

CITY NEWS

WEATHER NOW AND THEN
Minimum Temperature To-day 9 Degrees Below; a Year Ago 1 Degree Below.

They Want Gas—Residents of Linden Hills and Cottage City will meet at Berry's hall to-morrow night to discuss the lighting problem in the lake district.

Searchlight Club—The Searchlight club of the Y. M. C. A. will hold an open meeting at the association building this evening.

Seat Sale to-morrow—The public sale of course tickets (with reserved seats) for the New Century lectures will open to-morrow morning at the Metropolitan Music company's store.

Vermont Association Meeting—The Vermont association of this city will hold its annual meeting at the Hotel Nicolet to-morrow evening.

Mashers Are Fined—Carl Anderson and Gust Johnson were arraigned in municipal court this morning charged with disorderly conduct.

Gross Dropped In—Matt Gross, superintendent of the workhouse during the Winston administration, was among Mayor Haynes' callers this morning.

Geografi og Kjaerlighed—Bjornson's comedy, "Geografi og Kjaerlighed," was repeated at Danla hall last evening with much success by the Fram Dramatic society.

Youthful Wanderers—James Conway of Cincinnati and John Thomas of Louisville, Ky., both 17 years of age, spent the night at the South Side police station because they were without means and had no friends in the city.

Captain Morgan Here—Captain George A. Morgan of the Sixth cavalry, now stationed at Fort Snelling, is in the city renewing old acquaintances.

Still Without a Pastor—Rev. A. Manson of Duluth, who was expected to deliver a trial sermon at the Oliver Presbyterian church, Bloomington avenue and East Twenty-seventh street, yesterday, did not appear.

The Searchlight Club—An open meeting for ladies and friends of the members will be held this evening at the Searchlight club of the Y. M. C. A.

To Demand Union Goods—At the meeting of the Minneapolis Ladies' Union to demand union goods, yesterday afternoon, a constitution in harmony with that of the International League was adopted.

NUMBER 133

The Journal, (six issues per week) carried nearly 1,000

COLUMNS more advertising in 1903 than any other Minneapolis paper, daily and Sunday issues combined.

Average daily circulation of The Journal for Dec., 1902,

57,093

Sample Canvass of 2125 Residences 1831 Journals

336 Eve. Tribunes 295 Morn. Tribunes

20 Apartment Houses 430 Journals 48 Eve. Tribunes 44 Morn. Tribunes

13th Av. S. E. 13th Av. S. E.

9 residences 12 residences

7 Journals 9 Journals

1 E. Trib. 2 E. Trib.

12th Av. S. E. 16th Av. S. E.

Judge Elliott Still at Home.

Judge C. B. Elliott was unable to be at the courthouse building on account of the swollen condition of his ankle, which was injured in a fall Saturday.

READY TO FIGHT IT

Fraternal Insurance Men Will Form an Organization to Oppose Hostile Legislation.

They Believe They Are Strong Enough to Beat Any Unfriendly Bills.

If any measures hostile to fraternal insurance societies come before the present session of the state legislature, there will be a vigorous fight.

Minnesota will have a fraternal organization that in size and power will eclipse anything in the world, if the proposals of the fraternal societies are put into effect.

At the meeting Saturday evening, attended by representatives of the principal fraternal societies, Edmond De Lester, of St. Paul, was secretary, and W. P. Brackett, of Minneapolis, president.

TYPHOID QUICKLY FATAL

Frederick P. Wilson Dies After a Six Days' Illness.

Frederick P. Wilson died early yesterday morning of typhoid fever at his residence, 1125 First avenue S. E.

Mr. Wilson was born in Chicago, May 1, 1862. He lived in Chicago until coming to Minneapolis in the early nineties.

Mr. Wilson married Miss Lizzie L. Herrick, daughter of W. W. Herrick of this city.

The funeral will be held at 1 o'clock to-morrow afternoon from the residence, Bishop S. C. Edsall will officiate.

JOHN LEE, aged 25 years, a pipeman of English ancestry, who resided with his parents at 1125 First avenue S. E., died at Tucson, Arizona, this morning.

SWAN J. WALTON—Funeral of the former captain of the South Side police station was held from residence, 1311 Seventh street S. E., yesterday afternoon.

GEORGE BARTLETT, who resided on Snelling avenue, died at St. Barnabas hospital yesterday.

PHILIP SCHEIG—The funeral of the late Philip Scheig was held yesterday afternoon from the residence, 1122 First avenue N. Rev. S. D. Hutschinpler of the Hennepin Avenue M. E. church conducted the services.

