The Easiest Way

To make 1903 a prosperous, happy year, is to keep a growing savings account with the GUARANTY SAVINGS & LOAN ASSOCIATION 517 First Avenue South.

Interest paid on open savings accounts. 3% Interest paid on certificates of deposit. 4%

Money deposited the first three days of the month draws interest from the first. Money deposited after the third draws interest from the first of the following month.

REMEMBER, the Guaranty Savings & Loan Association has more than double the paid up capital of any other savings institution in the state.

Special prices this month. A. Helmer, Furrier, 15 1/2 st. S. Subscribe for all magazines, papers, etc., and get your binding done at Century New Store, 6 Third street S. near Hennepin av. For that trip you ought to see the ingenious trunk as it travels all lifting of trays. Barnum has them and everything in Trunks and Leather goods, at 715 Nicollet avenue. Services will be held this evening and Saturday morning by the congregation of the Jewish Reformed Society in the building of the First Church of Christ Scientist, Fifteenth between Park and Portland avenues. For the present the society will meet in this church. Friends of John Landberg are working hard for his re-appointment as captain of the south precinct. After Landberg had been dropped from the police force for cause by Acting Mayor D. P. Jones, he took an active part in politics against the whole republican ticket. It is on these grounds that his friends urge the re-appointment.

It is possible that the Flambeau club will abandon its proposed banquet on Lincoln day. The only available place for such a function as the club has in mind is the West Hotel, which has already been secured by the Loyal Legion for its annual Lincoln day observance. The club has taken no action as yet, but the committee on arrangements is in favor of abandoning the project. Never in the history of the Fremont Avenue Congregational church has an annual watch night service been attended by so large a throng and been so full of interest and spiritual power as the one Wednesday night. The Gideons had charge of the service and were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Stofens and the pastor. Thirteen persons manifested a desire to live the new life. Light refreshments were served from 10:30 to 11:10 p. m.

North Dakota—Generally fair to-night and Saturday; warmer in northwestern portion to-night; variable winds. South Dakota—Fair to-night and Saturday, except possibly threatening in eastern portion; variable winds. Montana—Partly cloudy to-night and Saturday, with probably rain or snow in extreme northwest portion; warmer to-night; southwest winds.

SCENES IN PIONEER DAYS

Paintings Showing Them Are Presented to T. B. Walker. Paintings of Dubuque, of Fort Crawford at Prairie du Chien, and of Fort Snelling, as those places appeared in 1848, have been presented to T. B. Walker of this city from Henry Lewis of Dusseldorf, Germany. Mr. Lewis, who is an artist of ability, visited the northwest in the year of the revolution and made sketches upon which he has based various paintings. Three of them he sent to Mr. Walker last year. One showing the hamlet of St. Paul in 1848, was transferred by the recipient to the state historical society. Another painting, of St. Louis without a world's fair or a big bridge, has been given to the historical society of Missouri. The third landscape, Mr. Walker retains in his own gallery. This picture reveals a microcosmic Mississippi bathing St. Anthony Falls before the coming of the iron age. Mr. Lewis is now an octogenarian. He has made his home at Dusseldorf, where he was formerly United States consul.

HANDSOME CALENDARS

The Commercial Club issues a Most Attractive Souvenir for the City. The beautiful calendars illustrative of Minneapolis, issued by the Commercial club, have just been issued by the printer. They are now on sale at 25 cents a copy. The calendar has six leaves, each of which contains an engraving of the parks and lakes or buildings and factories illustrative of the commercial greatness of the city. Among the views shown are those of Minnehaha Falls, the mills which last year ground 15,000,000 barrels of flour, the courthouse and city hall, the public library, lake and river scenes, the new chamber of commerce, modern elevators and a group of university buildings. The calendar is the best possible kind of an advertisement for the distribution through the mails, either in a business or social way.

WHERE MOSES WAS

Gas Light Districts of St. Paul in the Dark These Nights. Merriam Park, St. Anthony Park and Hamline, also other sections of St. Paul in the gas light district, are in Stygian darkness these nights and will be for about ten nights to come except in so far as the moon dispels the gloom. The darkness is due to the fact that the contractor who secured the contract for this year was unable to get ready by the first of the year, and was also unable to arrange with Robert Seeger, subcontractor under the St. Paul Gas Light company, to continue his service.

DIED IN POVERTY

A TRIO OF PHASES

David Starr Jordan, Before Minn. Teachers, Points Out Those of Twentieth Century. He Says Century Will Be Strenuous, Complex, Democratic—His Address Condensed.

