Miss Victoria Hoesek and George W. Huhnerkoeh of Redwood, Minn., were married last evening at the residence of Miss Adelle C. Suchanek on Royalston avenue. Rev. S. B. Mattie read the service.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Welles gave a party dancing last evening at their home on Clifton avenue for Miss Shattuck of Boston, who is the guest of their daughter. Evergreen and holly furnished an attractive decoration through the rooms and great clusters of red roses added to the gay effect. Mr. and Mrs. Welles were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Elbert J. Carpenter, Miss Shattuck, Miss Margaret Welles and Leonard Welles. A buffet supper was served at midnight. There were sixty guests.

The young people who are spending the holidays at home were entertained last evening at a cotillion which was given by Mrs. Frank C. Van Dusen at her home on Vine place for her daughter Mary and son George. Roses were arranged through the rooms, which were hung with holly and greens. About seventy-five young people were present and a program of dances preceded supper, which was served in the dining-room. Carnations decked the table. After supper the cotillion was led by Miss Hawkins. A butterfly figure had hundreds of the gay butterflies for favors and chrysanthemums were used in another, while in a third confetti was showered from a big cornucopia.

Raymond Gillette and John Snyder entertained seventy-five of the younger boys and girls at a dancing party at Miss Noble's hall last evening. The decorations were in red and green and poinsettia blossoms and red roses were in the windows, while the frappe table was banked with flowers. Mr. and Mrs. C. Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. George M. Gillette assisted the young hosts in receiving. Miss Ransom played a program of twenty numbers, and the cards were in red, embossed with white. Supper was served from small tables.

Johnston, Dr. Nicholson of St. Peter, Dr. William Compton and Dr. Bertram Boyer of Lockport, N. Y. Yesterday afternoon Miss McKusick gave a theater party at the Metropolitan for the bride, and luncheon was served at Dornier's after the play. Monday evening Miss Lusk of St. Paul gave a dinner. Red tapers in brass candelabra lighted the table and the place cards were heart-shaped.

The official board of the Bloomington Avenue M. E. church gave a reception last evening for Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Walker, who have been much interested in the church. Mr. and Mrs. Walker were assisted in receiving by Messrs. and Mesdames Patch, Goehr, Abbott, C. F. Goehr, Mesdames Sylvester, Johnson, and Messrs. Thompson, Spillman, Barker. The committee in charge of the supper which was served included Mesdames Abbott, Sylvester, Booth, Johnson and Hewitt. The tables were arranged in the Sunday school room and were decorated with red and white carnations. After supper Mr. Walker gave a short talk on "Labor and the Capitalist," and Mrs. Walker told of her interest in the church. Rev. R. Swinerton, pastor of the church, gave a short talk.

A group of Minneapolis young people attended the Dolly Varden cotillion which was given last evening in Eamaley's hall, St. Paul. The hall was attractively decorated and the girls wore Dolly Varden costumes, each carrying an American flag, marched and counter-marched about the large flag held in the center by Mrs. H. P. Black. Mrs. George Thompson and Mrs. Jesse Gregg distributed the favors, and Mrs. McLaughlin served frappe. The Minneapolis young people who were present were Misses Gertrude Satterlee, Grace Gillette, Glee Jamieson, Winifred Westlake, Florence Brazeo, Agnes Haynes, Alice and Minnie McClellan, Amy Fisher, Marion McLaughlin, Beattie Healey, Messrs. Gillette, Bartelson, Zoloph, Wyman, McCullom, Yerxa, Calhoun, Carpenter, Aldrich, Boardman, Ives and Spring.

Mrs. William H. Hallowell entertained yesterday afternoon at her home, 101 E. Twenty-seventh street, for Miss Emma Thompson, who has recently returned from an extended visit in California. The decorations were all in red and green and flowers were used with the holly and pine. A musical contest and conundrums furnished amusement. Misses S. B. Small and J. A. Wolverson presided in the dining room and they were assisted by Misses W. B. Riley, John Blackmer and George Walker. There were thirty guests.

Mrs. C. S. Fay of 1512 Clinton avenue, gave an informal thimble bee yesterday afternoon. The guests of honor were her three sisters, Mrs. Benham and Ware of Minneapolis and Mrs. Brown of Rockford, Iowa. In the reception hall, parlors and library green and white were the chosen colors and Illies, jonquils and ferns were in profusion. A large mirror wreathed in smilax in the center of the polished table in the dining room reflected a basket of American Beauty roses tied with a bow of the same brilliant color. Miss Opal Fay gave several beautiful piano selections and assisted Miss Jaques at the frappe bowl. A delicious lunch was served at 5 o'clock, Mrs. F. T. Corriston and Mrs. Benham poured drinks and were assisted by the three daughters of the hostess. There were fifty-five guests.

Last evening Miss Opal Fay gave a dinner in honor of her cousin, B. B. Benham, of South Dakota, who is spending the holidays in the city.
