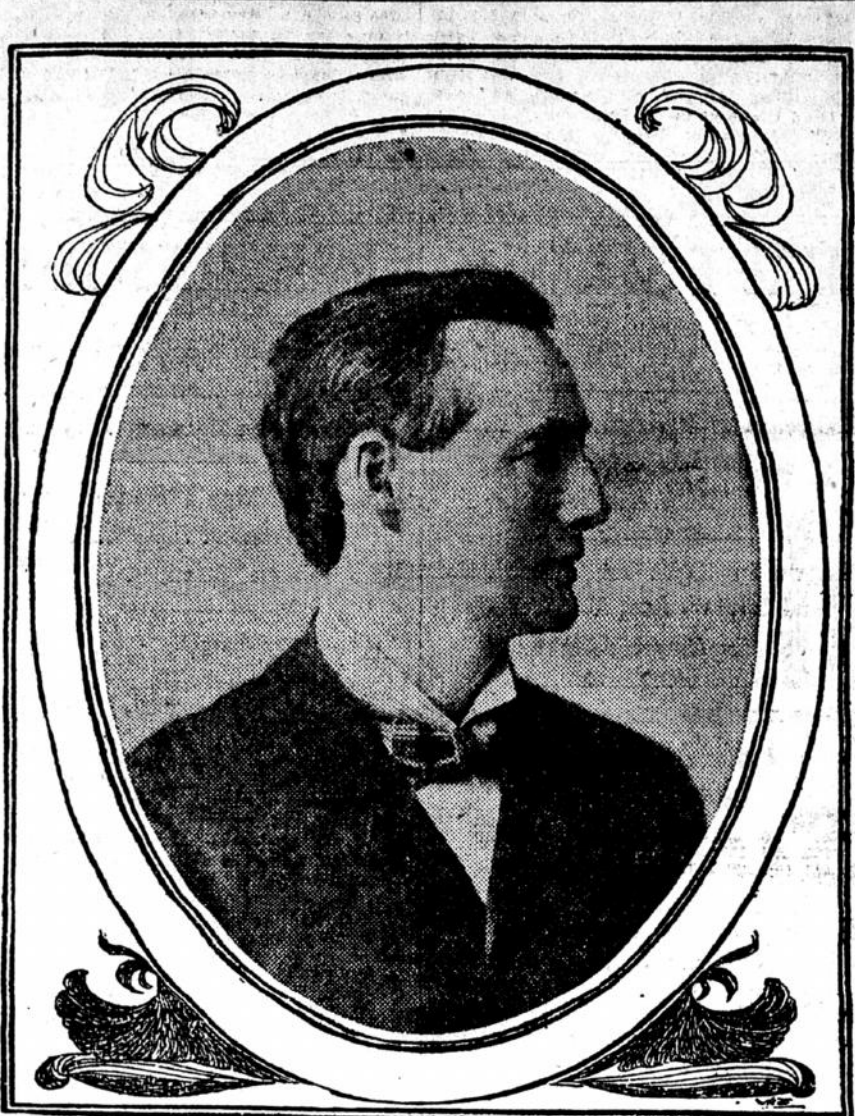

Cold Water Drinkers Find a Relief in Ostium Coffee.

Our American people, who are nervous and overstrained, find relief in Ostium Coffee. If they knew how well and clear-headed it would be without it.

"When I was a little child," says Miss M. D'Alt of Topeka, Kansas, "I commenced the drinking of coffee. Naturally nervous, it made me as the years went on, a most miserable wretch, always in an unnatural state of excitement. I found, as I grew older, that I would at times stagger as a drunken person. It was coffee, I found, that had made me so. I was coffee, I found, that had made me so. I was coffee, I found, that had made me so."

For a number of years cold water was my only drink, but this was poor comfort until about three years ago, a package of Postum Food Coffee was left at our house. We prepared as directed and found a wholesome, delicious drink; more than this, it has strengthened me without causing those terrible "after effects" formerly left upon me by coffee. I recommended Postum to all my friends and in my varied experience I find it a safe drink without effect on the nerves, and the only one which with me has filled a long-felt want."

Many people who have stopped drinking coffee because of its effect on the nerves, will find the pure food drink, Postum, a beverage that, when properly made, touches the spot, pleases eye and palate and fills the vacancy no other drink can.

