A Little Selling

Small Orders Carry Opening Prices Down Generally a Small Fraction.

No Disposition to Take Stocks—A High Rate for Call Loans.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—Light selling orders carried opening prices down generally a small fraction. Business on a very small scale and only a few stocks were traded in.

There seemed to be no general disposition to take stocks at the opening at concessions.

Strength in the local fractions led by Brooklyn Trans. led the general market, but the rate ruling for call loans.

The buying movement continued when the general list recovered to yesterday's final figures.

Fluctuations were few and of little consequence in the afternoon dealing.

Stock quotations reported for the Journal by Watson & Co., Chamber of Commerce, Minneapolis.

Closing prices are bid.

Table with columns: Sales, Stocks, High, Low, Close, Bid, Ask. Lists various commodities like Am. Oil, Am. Sugar, Am. Lumber, etc.

THE VOGUE OF PEARL BUTTONS

How much the appearance of a plain waist may be heightened by the addition of pearl buttons is clearly defined in this illustration.

The illustration shows a woman's waist with several pearl buttons. The text explains that these buttons can make a plain waist look more elegant and fashionable.

PRaise FOR "NIC" SHERBA

A Former Riverside Chapel Boy Who Died Recently at Blue Earth, Minn.

The local papers of Blue Earth, Minn., this week contain complimentary references to the late Nicholas Sherba of Minneapolis, a well-known and well-loved young man.

Last summer he was at Lake Mills, Iowa, but he died at Blue Earth of an acute attack of Bright's disease. He was buried in Minneapolis.

He was an active worker at Riverside chapel. He was sent about eight years ago to Blue Earth with a "fresh air" group.

The coming of the young fellow was heralded in Blue Earth because he was crippled from rheumatism following a fall from a tree.

He was a prominent member of the Riverside chapel and a man of many talents.

He was a man of many talents and a man of many friends.