T. GUSTAD, a paper hanger residing at 408 Twenty-second avenue S. died at a city hospital this morning of tuberculosis.

MRS. H. A. LIBBY died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Weeks, 1322 Fremont avenue N., early this morning.

CHRIST HANSON, a laborer residing at 106 Hennepin avenue, died at the city hospital yesterday of appendicitis.

CALLING IN THE STARS

Special Officers Must Not Continue to Exercise Authority.

All special police officers will be asked to turn in their stars to Frank R. McDonald, the mayor's private secretary.

Judge Elliott Still at Home. Judge C. B. Elliott was unable to be at the courthouse building on account of the swollen condition of his ankle, which was injured in a fall Saturday.

LIES IN THE TARIFF NEW TRIAL DENIED WORD FOR GOODNOW

Fred Ames' Motion Is Denied by Judge Brooks After Most Careful Deliberation.

Upon This Ruling the Case Will Go to the Supreme Court.

"I have solved the coal problem satisfactorily to myself by using wood," said Congressman-elect John Lind this morning.

From the little that has appeared in the newspapers, I am inclined to believe that the views held by Senator Hoar more nearly approach the idea of a trust legislation.

AFTER COPELAND'S SCALP

Ninth Ward Citizens Appeal to Mayor Haynes to Order the Officer's Removal.

Lieutenant George Copeland's chances of remaining on the police force were materially affected by a "trust commission" entered against him at the mayor's office this morning.

Major Haynes promised to look up Copeland's record and members of the delegation believe that Copeland will be asked to take a leave of absence.

PROBLEMS OF THE FARM

They Will Be Discussed at Meeting of State Agricultural Society in St. Paul To-morrow.

The annual meeting of the Minnesota State Agricultural Society will open to-morrow morning in the rooms of the St. Paul Commercial Union.

Wednesday Morning—Prayer, George H. Bridgman, D. D., president Hamline university; address, Governor S. R. Van Sant.

Wednesday Afternoon—"Progress in Horticulture," Fred H. Smith, president University of Minnesota.

Wednesday Evening—(Under the auspices of the agricultural department of the University of Minnesota, Dean W. M. Liggett, presiding.)

Thursday Morning—"The Selection of Textile Fibers for Household Use," Edith H. Staples, St. Paul, Minn.

Thursday Afternoon—"The Selection of Textile Fibers for Household Use," Edith H. Staples, St. Paul, Minn.

Friday Morning—"The Selection of Textile Fibers for Household Use," Edith H. Staples, St. Paul, Minn.

Friday Afternoon—"The Selection of Textile Fibers for Household Use," Edith H. Staples, St. Paul, Minn.

AN OBSTACLE FOR RAND

One Absentee Can Defeat His Motion to Unseat Healy's New Appointees.

Unless twenty-six aldermen are present at the next meeting of the city council, Alderman Lars Rand's motion to reconsider the vote by which the council confirmed City Attorney Frank Healy's appointment of Albert C. Finney as third assistant city attorney, cannot be entertained.

Mr. Finney called on the city attorney this morning, but will not presume to act as third assistant until the motion to reconsider has been finally disposed of.

Judge F. C. Brooks this morning denied the motion for a new trial in the case of the state against Frederick W. Ames, convicted of receiving a bribe from Addie Williams.

The decision was made some weeks ago and was argued by Victor Welch, attorney for the defendant, and by County Attorney Boardman for the state.

Joe Cohen's Case Set. The case of the state against Joseph Cohen was set by Judge Harrison this morning.

FOUR DIVORCES GRANTED

A Fifth Case Is Heard and Taken Under Advice.

The fair sex held the center of the stage in the divorce court in Judge Gray's courtroom this morning.

Charged with Serious Crime. The case of Edward Bond, charged with performing a criminal operation, is on trial before Judge Harrison.

DR. GEO. GORDON, PREST

Chosen to Lead Jewish Educational Alliance—Enrollment Grows.

The movement to organize the Jewish Educational Alliance in order to secure possession of Hope chapel, Third street and Ninth avenue N., and convert it into a home for various Jewish clubs, is growing in strength.

Not Inmate, but Drunk. Judge Harvey Saturday disposed of Albert Gunderson's case of supposed insanity by declaring that the prisoner was suffering from alcoholism.

Saloon Man Held Up. Tupper of Tupper & Anderson Robbed at Muzzle of Revolver.

Three masked men entered the saloon of Tupper & Anderson shortly after 10 o'clock last night, and at the point of a revolver compelled the proprietor to give up $200.

Relief Is Coming. A Warmer Wave Is Headed Toward Minneapolis From the Weather Factory.