The principal address this year before the Minnesota Educational association was delivered last night by Dr. David Starr Jordan of Leland Stanford, Jr., university on "The Demand of the Twentieth Century for Effectiveness in Education." Dr. Jordan introduced his topic by saying that, like many of his colleagues, he had in common, the chief difference lying in the nice distinction of little things. He then classified the salient or characteristic phases of the twentieth century in these three points: It is to be a strenuous century, a complex century and a democratic century. "Strenuous it must be, as we can all see," he continued, "and we have to thank the young man of the twentieth century who gave us the watchword of the strenuous life. Our century has a host of things to do, and it has to do them in a very short time. It has to do them in, and two of these years are gone already. We must be up and doing, or we will be left behind. In this work, there is no place for an idle minute. Idle men and idle women no doubt will clutter our way, for there are many who have never been trained to do, many who will never know that there has been a new century. These things will pass by with the gentle tolerance she shows to claims and squirrels, but on those of us whose life she claims, she will lay heavy burdens of duty. "More than any of the others, the twentieth century will be democratic. The great things of the world are being done between two points. If something needs doing, do it. The more plainly, directly, honestly, the better. Democracy is Not Equality. "Democracy does not mean equality—just the reverse of it. It means individual responsibility, equality before the law, of course—equality of opportunity, but no other equality save that won by faithful service. That social system which bids men rise, must bid all rise, or it cannot maintain themselves. To choose the right man means the dismissal of the wrong. "The weak, the incompetent, the untrained, the dissipated find no growing welcome in the century which is coming. It will have no place for the unskilled laborer, a bucket of water and a basket of coal will do him no good. The skilled laborer can do if we have skilled men for their direction. The unskilled laborer is no product of democracy. The right man of the republic are entitled to something better. "A generous education, a well-directed education should be the birthright of each of our children. The education of the future must be a more intensive training. The man who cannot say no to cheap and vulgar temptations falls all the lower in the degree to which he is educated. The man who is trained with men, alert, loyal, trained and content with the dullard is condemned to a life of hard labor, through no direct fault of his own, which he is a free agent in competition with the incapable. In the twentieth century will not do. This democracy will not do, and this it is not now doing. "The men who control the twentieth century will be religious men. They will not be religious in the fashion of the monks, ascetics, mystic dreamers or emotional enthusiasts. Their religion, their working hypothesis of life, and in the wise and helpful life it will find ample justification. It will deal with the world as it is, not as the 'good of things' as they are. It will find God's world not a vale of tears, a sink of iniquity, but a world in which the rewards of right living are instant and constant. It will find that indeed his service is perfect freedom, for the great things of the world are done in His way and His way only."

J. A. Torrey of Winona in the discussion dissented vigorously from the paper, pronouncing the remedies far worse than the disease. "The trouble is," he said, "people feel that the teachers need only knowledge. This is not the case. Teaching is a profession and professional training is required. The independent teachers are in a pedagogical. It is better to have no school than one taught by a callow youth without professional training for teaching. Professional training is right, summer schools are right, all such things are an inspiration and an antidote for worry. They give the teacher a better conception of his work and how to do it. "What is needed is men trained for teaching. The University of Minnesota has sent to the Philippines to establish a school of schools there. He has failed, because he did not have the proper training. This is the man who is trained for teaching. I am not a teacher, and I do not want to see this association accept any such views without a protest. I advocate professional training. "Dr. W. F. Phelps of Duluth advocated, for the purpose of insurance policies and annuity bonds as the best method by which teachers may provide for their own self-support after the close of the teaching period. No dependent pension system is required, supported by the taxation of other persons. The paper was discussed by W. A. Shoemaker of St. Cloud, who advised teachers to be wary of investments that promised enormous returns. "D. R. Augsberg of Oakland, Cal., in a chalk talk showed the analytical training of drawing which deals directly with the essence of objects and ideas. "The past year has been phenomenal in the matter of dividends and interest to subscribers, and as a consequence, we intend making numerous additions and improvements. "Several new sections will be added to both St. Paul and Minneapolis exchanges, so that quicker service may be facilitated. "Modern visual signal exchanges in place of the old sign affairs are soon to be put in at Fargo and Grand Forks, N. D. New branch exchanges will be installed in many small towns throughout our system. "Addition toll lines will be strung to Duluth and other towns in Minnesota, making long distance connections more rapid. "The Bell people purchased the Northwestern Telephone company last March from the Erie company the service has been bettered in many ways and the new management intends to continue this work of improvement."

TO WARMER CLIMES

Many Northwestern People Will Go to the Mediterranean and West Indies. Local Steamship Men After the Agency of the Combined Morgan Lines.

Minneapolis is becoming a very important point for coast steamship companies doing a cabin passenger business. This city has been for some time such an important point for steamer business, especially Scandinavian policies, that the steamship companies have from time to time established general northwestern offices here in charge of the territory from Minneapolis to the coast. Offices were established by the Allan, American, Red Star, White Star and Cunard lines about five years ago. Three years later the Beaver line entered the field for steamer business and within the year came the Anchor and the Dominion lines. The statement that Minneapolis has become very important for the securing of cabin business is strengthened by the bookings made by W. B. Chandler to the West Indies and the Mediterranean for January and February sailings on the steamer "Mollie," Princess Victoria Louise and Kaiserin Maria Theresa. The list of passengers is by far the largest and of the best quality that has been booked from this city. Those who will take the Mediterranean trip are Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Brooks, Paul and Stanley Brooks, Mrs. M. L. Book-walter, Miss Dewar, W. F. Decker, H. H. Elie, R. G. Fisher, Mrs. B. Linton and Mrs. J. T. Morris of Minneapolis; Mrs. W. J. Underwood of Chicago, Miss Sill of La Crosse, Wis.; Mrs. A. A. Barry and Miss Barry of St. Paul; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Johnson, Orrie and Paul Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lynds and E. S. Lynds of Chicago, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Case, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chandler, John De Laitre, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Fisher, A. F. Fulton, H. W. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. McKim, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Moulton, Miss Moulton, Miss Modisette, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Temple and Mrs. E. J. Westlake of Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Weiser, Master Weiser, Mrs. M. E. Bones, and Miss Winger of Decorah, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Burroughs of Chicago, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gregg of St. Paul; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Goran of Portage, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Fulton of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Burroughs of Cherokee, Iowa; Miss Barker of Janesville, Wis.; John Birkois of Grand Forks, N. D.