KNIVES, STONES AND AXES

Russian Citizen of Fort William Murdered by Party of Brutal Galicians.

Special to The Journal.

Fort William, Ont., Nov. 28.—Stefan Rebbuk, a Russian, was murdered in a room among the foreign element in the east end of town Wednesday night. He was attacked by several Galicians. When officers arrived upon the scene it was evident that the case was likely to be more serious than common assault.

In a ditch not far from the shack in which Rebbuk and other foreigners were living was a pool of blood and the snow was stained in every direction. A huge club was picked up near by with blood stains on it and human hair adhering to it. In a shack on a straw filled bunk, covered by a few blankets lay Rebbuk, moaning and uttering in his native language. He was unconscious and delirious.

Rebbuk and his chum, the man who brought the information, lived together. Late at night the chum was called out by a man who told him to see to his friend who was mixed up in a fight.

Rebbuk's chum ran out and found several men attacking Rebbuk with sticks, knives and an ax. They cleared away and Rebbuk was taken into the shack in a fainting condition where he lay till morning unharmed.

Officers Doss and O'Brien went with their informant and on his instructions arrested several men who were working in the Canadian Pacific freight sheds. Crown Attorney Mills and Magistrate McDougall went to the Rebbuk's house to take a deposition if possible. Their trip was in vain, as the man died shortly before without having regained consciousness.

TEACHERS' CONVENTIONS

A Brace of Them Being Held To-day At Chicago and Baltimore.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Two hundred teachers, representing the secondary schools, colleges and universities of the middle west, were in attendance this morning at the opening session of the Central Association of the Physical Teachers' convention, which is holding its three days' meeting at the Lewis Institute in this city.

In his annual address, President Charles Smith urged a policy of expansion for the organization, suggesting that the association be federated with similar bodies in different parts of the country with a view of forming a national organization. He also made a strong plea for better equipment of laboratory bodies in the smaller cities, and that efforts be made to secure uniformity of method in the teaching of physics. Dr. Henry S. Gannett of the University of Michigan read a paper on "The Revision of the Physical Textbook."

Baltimore, Nov. 28.—The Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools of the Middle States and Maryland convened its sixteenth annual session this morning in McCoy hall, Johns Hopkins university. More than 250 educators, many of them very prominent ones, were in the hall when the meeting was called to order.

The general discussion was opened by Dr. J. H. Canfield of Columbia university. President James M. Taylor of Vassar college, was the first speaker.

BUFFALO MAN IN THE TOILS

He Is Supposed to Be Connected With a $200,000 Swindle.

Buffalo, Nov. 28.—William Landau, who was arrested in New York on suspicion of being connected with a swindle involving $200,000, formerly kept a wholesale clothing store in this city and a branch at Niagara Falls. He left Buffalo some time ago and many local creditors have since been trying to locate his property. They found that the stocks have been transferred by bills of sale. The Faculty suits have been brought to test the validity of these transfers.

In the proceedings brought in the local courts, statements have been made that Landau went to Texas and also that he was in Europe.

TRIED TO BURN THE TOWN

Three Attempts Made at Yankton—Floors Soaked With Kerosene and Excelsior Ignited.

Special to The Journal.

Yankton, S. D., Nov. 28.—Firebugs and three senates have last night started conflagrations, with success in one instance. A mysterious blaze was discovered in the closets of the Pierce hotel by the night watchman, and after it was put out 7.45 found that the floors had been soaked with kerosene in two places before the match was applied. The damage was slight.

Mrs. J. H. Fall was awakened by a noise during the night, and upon investigation found a fire started in the cellarway. A hole had been made through the door and excelsior put through and ignited. The firebugs were disturbed too soon to complete their work, as the fire was easily extinguished. Excelsior burned matches were found on the ground where they had been dropped.

The third attempt was successful, and Daniel Platt's barn was completely consumed. All animals in it were saved, so the loss was confined to the building and some hay and grain. No object is known for starting the fires, nor trace of the guilty persons.

A large driving horse was stolen from the barn of Joseph Fefar of Utica on Wednesday evening. No trace as yet of the animal or thief.

NORTH DAKOTA

WHITE'S MAJORITY

Over 2,000 More Than Two Years Ago and on a Lighter Vote.