Although yesterday was a cold Sunday locally—14 degrees below zero at 7 a. m.—to-day is comparatively warm.

Relief Is Coming. A Warmer Wave Is Headed Toward Minneapolis From the Weather Factory.

Relief Is Coming. A Warmer Wave Is Headed Toward Minneapolis From the Weather Factory.

Relief Is Coming. A Warmer Wave Is Headed Toward Minneapolis From the Weather Factory.

Relief Is Coming. A Warmer Wave Is Headed Toward Minneapolis From the Weather Factory.

Relief Is Coming. A Warmer Wave Is Headed Toward Minneapolis From the Weather Factory.

Relief Is Coming. A Warmer Wave Is Headed Toward Minneapolis From the Weather Factory.

Relief Is Coming. A Warmer Wave Is Headed Toward Minneapolis From the Weather Factory.

Relief Is Coming. A Warmer Wave Is Headed Toward Minneapolis From the Weather Factory.

"What is the matter with John Goodnow?" repeated R. van Bergen, the oriental correspondent passing through on his way to the far east, in response to a question from a newspaper reporter.

"I say emphatically that John Goodnow is the best consul general we have had at Shanghai so long as I can remember that port."

The Boxer Complications. "I will pass over many minor matters in which John Goodnow appeared as the champion of our interests."

Positively our last clean up sale. We have about one hundred dresses all told that we must close out quickly.

Silk Waists. Positively our last clean up sale. We have about one hundred dresses all told that we must close out quickly.

Girls' School Dresses. Ages 10 to 16 years—about twenty all told—imported cheviot, serge and zibeline—in navy blue, brown and dark red.

VACATED HIS PERCH. Controller Rogers Finally Pays Acting Mayor Jones' Salary.

In face of his announced determination not to sign the Rand resolution authorizing the city treasurer to pay Alderman D. P. Jones $666.67 for his four months' service as acting mayor of Minneapolis.

NO PARDONS VOTED. Board's Business Delayed by Attorney General Douglas' Absence.

The state board of pardons met this afternoon with one member short.

Great Discount Sale. Our annual pre-inventory sale we intend to be the greatest we have ever had and are cutting prices regardless of values.

10 Per Cent Discount on Solid Gold Jewelry, Hawkes' Cut Glass.

20 Per Cent Discount on Solid Set Rings.

20 Per Cent Discount on Sterling Silver Toilet Articles.

25 Per Cent Discount on Cane and Umbrellas.

25 Per Cent Discount on L.ather Goods.

25 Per Cent Discount on Sterling Silver Novelties.

Going out of bric-a-brac and have cut the prices almost in two.

See the many special articles shown on our counters at prices that cannot fail to interest.

B. Hudson & Son, 519 Nicollet Av.

Ten Days of Fast and Furious Selling

Just ten days remain before our annual inventory—which means ten days of unheard of bargains. It is well known that when we use the word "Bargains," it means something.

Winter Jackets and Coats.

Not a garment reserved—Every garment absolutely new—including all our novelty Coats.

Dressy Tailor Suits and Walking Suits.

French designs, black and evening shades, handsomely trimmed in lace—$35.00, $32.50 and $25.00.

Silk Petticoats.

French designs, black and evening shades, handsomely trimmed in lace—$35.00, $32.50 and $25.00.

Silk Waists.

Positively our last clean up sale. We have about one hundred dresses all told that we must close out quickly.

Girls' School Dresses.

Ages 10 to 16 years—about twenty all told—imported cheviot, serge and zibeline—in navy blue, brown and dark red.

Fred. D. Young & Co.

Syndicate Block. 513 Nicollet Ave.

VACATED HIS PERCH

Controller Rogers Finally Pays Acting Mayor Jones' Salary.

In face of his announced determination not to sign the Rand resolution authorizing the city treasurer to pay Alderman D. P. Jones $666.67 for his four months' service as acting mayor of Minneapolis.

NO PARDONS VOTED

Board's Business Delayed by Attorney General Douglas' Absence.

The state board of pardons met this afternoon with one member short.

Great Discount Sale.

Our annual pre-inventory sale we intend to be the greatest we have ever had and are cutting prices regardless of values.

10 Per Cent Discount on Solid Gold Jewelry, Hawkes' Cut Glass.

20 Per Cent Discount on Solid Set Rings.

20 Per Cent Discount on Sterling Silver Toilet Articles.

25 Per Cent Discount on Cane and Umbrellas.

25 Per Cent Discount on L.ather Goods.

25 Per Cent Discount on Sterling Silver Novelties.