A Good Agency for Somebody. Several of the local steamship men are active in the northwest agency of the International Merchant Marine company, the Morgan combination of the American, Red Star, White Star, Dominion, Leyland, Atlantic and Canadian companies, and the lines. It will be seen that the only companies left to maintain independent offices are the Beaver, Allan, Cunard and Anchor lines. F. C. Brown, formerly western manager of the International Navigation company of Chicago, has been made western manager of the combined company, with headquarters in Chicago. Mr. Brown has gone east to the head offices of the Morgan company. Considerable anxiety exists among Minneapolis agents as to the recommendation which the new manager will make for the northwestern office in this city. This is a big plum and three men seem to be about even in the lead for the position. It is probable that a man already in the field and familiar with it will be the lucky fellow.

CHURCH ANNUALS HELD

Augustana Will Use a New Organ and More English. Many of the Scandinavian churches of the city held their annual meetings yesterday and laid out their work for the coming year. The Augustana Swedish Lutheran congregation decided to secure a new pipe organ. J. Victor Bergquist was elected permanent organist. It was decided that two of the evening services in each month should be conducted in English. Four morning services during the coming year will also be conducted in English. The secretary reported the total membership at 1,676, an increase of 122 for the year. The income of the church had been $8,000. Officers were elected as follows: Secretary, V. A. Lundberg; deacons, J. N. Peterson, J. A. Newstrom, John Stoenstrom, E. O. Tichauer, J. C. Youngdahl; trustees, A. W. Anderson, C. J. Johnson, trustees, Adolph Berglund, G. Hammergren. Receipts to the amount of $1,600 were shown for the year. The congregation voted to make a raise of $50 in the salary of the minister. The congregation of the Bethlehem Swedish Lutheran church decided to open an English Sunday school. The hours will be from 9 to 10:30 a. m. Resolutions of thanks were voted to the pastor, the Rev. J. G. Hultkrantz, and to C. A. Smith. Officers were elected as follows: Deacons, A. Nostrom, August Johnson, J. A. Hultkrantz, T. O. Peterson, Julius Rudberg, J. J. Burke. At the Swedish Tabernacle the following officers were elected: Chairman of board of trustees, E. A. Ryberg; trustees, E. A. Ryberg, G. L. Beckman and S. T. Reed. The treasurer's report showed receipts for the year amounting to $9,013.41; disbursements, $9,051.74; leaving a deficit

BETTER PHONE SERVICE

President of Northwestern Company Outlines Plans for 1903. Oliver C. Yost of Omaha, president of the Northwestern Telephone Exchange company, outlined his plans for 1903. "The past year has been phenomenal in the matter of dividends and interest to subscribers, and as a consequence, we intend making numerous additions and improvements. "Several new sections will be added to both St. Paul and Minneapolis exchanges, so that quicker service may be facilitated. "Modern visual signal exchanges in place of the old sign affairs are soon to be put in at Fargo and Grand Forks, N. D. New branch exchanges will be installed in many small towns throughout our system. "Addition toll lines will be strung to Duluth and other towns in Minnesota, making long distance connections more rapid. "The Bell people purchased the Northwestern Telephone company last March from the Erie company the service has been bettered in many ways and the new management intends to continue this work of improvement."

THE TEACHER'S HEALTH

A Subject That Brought Out a Very Lively Discussion. Yesterday afternoon's general meeting threw technicalities of pedagogy to the winds and the papers and discussions were thoroughly practical and spicy. The general subject was the health and material welfare of teachers, and there was a refreshing absence of platitudes and orthodox ideas. The debate was not only profitable but highly entertaining. The credit of stirring things up in a very unusual manner and degree is due to Superintendent J. K. McDoom of Elgin, in his paper, "How to Save the Teachers." This was based on a personal investigation conducted among educators and doctors. He conceded at the outset that there was much incapacity, insufficient training and disregard of the laws of

WHAT RAINVILLE BROS

The Central Av. Furniture Dealers have to say in regard to Pioneer Gas Mantles.

In Aug. 1901, we equipped all our gas lights with Pioneer Gas Mantles. We have used them continuously for 14 months, and out of the 40 lights we have renewed but two of the Mantles.

One of these Mantles we light to burn all night every night in the year. We do not know how one could ask for a more satisfactory and economical light than the Pioneer Gas Mantle gives us, and we cheerfully recommend Rainville Bros.