BISMARCK, N. D.—Official figures from all but three counties in the state have been received by the Bismarck Tribune, and returns from those are unofficially reported as follows: The census shows that Governor White's majority is 14,078, far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of party managers. The total vote was 7,000 less than the total vote in 1900 and the governor's majority exceeds that of two years ago, on a smaller vote, by over 2,000. Congressman Margolis' plurality (this year is 18,500, which is about 5,000 above that of two years ago. Congressman Spaulding's plurality is several hundred less than Marshall's, owing to the fact that the latter occupied first place on the ticket. Marshall's total vote was 23,600, Spaulding's total vote was 23,200 and Governor White's total vote was 31,800.

Every county in the state but Walsh was carried by Governor White. Official returns from Walsh county give Cronan a majority of thirty. Ward county is the republican stronghold in the state, giving the republicans a majority of 1,512. With official returns from all counties but Billings, and that unofficial but approximately correct, the following table shows the majorities for governor:

A report going the rounds of the newspapers is to the effect that the effect of Editor George W. Harrison of the Liberator Press has accepted a position with W. D. Boyce of Chicago, the well known publisher of the world's goods in plenty. Harrison formerly published a weekly newspaper at Liberator. Ten or twelve years ago he went to Chicago and became a partner in a small scale. He has built up the paper until it represents an annual income of hundreds of thousands, and has bought its owner a magnificent block on Dearborn street, the world's goods in plenty. Harrison was formerly state insurance commissioner.

The first of the blinding cases tried at the term of court at Bismarck resulted in a decision which was that the defendant, Millard Shibley, charged with violating the prohibition law. The jury stood six to six, and was discharged without reaching a verdict. The case was then taken to the supreme court, where it was decided in favor of the defendant. ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WEAK?

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

To Prove What the Great Kidney Remedy, Swamp-Root, Will Do for YOU, Every Reader of The Journal May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Absolutely Free by Mail.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs. The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected, and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because it cures so many kidney ailments, it will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince you.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for many kinds of diseases, and if permitted to continue much suffering and fatal results are sure to follow. Kidney trouble irritates the nerves, makes you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable. Makes you pass water often during the day and obliges you to get up many times during the night. Unhealthy kidneys cause rheumatism, gravel, stearth of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints and muscles; makes your head ache and back ache, causes indigestion, stomach and liver trouble, you get a salty, bitter complexion, the makes you feel as though you had heart trouble; you may have plenty of ambition, but no strength; get weak and "waste away."

The cure for these troubles is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the world-famous kidney remedy. It is a simple, natural, and safe remedy. It is a natural help to Nature, for Swamp-Root is the most perfect reagent and gentle aid to the kidneys that is known to modern science. If there is any doubt in your mind as to your condition, take from your urine on rising about four ounces, place it in a glass of water, and let it stand twenty-four hours. If, on examination, it is milky or cloudy, if there is a brick-dust settling, or if small particles float about in it, your kidneys are in need of immediate attention.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is used in the leading hospitals, recommended by the greatest medical authorities, and has been taken by doctors themselves who have kidney ailments, because they recognize it as the greatest and most successful remedy for kidney, liver and bladder troubles.

If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is a simple, natural, and safe remedy, take a regular 50-cent and 11 size bottles at the drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

The New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, whose premiership among institutions of its class is a matter of common knowledge, when in the market for pianos twenty years ago, after exhaustive trials of the then celebrated makes, decided upon the

Ivers & Pond

Now, when moving into its beautiful new building, the Conservatory looks over the piano market again, and finding its choice still that of twenty years ago, orders 31 Ivers & Pond Pianos, making a total of 299 as follows:

Total 299 Pianos.

Can more conclusive evidence of continuity in sustaining and advancing an artistic standard be given than the above remarkable record? Ivers & Pond Pianos, embodying half a century's experience in scientific piano-building, were never so perfect as to-day. MORE TROUBLE IN HAITI

M. Firman's Followers Make a Demand Backed by a Threat.

Port au Prince, Nov. 28.—General Alexie Nord was war minister for the provisional government and who is at St. Marc, about 8,000 to 10,000 men from Gannaves has sent an ultimatum to the government here demanding the invalidation of the election of the deputies who are members of the party headed by M. Firman, the self-styled leader of the recent rebellion. If the chamber refuses to cancel the election of these deputies the outbreak of another civil war is probable. The general opinion is that the chamber will reject the general's demands. Preparations are being made to defend Port au Prince in view of the possibility that General Nord will attack it.
